MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Welcome to our learning community!

York’s new Faculty of Health aspires to educate future global leaders in redefining and advancing health and human science. Through exceptional education and research, we redefine the possible to help keep people healthier longer and rejuvenate the total health system. I am delighted that you have joined us here with your fellow students.

Our Faculty was established in July 2006 with the purpose to transcend traditional barriers among disciplines to expose students to a wide range of perspectives and valuable learning opportunities, drawing on the basic sciences, social sciences, humanities, nursing, management sciences and information technology. Our unique undergraduate programs bring students with varied interests and academic backgrounds together to understand the broad factors that determine the health of individuals, communities and whole populations.

You will graduate from our programs with a strong foundation in your discipline and with the opportunity to apply that knowledge in the real world. You’ll be equipped with the requisite knowledge, skills and enthusiasm to be a leader in the ever-evolving health sector and beyond.

This Handbook will provide you with valuable, detailed information about our programs, the academic challenges ahead, and the support mechanisms in place to facilitate your success. Keep this resource handy as you traverse your first year in the Faculty of Health. I also encourage you to visit www.health.yorku.ca. If you need more information, do not hesitate to contact the Office of Student and Academic Services at 416 736 5299 or via e-mail at: hhadvise@yorku.ca

Congratulations on your decision to pursue an undergraduate degree at York University in the Faculty of Health.

Let the great learning adventure begin!

Harvey Skinner, PhD, CPsych, FCAHS
Dean
BEFORE YOU BEGIN

The Faculty of Health New Student Handbook provides all newly admitted students with an overview of the necessary information on course selection, enrolment, and registration. There are three types of newly admitted students:

First Year Students – Admitted with no transfer credit into the first year of study. Some courses will require that you have completed specific high-school credits to ensure you have the necessary background to succeed.

Transfer Students – Admitted with transfer credit. Your year level of study is determined by the number of transfer credits granted. If you are expecting to receive transfer credit, your assessment will be completed after you have booked your enrolment appointment. In some cases, not all transfer credit received can be used to fulfill degree requirements and you may be required to complete additional courses. Your advisor will discuss your transfer credit in detail during your enrolment appointment. Additionally, you are strongly encouraged to visit relevant Schools and/or Departments after your enrolment appointment to pick up supplemental calendars.

Mature Students – Admitted under a mature student status with no transfer credits into the first year of study.

This Handbook will also provide you with a summary of some of the key information you will need during your degree at York.

It will help you understand the University’s academic and administrative structure, policies and procedures, describe the academic programs offered in the Faculty of Health and tell you about the student services and facilities available to you. Keep this Handbook as an important resource as you navigate through your first year in the Faculty of Health.

Important Note:
The material contained within this Handbook has been submitted by academic units and administrative departments. All general information and course references have been checked for accuracy, but there may be inconsistencies or errors. York reserves the right to make changes to the information contained in this Handbook or the Undergraduate Calendar without prior notice. By the act of registration, each student becomes bound by the policies and regulations of York University, including the Faculty in which the student is registered.

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the general information, rules and regulations contained in the York University Undergraduate Calendar and with the specific information, rules and regulations of the Faculty or Faculties in which they are registered or enrolled or seeking registration or enrolment, as well as the specific requirements of each degree, diploma or certificate sought. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that the courses chosen are appropriate to the program requirements.

Not every course listed in this Handbook or Undergraduate Calendar will necessarily be offered in any academic year. York reserves the right to limit the number of students who enrol in any program or course. While reasonable efforts will be made to offer courses as required within programs, admission to a program does not guarantee admission to any given course.
If there is an inconsistency between the general academic regulations and policies published in this Handbook or in the York University Undergraduate Calendar and such regulations and policies as established by resolution of a Faculty or of the University Senate, the version of such material as it is established by a Faculty or the University Senate will prevail.

