Term: Fall/Winter 2017/2018
Course Instructor: Karen Burke, ACE 355, 416-736-2100, ext. 77131 burkek@yorku.ca

Course Time and Location: Tuesday 4:30 – 7:30 pm, ACE 235

FA/MUSI 1556, 2556, 3556, 4556 provides students with an authentic gospel music experience. Using a rote style of teaching, students rely primarily on ‘learning by ear’ and aural memory to learn repertoire. This course encourages improvisation in solo and group settings as well as an understanding of primarily contemporary gospel choir music. The York University Gospel Choir (YUGC) presents workshops, showcases and annual concerts each year and concert performances include a live rhythm section and opportunities for soloists and small ensembles.

Prerequisite/Co-requisite: Open to both music majors and non-music majors (by audition and with permission) who have an interest in the study of popular Western music.

Course Goals
This course will teach vocal production, articulation, interpretation, vocal improvisation, rhythm, gospel styling and performance practice. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to demonstrate gospel music articulation, phrasing, diction, expression, intonation, blend and balance used in a variety of gospel styles. Students will develop the techniques and stage presence necessary to perform gospel music in a live setting.

Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of these courses, students will:
- Understand the historical roots of contemporary gospel music
- Become deeply familiar with the gospel artists/composers who have contributed to the lexicon of gospel choir music
- Learn to sing gospel choir repertoire ranging from early spirituals to contemporary gospel classics
- Have been given opportunities to have solo and/or small ensemble singing opportunities
- Develop knowledge of the ‘on-stage’ gospel music experience both by performing and by attending other off-site gospel music concerts
- Develop harmonization skills and the ability to learn parts by rote
- Apply their theoretical and practical knowledge of music to facilitate an approach to arranging their own gospel music performances
- Acquire the knowledge to create and perform original gospel music choral arrangements
- Become familiar with the culture of the gospel music community and its unique congregational responses
- Have the ability to take leadership in a group performance and mentor other singers

Organization of the Course

Auditions are held for all new registrants to confirm your voice range, aural aptitude and gospel music knowledge. Rehearsals are held weekly as a full choir however, teaching may happen in smaller sectionals and/or ensembles. 3rd and 4th year are considered the ‘Senior students’ and will have tasks and evaluations commensurate with their expected level of expertise. NOTE: Students registered at the 3rd and 4th year levels will complete a Senior Ensemble performance and also may be called upon to perform duties and performances commensurate with the knowledge expected for this level. In the vocal evaluations, Senior students will be evaluated with accordingly higher expectations with regard to articulation, demonstrations of leadership and knowledge of authentic performance practice.

Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.

Last date to drop this course without receiving a grade: Feb. 9, 2017

Assignments and Evaluation (expanded)

Attendance (Classes, Dress Rehearsals, Performances) – 40%

Classes
Any student who is absent from any three class meetings in one term, may be dropped from the performances and/or required to demonstrate an understanding of missed material. Students leaving early from class without permission will receive an absence for the entire class.

Excessive absences or lateness will lead to failure in the course. Extraordinary circumstances or illness must be supported by documentation. For every three (3) late arrivals to class, you will receive one (1) unexcused absence. Attendance will be taken for each class/concert. Students are responsible to sign in at every rehearsal and performance event or they will be counted as absent. Lates are cumulative over the entire year.

To receive an excused absence:
An excused absence requires a 2-step process.
1. NOTIFYING IN ADVANCE. You must email Professor Burke (burkek@yorku.ca) in advance. If you email Professor Burke, you may proceed immediately to Step 2. If you only complete step 1, you may not receive an excused absence and your final grade will suffer.
2. DOCUMENTATION. After contacting Professor Burke, you must produce documentation for your absence. This could include but is not limited to a doctor’s note or a personal note for University-related business.

NOTE: Only one (1) absence from class per term is allowed without penalty. Further absences will result in a lower grade and excessive absences in a failure. Attendance records for all choir members are available for verification. It will be the responsibility of the student to check that record for accuracy. Any discrepancies should be reported immediately.
Performances and Dress Rehearsals
Attendance at these events is mandatory and final performances are equivalent to the final exam in another course. All dress rehearsals are mandatory for participation in concerts. NOTE: All notes regarding concert dress rehearsal/performance absences must be filed by October 3 and January 23 respectively.

Failure to attend the dress rehearsals and concerts, without notice, will result in a failing grade.

