Stay tuned to our frequency - out there *

* We like the challenge of turning perceived or actual disadvantages to our advantage, of responding creatively and intelligently, indeed, cheekily, to a problem. When people say, "oh, it's too far to go to York," we say, "yes, it's out there, in fact, we are the most out there of any Toronto art gallery" -radically so. Moreover, we are out there, "everywhere."

By Car: Pay parking is available
kitty-corner in the Student Services
Parking Garage on Ian Macdonald

INTERESTED IN BEING "OUT THERE?"

We are on an intellectual adventure...and we want to take you along with us.

Whether it's our unique performance bus that brings downtown free to our openings or our innovative off-site exhibitions, the AGYU intelligently expands the boundaries of "out there"...but not without the sense of fun that comes with breaking every presumed rule!

Now there is another reason to be "out there" as we open a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art gallery with an international roster of artists such as Fiona Tan, Stan Douglas, and Jeremy Deller.

At the AGYU, we believe that there are no rules and hierarchies when:

"Everyone is an artist." -Joseph Beuys

Could art ever be useful? Ever since the desert glitter drifted over the burnt-out ruins of Plaster Lagoon thousands of artists have pondered and dreamed of such a thing, yet, art must not be used anymore as another elaborate means of fleeing from thinking because of the multiplying amount of information each person needs to process in order to come to any kind of decision about what kind of planet one wants to live on before business, religion, and government succeed in blowing it out of the solar system. -Jack Smith