York University disclaims all responsibility and liability for loss or damage suffered or incurred by any student or other party as a result of delays in or termination of its services, courses, or classes by reason of force majeure, fire, flood, riots, war, strikes, lock-outs, damage to University property, financial exigency or other events beyond the reasonable control of the University.
York University disclaims any and all liability for damages arising as a result of errors, interruptions or disruptions to operations or connected with its operations or its campuses, arising out of computer failure or non-compliance of its computing systems.

The Faculty of Health is comprised of four academic units: the School of Health Policy and Management, the School of Kinesiology and Health Science, the School of Nursing and the Department of Psychology. They offer many exciting options and academic programs, as well as opportunities to conduct research and pursue graduate studies.

School of Health Policy and Management

The School of Health Policy and Management is the only one of its kind. Its unique team of researchers and educators explores health from an interdisciplinary perspective to provide you with a comprehensive understanding of current health care challenges. While you can choose to major in one of three disciplines — Health Management, Health Policy or Health Informatics — you will benefit from an integrated exploration of all three.

The School of Health Policy and Management offers a distinct approach to health and social systems education. The School focuses on themes that address the organization and management of Canadian and international health systems, and the concerns of sub-populations within them. By combining insights from many different fields such as political science, sociology, management, medicine and engineering, the School of Health Policy and Management has become a leader in changing the way that people think about health. The School has been in the forefront of promoting the idea that health is the product of the way that society functions rather than looking at health as solely the outcome of what individuals do. It has championed the move from treating illness to preventing illness and from looking at health care in a fragmented way to viewing all the different aspects as parts of a whole.

Whether you choose a career on the front line or in administrative roles, you will gain the skills and understanding to help health organizations shape the future of health care in a meaningful way.

School of Kinesiology and Health Science

Kinesiology and Health Science is the study of human movement and the relationship between physical activity and health. Our program is one of the largest and most diversified programs of its kind in Canada. Students majoring in Kinesiology and Health Science will encounter a multidisciplinary program focused on building an understanding of the anatomical, physiological, psychological and cultural aspects of human movement and health.

A wide range of program options, including numerous academic electives and practicum courses, will provide you with the foundation to pursue careers in health and fitness, teaching, and coaching as well as graduate level professional training in specialized programs such as medicine, physiotherapy, dentistry, and chiropractic.

School of Nursing

The School of Nursing offers you an innovative teaching approach that goes beyond a purely medical model to focus on the development of the theoretical, scientific and philosophical knowledge of human caring.

Today, society is calling for fundamental changes to our understanding of the meaning of health, the role of healthcare practitioners, and the purpose of healthcare systems. This has resulted in an increasing demand for healthcare services and practitioners that focus on the experiences of human beings in a way that respects patients' values and choices about health and quality of life.

We will prepare you to be an influential voice in this important time of transition.

Department of Psychology

The field of psychology is dedicated to the scientific study of behaviour, including thought, feeling and action, viewed from both social and biological perspectives. Though there is a large component of the field involved in animal research, the main focus is on the human species.

The Undergraduate program offers you an extensive and diverse selection of courses that cover virtually all topics within the discipline, from social psychology to neuroscience. They are taught both in classroom settings and on the Internet, by a teaching faculty of award winning teachers and internationally recognized scholars. There are also evening and summer programs designed for working students who wish to pursue their studies on a part-time basis, and a special program in rehabilitation services administered jointly with Seneca College.

ACADEMIC ADVISING INFORMATION

Academic Advising

Academic advising is an integral component of your successful academic career at York. The Faculty of Health provides many opportunities through which you can benefit from a personalized approach to the distribution of information.

Academic orientation begins at the Office of Student and Academic Services with your enrolment appointment. More information, including what you need to do to prepare for that appointment, what to bring, and how long that appointment will take is included in this Handbook under the section Preparing for Your Enrolment Appointment. Please review this information carefully in advance of your enrolment appointment.