Vocal Evaluations – 30%
Vocal Evaluations will test text memorization, knowledge of the form, phrasing and rhythmic integrity using passages from our repertoire. A time slot for each designated group of singers of no more than 6 (and no more than 2 per voice part) will be arranged during the period just prior to the ‘end of term’ concerts. Students will be marked individually. If a student cannot demonstrate appropriate knowledge of the repertoire, the Course Director reserves the right to deny participation in the concert. 1st term’s vocal evaluations will be scheduled beginning November 13, 2017 and the 2nd term’s vocal evaluations will be scheduled beginning March 19, 2018.

Because of the nature of the evaluations, make-ups are very difficult and so be sure to pay close attention to posted dates and show up to the time slot for which you signed up!

Participation/Preparation/Leadership– 10%
Students are expected to contribute to our rehearsal time by coming with their lyrics memorized for the assigned songs and having a commitment to excellence.

In-class preparedness and participation with regards to solo tryouts, small ensembles and concert preparation tasks will also be counted towards your participation mark.

Senior Ensembles (3rd and 4th year only) - 10%
All students in 3rd or 4th year will be evaluated in groups not less than 4, and no more than 10, in March. Groups are responsible for executing an authentic gospel music performance of about 5-6 minutes in length. Outside of two given class times, you must use your own time to prepare your song to performance level.

Tip: Refrain from using print music and choreography and focus on the ‘quality and not the quantity’ (i.e. length) of your vocal performance. You will only have access to keyboard accompaniment. Your final individual mark will consist of the total of your group’s evaluation mark assigned by the Course Director plus the average mark assigned to you by the others in your group (peer evaluation).

Song choices must be submitted in advance to the Course Artistic Director by January 30, 2018 and the performances will take place in class on Tuesday, March 13, 2018.

Concert Reports - 10%
All students are required to attend at least one community gospel concert EACH term and to prepare a concert report as per the Report Template & Guidelines provided on-line. Reports should be at least 2 pages, double-spaced and double-sided and MUST be in regard to a Gospel concert. If you are not sure that the event you will be attending qualifies as a Gospel concert, please ask.
Concert Reports can be handed in at any time. The last date for submissions for Term 1 concert reports is the first class back after Christmas (January 9) and for Term 2, the deadline is just after the end of winter term, April 10th before 4:30 p.m. All submissions must be to the music office and if handing into the office, please get your report date-stamped! Assignments submitted via e-mail or ‘under the door’ will not be accepted. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Off-Site Performance Opportunities (OSPOs) – 10%

Students are expected to participate in at least (1) one off-site performance opportunity (OSPO) outside of class time per year. Participation in additional OSPOs increases your participation mark and is especially helpful to Senior Students. (See NOTE* below).

See the list of IMPORTANT DATES for the OSPOs that have been booked by the Course Director. From time to time, there may be other opportunities for off-site/extra performances. These opportunities will be posted and/or announced in advance to facilitate sign-ups.

NOTE: 3rd and 4th year students may substitute an EXTRA off-site performance to replace EACH required concert report. In other words, Senior students must complete a total of 3 off-site opportunities if they do not hand in any concert reports AND at least one of these extra performances must take place during Term I.

Repertoire:

Music samples may be found on-line through resources such as Spotify and links may be posted from time to time on our official class Facebook page: YUGC – Members Only

Students are often ‘auditioned’ for solos during choir rehearsals. Students assigned solos will also be required to attend individual sessions with the instructor.

Rehearsal Expectations:

Our classes are scheduled from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. with the last hour of class periodically being used as a ‘flexible hour’, providing opportunities for a variety of activities such as:

- Sectionals (By grade or by section)
- Choreography Solo Tryouts
- Musicians’ Rehearsals
- Training for Developing Choir Directors
- OSPO Rehearsals
- Vocal Coaching
- Senior Ensemble Rehearsals/Observations

Students are asked to refrain from moving about during our rehearsals and to remain focussed until the class is formally dismissed. There will be a 10-15 min. break given during our three-hour classes. Be prepared to stay until 7:30 p.m.! Cell phones are not allowed to be in use during rehearsals (unless requested by the Course Director) and are definitely forbidden on stage.

Concert Dress:

Formal Concert Dress (unless otherwise directed) will be ALL BLACK with a ‘splash’ of red included in an accessory, i.e. belts, scarves, and ties. Think more dressy, less casual! No hats or gloves, please. Approved attire will consist of black pants or black skirts to the knee or longer for women and black pants for the men. For all, black shirts/blouses must have sleeves (short or long) and conservative necklines. All men must wear black shoes and socks. Women, if wearing a skirt, please wear black hose. Please avoid the use of cologne or perfume and any clothing which draws undue attention to you. Non-compliance with the above rules will have consequences up to and including removal from performance. For less formal appearances, we will wear jeans and solid black sleeved top with no print, exceptions may include York apparel.
