

These three yellow circles have a blue segment painted on them. The circles are rotating at three, four and five revolutions per minute, as illustrated below.

How long will it be before the circles are positioned so that the large triangle is complete?