Academic Support

You are strongly encouraged to seek out other forms of academic support available to you on the York Campus. Academic support may include peer support, learning skills workshops or online resources. Begin your exploration on campus following your advising appointment or by exploring the Current Students Web site.

Student Code of Conduct

York University is a place of research, teaching and learning where people value civility, diversity, equity and respect in their interactions with one another. Freedom of speech, freedom of association, freedom to study and to learn, freedom to engage in research, and the freedom to write and to publish are all recognized as central to the mission of the institution. It is acknowledged that these values can only be meaningful, and these freedoms fully realized, in an atmosphere of safety and security.

Since their inception, universities have been recognized as clearly distinguishable communities within the larger community and have dealt with issues of misconduct internally. Under the York University Act, 1965,13(2)(c), the President has the power to formulate and implement regulations governing students and student activities. The President has assigned to the Vice-President Students, through the Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution, the responsibility for the administration of this Code of Student Conduct. This Code has been developed through extensive consultation with students, staff, and faculty, and affirms their stated values of equity and respect. It is based on a model that supports a progressive discipline approach that encourages appropriate conduct.

The process the Code outlines for dealing with transgressions is designed to be perceptibly fair, easy to understand, and transparent. In addition, the sanctions it proposes have been developed through community consultation and are understood to be reasonable and suitable for a wide variety of misconduct. Wherever possible and appropriate, sanctions will be corrective rather than punitive. Students are required to familiarize themselves with the student code of conduct and should consult the Current Students Web site.

Student Responsibilities

Every effort is made to ensure that students in the Faculty of Health have access to sound information and individual advice and guidance. Within this context, and within the framework of Faculty and program regulations, you are responsible for making your own choices regarding courses and programs. You are responsible for knowing and fulfilling all degree and program requirements outlined in the York University Undergraduate Calendar. Throughout the academic year, you are not only welcome, but strongly encouraged, to consult the Faculty of Health Office of Student and Academic Services, professional and/or faculty advisors in your School or Department (see the Faculty of Health Schools and Department section of this Handbook for contact information).

Take special care to ensure that:

- The courses you choose meet all requirements for graduation
- The courses you choose meet pre-requisites and are not course-credit exclusions of other courses already taken / or courses you have already been given credit for
- You keep yourself informed about your performance, especially your performance in individual courses
• You observe published deadlines, especially add and drop deadlines and refund deadlines
• The times of your courses do not conflict
• You maintain the grade point average required to proceed in your degree/program of study
• You read, understand and adhere to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty
• You read, understand and adhere to the Student Code of Conduct
• Your student information is kept up to date including changes to your name, address, phone number, York e-mail address, etc

Between the months of April and July we are extremely busy booking enrolment appointments for new students. It is possible that rescheduling your appointment could result in a wait of up to one month.

Enrolment and Registration

Enrolment and registration are two very different things.

Enrolment: You will enrol by placing yourself in courses (adding courses) using the University’s online enrolment system, in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty and its teaching units. You require a Passport York account to access the online registration and enrolment system. You will sign up for your Passport York account at your enrolment appointment. See the Steps to Enrolment Section of this Handbook.

Once you have access to the online registration and enrolment system, you will continue to have access to enrol in (add) or withdraw from (drop) courses. There are both academic and financial deadlines for adding and dropping courses. While you are responsible for familiarizing yourself with both sets of deadlines (there are differences), you will see the academic deadlines in the section on Monitoring Your Academic Performance: Important Dates and Deadlines in this Handbook.

Enrolment deposit: The University imposes payment deadlines. An enrolment deposit of $450 is due within five business days of your initial enrolment (so, within five business days following your enrolment appointment). Deadlines for the payment of remaining academic fees will then follow (please see section on Money Matters in this Handbook). Please also ensure you read the Financial Information section of the Enrolment Guide (go to the Current Students Web site for additional information).

