

Project on Latin American Families in Toronto

PRESENTATION

Greetings and thank you for accepting to participate in this study. Whatever is discussed in this interview will remain absolutely confidential and your name would not appear in any publication. Before we begin we would like to explain the principle objective of our study.

The goal of our research is to understand better the experiences of immigrant families and the organizations for immigrant support. For this study, we are interested in finding out about the child-rearing experiences of family members and how they maintain ties with their country of origin.

In this interview we would like to ask you about:

1. The migration history of your family.
2. Your experiences of raising your children in Canada and in your country of origin.
3. Your ties with your country of origin.
