Participation consists in regular attendance, being prepared for class, and contributing to the ensemble.

Ensemble Attendance Policy

Performance and ensemble pedagogy is dependent upon the full presence of and participation by members of the constituencies. Tardiness and absenteeism are not tolerated in the professional world and are therefore taken to be equally unacceptable in performance training.

Excusable absences from rehearsal are based on the following circumstances:
1. Personal illness, 2. Family tragedy, 3. Acts of God, 4. Off campus auditions or performances related to other courses. Such absences will be excused provided they are either arranged with the prior permission of the Ensemble Director or reported in writing within 72 hours of each occurrence, and supported by medical documentation. Students missing an instrumental ensemble rehearsal must make all efforts to provide a substitute performer.

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. Persons arriving late more than two times will be counted as absent. Unexcused absences will each result in a one-grade deduction from the final mark (an A becomes B+, a B+ becomes B, etc.).

A TOTAL OF FOUR UNEXCUSED ABSENCES WILL RESULT IN FAILURE OF THE COURSE

All dress rehearsals are mandatory for participation in concerts. If a student is denied participation in a concert due to unexcused absences, excessive tardiness and/or lack of preparation, he/she will receive a failure for the term.

In-class listening (to live and recorded music) and discussion afterward is an essential element in the learning process. Students are expected to listen quietly. Noisy or distracting behaviour is tantamount to poor participation.

Last date to drop a full year (Y) course without receiving a grade: February 3, 2020