Registration: You will register by paying tuition fees for courses in which you are enrolled, in accordance with the regulations of the Registrar’s Office.

Steps to Enrolment and Registration

Before you are provided enrolment access you must accept your offer of admission at: www.yorku.ca/myfile
Once you have accepted your offer online you must also book your advising appointment. Only once you have accepted your offer and booked your advising appointment will you be eligible to create a Passport York account. The Steps to Enrolment and Registration guide that follows and other enrolment guides and resources are available online at the Current Students Web site.
Transfer credit statements can be viewed using MyFile. Students must first log onto MyFile and then select Application Status. If a statement is available, it will appear here.

Step 1: Create your Passport York account

You will create your Passport York account at your enrolment appointment.

Information about creating your Passport York account is found at: www.yorku.ca
Click on All about Passport York.

If you are a new student and have not signed up for Passport York, the first time you go to an application that requires the Passport York login, look for the question I don’t have a Passport York Account. How do I get one? Read the information and then click on the link that says Manage My Services. Click on the New Student Sign Up button.

The next screen will ask you to login with your student number and date of birth. Follow the steps as they are listed. You will be asked to give yourself a Passport York username and password. It is important that you remember what you choose. It is also important to choose your username sensibly. It will also become your email and lab username.

Once you have both your Passport York username and password, you can access the various online services for students.

For further information about Passport York go to: www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/currentstudents/ppystudents.html

Step 2: Design your conflict-free schedule

Organize your enrolment materials. Select your Fall/Winter 2008-2009 courses according to your program requirements or interests.

1. Go to York’s home page, www.yorku.ca, click Current Students, then Courses and Enrolment.

2. Now click Search Course Timetables and you will see the York Courses Web site. You should also check departmental/supplemental calendars for course restrictions, placement test requirements, special permissions etc.

3. Pick two or three alternative courses/sections/groups etc. in case your first choice is full.

4. Build your timetable. Make sure that it is conflict free. The registration and enrolment system will not warn you if there are scheduling conflicts. Map out your class schedule using the timetable worksheet available online. Click on the Download Printable Forms icon from the Courses and Enrolment Web site.

5. Complete the Registration and Enrolment System Worksheet available from the Courses and Enrolment Web site, click Download Printable Forms.

Please note:

- Many courses have two or more components: a lecture and lab, tutorial or workshop. Make sure you schedule all components into your timetable.

- Do not enrol in any courses for which you do not meet the prerequisites or restrictions as outlined in the appropriate calendar or departmental publication. If you do, you will be responsible for dropping those courses and you will remain liable for fees based on the time of withdrawal. You should remain in the course only if you have special written permission from the department to do so. Departments may check to determine who does not meet prerequisites/restrictions, but it is your responsibility to drop the course.

Step 3: Check your financial status
To check your student account balance, go to: www.yorku.ca/osfs/oss
Your balance must be under $75 or you will be blocked from enrolling.

Step 4: Connect to the Web registration and enrolment system

Go to York University’s home page, www.yorku.ca and click on Current Students. Then click Courses and Enrolment, then Enrol in classes.

Please note that it is unacceptable to use computer programs or scripts to gain access to the registration and enrolment system.

Step 5: Complete your enrolment transactions

1. Login to the registration and enrolment system by using your Passport York username and password.

   You may be blocked at this point from enrolling because:
   - You may be logging in incorrectly or you may have used the wrong username and password;
   - You are logging on before your enrolment access begins;
   - You have outstanding debts of $75 or more to the University;
   - The registration and enrolment system is temporarily unavailable;
   - It is determined that you have used a computer program or script to access the registration and enrolment system; or you tried to add, exchange or transfer the same course or section, more than 100 times in a 24 hour period

   To resolve any questions, please contact Student Client Services at 416 736 5440. If the problem involves a Passport York username or password, please contact the Computing Commons Counter: Computing Commons, William Small Centre, accounts@yorku.ca or tel: 416 736 5800.

