

YORK BRAZILIAN STUDIES SEMINAR

SCHEDULE -- FALL TERM 2007

The seminar meets on alternate Wednesdays in room 280 York Lanes, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. (any exceptions are noted below). Feel free to bring your lunch. Presentations are short and informal with plenty of opportunity for friendly discussion.

We thank CERLAC, the Faculty of Environmental Studies, and the office of the Vice President, Research and Innovation at York University for their support of this seminar series.

Sept. 19 -- Andrea Pacheco Pacifico: "Refugee integration and social capital -- São Paulo and Toronto"

Oct. 3 -- Gislene Aparecida dos Santos: "Black identity and race quota policies in Brazil"
This seminar will meet a half-hour earlier than usual, from noon to 2 p.m.

Oct. 17 -- Gena Chang-Campbell "Mestiza Consciousness of a Brazilian Present and Possible Futures".

Oct. 31 -- Frank Luce: "Gabriela's sisters: women working in cacao"
This seminar will meet in HNES room 142, not York Lanes.

Nov. 14 -- Claudia de Simone: "Toward Popular Environmental Education in Marginalized Watershed Communities: The Case Study of São Paulo"
This seminar will meet in HNES room 142, not York Lanes.

Nov. 21 -- Denise Paiva, Universidade Federal de Goiás: "The Workers' Party and President Lula: Then & Now"
This seminar will meet in HNES room 142, not York Lanes.

Nov. 28 -- Paulo Marco: "Environmental education with youth -- Brazil and Toronto"
This seminar will meet in York Lanes 390, not 280.

And coming up in the Winter Term, 2008:

Feb. -- Emelie Chhangur, Assistant Curator, Art Gallery of York University: "Brazilian artists in residence at York and contemporary art practices in Brazil"

March -- Katherine Brasch: "Brazilian migration to Toronto"

(Dates and additional presentations to be confirmed.) Please send further seminar proposals or ideas to Ellie Perkins (esperk@yorku.ca). All are welcome!