

Prof. Dr. Harald Dorig - Curriculum Vitae

- 1953 Born in Frankfurt/Germany – married – two sons
- 1972 – 1979 Studies of Law and Political Science
- 1979 – 1981 Research Studies in Constitutional Law
Academic Degree as „Doctor of Law“
- 1981 – 1983 Practical Education in Advocacy, Public Administration and Court Procedure
- 1983 - 1988 Judge at Regional Court (civil and criminal law)
- 1988 – 1990 Director of Law in the State Department of Justice
- 1990 - 1999 Leading Director in the State Department of Science
- 2000 Appointment as Judge at the German Supreme Administrative Court – since 2002 in the Senate for Asylum and Migration Law, since 2007 as Vice-President of the Senate
- 2000 Appointment as Professor at the Faculty of Law in Jena/Germany
- 2001
+ 2002 Visiting Professor at Sydney University

Wide range of publication in German and International constitutional and administrative law

Member of the IARLJ