2. Accept the Student Code of Conduct Agreement. All students must accept and abide by York University’s non-academic Student Code of Conduct. If you do not accept the agreement, you will not be able to continue.

3. Confirm the tuition fee rate currently on your York record and acknowledge the contractual fee agreement. Your fee rate will be either domestic or international. You must agree and click yes to continue. If you do not agree with the tuition fee rate, contact the Registrar’s Office.

4. Confirm your choice of degree program.

   If you get this message, read it carefully and make your choice. You must make a choice in order to continue.

5. You can now proceed to enrol. There are four enrolment options:

   (a) You can enrol in a course.

   Click add a course. Type the catalogue number in the add course field. Click the add course button. The catalogue number, course and title will be displayed. If this is the course you want to add click yes. If you are unable to add the course, you will get an explanation.

   (b) You can drop a course. Dropping a course may have a financial impact. Check the refund table.

   Click drop a course. Highlight the course you want to drop. Click the drop course button. The course and title will be displayed. If this is the course you want to drop click yes. If you are unable to drop the course, you will get an explanation.

   (c) You can exchange a course you are in for a different course. If you are not able to get into the second course successfully, e.g. it is full, you will still remain enrolled in the first course. If you are successful, the first course will be dropped. Exchanging a course may have a financial impact. Check the refund table.

   Click exchange course. Type the catalogue number of the course you want to add. Highlight the course you want to drop. Click the exchange course button. The catalogue number, course and title of both the course you are adding and the course you are dropping will be displayed. If this is the exchange that you want to make, click yes. If you are not able to make the exchange, you will get an explanation.

If this is the transfer you want click yes. If you cannot make the transfer, you will get an explanation.

Step 6: Verify your course enrolments

Before you log out, verify your course enrolments and correct any errors. When you are finished, always log out.

Check your completed timetable to ensure that you have not enrolled yourself into any conflicts. It is your responsibility to avoid timetable conflicts.

To see your timetable, go to: www.yorku.ca and click on Current Students. Then click Courses and Enrolment, and then Plot My Fall/Winter 2008-2009 Undergraduate Timetable.

Step 7: Pay your fees to secure your registration

An enrolment deposit is required of all students in order to confirm their registration in the session.

- You will be permitted to enrol in courses with an outstanding balance of less than $75; however, you must pay your $450 enrolment deposit within five business days of enrolling and clear any outstanding balance on your account before you will be considered officially registered in your courses

- Please refer to the payment options outlined on the Current Students Web site for the options available to you

- The University reserves the right to de-enrol you if you do not pay your enrolment deposit and clear your outstanding balance. Spaces in these courses will then be made available to other students. You will be unable to re-enrol in any course that is full

- After you have paid your enrolment deposit, Student Financial Services will post your student account information online; transaction listings are updated frequently and statements are posted approximately on the 18th of the month. You’ll need your Passport York ID to access your financial information

Now That You’ve Completed Your Enrolment

Now that you have completed your enrolment appointment, there are a number of additional tasks for you to accomplish before your classes start in the Fall. To get you started, we highly recommend a visit to York’s RED Zone. You can to learn more about York student life first hand from York University students and arrange to get your YU-Card. We suggest that you set some time aside on your enrolment appointment day to do just that. The following is some preliminary information that will help you to get started.

YU-card

The YU-card is the one card you’ll need during your stay at York. It’s your official photo ID and campus debit card. As a York student, the YU-card will be your key to services such as the Library, recreation facilities, exams, eating, shopping, student discounts and more. You can use your YU-card as a debit card at a number of locations across campus to quickly and conveniently purchase food, books, supplies and other items while you’re on the go. The YU-card is accepted at the York Bookstore and other retailers. All you need to do is add money to your YU-card account to enjoy the speed and convenience of swiping your YU-card — without any transaction fees.

