

The first large group of men from the Azores to set out for Canada was tendered a reception at the Civil Government House in São Miguel on March 19, 1954. The event was front page news in the two newspapers Correio dos Açores and Açores where this historical photo was first published.