SPECIAL FEATURES

1. SPECIAL FEATURES

Prerequisite: FA/MUSI 2201 3.0, 2202 3.0, 2051 3.0, or permission of the course director.

Course Consultation Hours: By appointment

Expanded Course Description: This course seeks to develop the art and craft of jazz composition, through analysis, transcription and performance. Students will create a series of compositions, based upon various approaches and techniques as discussed in class, and arrange their compositions for small jazz ensemble. Each class meeting will feature a lecture/discussion with recorded examples on a specific type of jazz composition.

Brief statement of purpose:
This course is designed to give the students the knowledge and practical skills required to create a range of jazz compositions that are expressive, practical (i.e., ‘playable’) and properly notated. While intended to function as a stand-alone course, MUSI 3131 will also serve to prepare the student for continued study in MUSI 3132 “Jazz Composition and Arranging: Large Ensemble”. This course is also intended to provide the student with a basic understanding of the craft of jazz composition: how various types of jazz compositions are conceived and constructed.

2. TOPICS AND CONCEPTS
Course Text / Readings: A variety of recorded jazz compositions will be played in class, with additional recordings suggested for further listening and analysis.

Course Materials: While students may choose to complete their assignments using conventional methods and materials (manuscript paper and pencil), students are strongly urged to purchase Sibelius music engraving software for this course.

3. LEARNING OUTCOMES WITH EXAMPLES

Brief list of specific learning objectives:
- to gain an awareness of the history and tradition of jazz composition for small ensemble;
- to develop practical knowledge in writing for specific jazz instruments (brass, woodwind, rhythm section, etc.);
- to gain a working knowledge of instrumental transpositions and effective ranges;
- to experience the benefits of hearing one’s compositions played and reviewed, including valuable feedback from classmates (who will be performing the compositions) and from the instructor;
- to enable the student to use jazz composition as a vehicle for personal artistic expression.

4. GRADED ASSESSMENT

The final grade for the course will be based on the following items, weighted as indicated:

Assignments (three of the weekly composition assignments will be marked)

Composition Assignment: 25 %
Composition Assignment: 25 %
Composition Assignment: 25 %

Participation (includes attendance, classroom discussion, submission of assignments on time): 25 %

Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.

Grading, Assignment Submission, Lateness Penalties and Missed Tests

Grading: The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ - 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

Assignment Submission: Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment. Assignments are to be handed in to the course instructor at the beginning of class on the due date.

Lateness Penalty: Assignments received later than the due date will be penalized. Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor but will require supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor’s letter).

Missed Tests: Students with a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (e.g., doctor’s letter) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.
