COURSE CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course covers kinematics and kinetics of rigid body motion (2D and 3D) based on concepts of force, work, momentum and energy methods; impact; mechanical vibrations; engineering applications are emphasized. Prerequisites: SC/MATH 1013 3.00, SC/MATH 1014 3.00, and SC/PHYS 1800 3.00.

Course Description
This course covers kinematics and kinetics of rigid body motion (2D) based on concepts of force, work, momentum and energy methods; impact; engineering applications are emphasized.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)
Upon the completion of this course, students are expected to learn and retain the following concepts and skills:
- Analyze the linear and angular velocities and accelerations of a rigid body in planar or using appropriate frame of references.
- Identify planar kinetic equations of motion, translation, rotation, and general plane motion for rigid bodies.
- Apply the principles of work and energy, conservation of energy, impulse and momentum, and conservation of momentum to the solution of engineering problems involving rigid bodies in planar motion.

Evaluation Scheme
Assignments: 5%
Tutorials: 15%
Quizzes: 60%
Final: 20%

Course Topics
- Rotational Motion and Absolute Motion Analysis
Grading
The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, B = 6, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

(For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - https://calendars.students.yorku.ca/2018-2019/academic-and-financial-information/academic-information/grades-and-grading-schemes)

Assignment Submission
Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment. Assignments are to be handed in during lectures, tutorials, or through the course Moodle site as specified by the respective instructions.

Lateness Penalty
Assignments received later than the due date will be penalized (i.e., 20% deduction per day that assignment is late). Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor but will require supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor’s letter).

Missed Tests
Students with a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (e.g., doctor’s letter) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor on a case-by-case arrangement. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

For missed exams or final assignments, students are expected to fill out the deferred exam form (https://secure.students.yorku.ca/pdf/final-exam-assignment-deferred-standing-agreement.pdf). Please note that Senate policy states that “normally, requests for deferred standing must be communicated within one week following a missed examination or the last day to submit course work”. The period during which the University is officially closed for December holidays and statutory holidays is not counted in the determination of deadline days.

Classroom Etiquette
The use of electronic devices (smart-phones, tablets, etc.) during lectures and tutorials is only permitted for education purposes.

NETiquette
In all online communications (e.g., email, online discussion, or other forms of online communications), please consider the guidelines from the Core Rules of Netiquette by Virginia Shea (http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html). Sometimes, online behaviour can appear to be inappropriate or disrespectful that it requires attention and follow up. In this case, please make sure you let your instructor know immediately so that the right resources can be identified to help.
Reminders

- If you are using a personal e-mail address, please identify yourself as a student registered in this course by providing your student number in your signature block. You are responsible for ensuring you are receiving official course information in an efficient and timely manner.
- All students are expected to familiarize themselves with the following information:
  - General information (http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2013-2014/policies/index.htm)
  - Senate policy on academic honesty and the academic integrity website (http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/document.php?document=69) and (http://www.yorku.ca/tutorial/academic_integrity/)

Land Acknowledgement

- As this meeting is virtual and we are not all gathered in the same space, I recognize that this land acknowledgment might not be for the territory that you are currently on. We ask that if this is the case, you take the responsibility to acknowledge the traditional territory you are on and the current treaty holders. As a member of the York University community, I recognize that many Indigenous Nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.
