Expanded Course Description

The individual study of classical piano is intended to provide a learning environment for the student in which a master performer/teacher designs a personal course of study that addresses the musical and technical issues specific to each student. In addition to a weekly assessment of assigned materials the instructor will augment the student’s awareness of technical and performance elements through the recommendation of theoretical materials: audio recordings, assigned readings (books and articles), public concerts, films, videos, etc.

Performance Jury
At the conclusion of each year, all students will be examined by jury. In every jury students may be asked questions about the composer, the form of the piece, the period, the style or other relevant musical matters. Attention to personal appearance and the careful preparation of materials (3 copies of music for the jury, completed jury forms signed by the teacher) are important parts of the jury process. All music for juries must be memorized (exceptions for complex 20th and 21st century music only). The jury grade will be adjusted accordingly for non-memorized performances.

Students should be prepared to perform the following amounts of repertoire:

First year: 3.0 5 minutes First year: 6.0 10 minutes
Second year: 3.0           7 minutes                      Second year: 6.0           15 minutes
Third year: 3.0               10 minutes                    Third year: 6.0               20 minutes
Fourth year: 3.0             12 minutes                    Fourth year: 6.0             25 minutes

Accompaniment Policy: All instrumentalists requiring accompaniment for their juries need to bring a qualified accompanist to their Performance jury at their own expense. Lack of appropriate accompaniment will result in a lower grade. A list of qualified accompanists is available in the Music Department.

Grading, Assignment Submission, Lateness Penalties and Missed Tests

Grading: The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.) (For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/pdfs/ug2004cal/calug04_5_acadinfo.pdf)

Students may take a limited number of courses for degree credit on an ungraded (pass/fail) basis. For full information on this option see Alternative Grading Option in the Faculty of Fine Arts section of the Undergraduate Calendar - http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/2010-2011/faculty_rules/FA/grading.htm

Assignment Submission: Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment. Assignments are to be performed in class time as required by the instructor.

Lateness Penalty: Assignments received later than the due date will be subject to a penalty (one grade per week.) Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor but will require supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor’s letter).
