The Assignment

- Requires you to find historic or old photos of some part of the Toronto region.
- These should be outdoor pictures, showing a street scene, the landscape or a neighbourhood.
- One picture is sufficient, or a few to represent a neighbourhood.
Finding historic pictures

- City of Toronto Archives has lots to choose from
- Region of Peel has few photos online, but Region of Durham has more.
- The Archives of Ontario may help.
Present Day

• Then you need to see what the area looks like today
  – Visit it and take pictures
  – Visit it on Google streetview
• Notice the differences/similarities and write about them in a 2-page write-up
Write-Up

• The pictures may express some changes over time, but they don’t express all the changes.
• Are the changes important?
• What about continuities?
• What does the comparison of photos tell us/not tell us about change in the place?
Write-Up

• It is helpful to include reference copies of the photos in the assignment.

• The photos you used should be referenced, and you will probably need to refer to them in the text.

• Any other reference material to be cited.
• Toronto’s Changing Skyline: CTV at 50
• Cinderella Township: Mississauga in 1957
• Olivia Chow on Changing Toronto