1. Special Features
prerequisite: fa/ysdn 2003 3.0 or permission of the Department of Design. This is a required practicum course for BDes Majors.

2. Topics and Concepts
This course continues an in-depth investigation into contemporary explorations and applications of typographic principles, information theories, history and various approaches to solving visual communication problems. Letterpress printing and digital processes are investigated. This course will assist students in the acquisition of essential typographic skills while allowing practice in the use of typography as an expressive tool in solving design problems.

Topics covered include:
• Typographic vocabulary
• Measuring and classification systems
• Form sensitivity and visual shape relationships in typography
• Typographic principles and best practices
• Type as information, expression and style
• Issues of readability, legibility, expression, and voice
• Typography and image relationships

Suggested Texts:
• Dair, Carl. (1967). Design with Type. University of Toronto Press.

Additional readings may be assigned or recommended during the course.

3. Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of this course, students will have demonstrated their abilities to:
• Use typography as image, expression and style
• Use typography as information
• Work to detailed specifications requiring neatness and accuracy
• Relate typography to content and communication
• Achieve professional standards in the presentation of comps and prototypes

4. Graded Assessment
The proportional weighting of the coursework is as follows:
15% Project 1: Expressive Text
35% Project 2: Multilingual Typography
25% Project 3: Interactive Typography
15% Final Test
10% Attendance/Progress/Participation

Projects will be graded at each stage of development outlined in the project brief. A grading sheet will be returned with each project.

Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Assignments are to be handed in at the beginning of class on their due date in the format specified by the assignment outline provided by the Course Instructor.

attendance & lateness:
Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. Students are responsible for letting faculty know ahead of time if they are going to be late for class, or not attending. Exceptions for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor. Supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor’s letter) may be required upon request.

missed deadlines or tests:
Assignments received later than the due date will be penalized 10% per business day that the assignment is late. Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor. Supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor’s letter) may be required upon request. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

program grading system:
The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.).

For a full description of the York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar: http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2015-2016/academic/index.htm

Students may take a limited number of courses for degree credit on an ungraded (pass/fail) basis.

For full information on this option see Alternative Grading Option in the Faculty of Fine Arts section of the Undergraduate Calendar: http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2015-2016/faculty_rules/FA/grading.htm
