Expanded Course Description

This course, Romantic Music 3334 explores the music in the 19th century with emphasis on developing the knowledge of repertoire and forms (both vocal and instrumental), such as opera, lieder, symphony, sonata, concerto and chamber music as well as building an awareness of the historical and cultural contexts of this period. This course involves lectures by the course director, which will be supplemented by recording and videos. Specific works and composers will be studied and various scores, recordings, video and reference books will be used as an aid in class. The required listening and reading assignments are central to the course. Student assignments and oral presentations will also create individual participation in class and students are encouraged to participate in class discussions.

Topics and Concepts

Brief Statement of Purpose

Final Exam Research Essay Exam:
The final exam questions will be assigned to the student to research and discuss in essay form. All questions must be answered and discussed in essay form. The exam must be handed in or emailed to the Professor by December 15th, 2020. As this is a final exam no extensions will be given and no late email deliveries will be allowed. All answers must be supported by musical examples. The student must provide a bibliography and footnotes as well as all internet references. The written essay answers must be typed double spaced in 12pt times roman font and will be up to 10 pages long (2500 words). This is a discussion essay exam and marks will be deducted for incorrect spelling and grammar.

Assignment Submission:
Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment.

Lateness Penalty:
Assignments received later than the due date will be penalized one half marks per day. Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc. may be entertained by the Course Director but will require supporting documentation (e.g. a doctor’s letter)

Missed Tests:
Students must have a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc. If confirmed by supporting documentation, the student may request accommodation from the Course Director. Listening tests cannot be made up. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

Grading, Assignment Submission, Lateness Penalties and Missed Tests
Grading: The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ - 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.) (For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2010-2011/academic/index.htm