Getting your YU-card is easy. Bring your student number and one piece of valid government-issued photo ID to the YU-card Office while you are on campus for your advising appointment. Your photo will be taken and you will receive your card on the spot.
For more information about YU-card services including adding money to your YU-card account, a list of locations that accept the YU-card and current contests and promotions, visit www.yorku.ca/yucard.

Enter York’s RED Zone

Get a head start on your first year at York. Opening on May 5th, York’s RED Zone provides access to services, programs and resources you need to jump into University life with confidence and comfort. In the Zone, you’ll meet current students for “inside” advice and find information about parking and transportation, College affiliation and College-hosted events, Orientation activities, intramural sports, on-campus jobs, parent FAQs, your student account and answers to financing questions including bursaries, scholarships, RESPs and OSAP. Combine your enrolment appointment day with a visit to the RED Zone as well as a visit to your specific College. Ask us more about the RED Zone at your enrolment appointment and we’ll ensure you are properly directed or accompanied to the Zone.

The Current Students Web site: Your Gateway to Online Resources

Now that you’re a York student, you should familiarize yourself with the Current Students Web site at: www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm

This Web site provides links to the University’s online services, as well as links to various University offices. Some of the online services that you will find here are:

- Add/drop courses
- Look up a course description, its schedule and location
- View your personalized timetable and exam schedule
- View your student account statement
- Change your address and update your emergency contact information
- Information on student clubs, associations, jobs and volunteer opportunities
- Information on scholarships, awards and bursaries

MONITORING ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE: COURSES, GRADES AND GRADE POINT AVERAGES

The information contained within this section of the Handbook is not exhaustive. It is intended to highlight and/or augment the information available online in the York University Undergraduate Calendar and at the Current Students Web site. You are responsible for monitoring your progress in individual courses as well as your progress toward your degree.

Courses

Course Numbering: Courses are identified by a standard format. For example: HH/PSYC 1010 6.00

- HH is the designation of the Faculty offering the course (in this case, Health)
- PSYC is the prefix of the teaching unit offering the course (in this case, Psychology)
- 1010 is the number of the course (the first digit identifies the level of the course)
- 6.00 is the suffix indicating the credit value of the course

In-Faculty courses

In-Faculty courses are courses offered by the Faculty of Health as indicated by “HH”. At least half (50%) of the requirements of each Faculty of Health Major/Minor must be taken in the Faculty of Health.

Credit Value of Courses

The credit value indicates the number of academic credits the course will contribute toward your degree. For example, 3 credit courses are identified as “3.00” and 6 credit courses are identified as “6.00”.
Cross-listed courses

Cross-listed courses are offered jointly by two or more teaching units (such as departments, schools or divisions), or teaching units in two or more different Faculties. Cross-listed courses may not be double-counted in order to fulfill degree requirements.

Course-credit exclusions

Course-credit exclusions are pairs of courses that are recognized as having sufficient overlap in content to warrant specifically excluding students from obtaining credit for both. Course-credit exclusions may not be used as substitutes to fulfill degree or program requirements unless designated as such by the relevant program.

Course-substitutes

A course substitute is a descriptive term applied when a course is recognized as sufficiently similar to a required course to warrant its acceptance as a “substitute” for the purpose of meeting the program’s requirements. You will see lists of course substitutes in the Programs of Study section of this Handbook.

Pre-requisites

Pre-requisites are courses that must be successfully completed before another course can be taken. Read course descriptions carefully and ensure you meet all pre-requisites before enrolling.

Co-requisites

A co-requisite is a course that must be taken in the same term as another course.

Course-conflict

A course conflict occurs when a student has enrolled in two courses which overlap or are scheduled at the same time on the same day. This is against University regulations. You are responsible for avoiding course-conflicts in your timetable.

Upper-Level courses

Courses at the 3000 or 4000 level. Course level is identified by the first digit of the course number.
GRADES IN COURSES

Grading System

Except for courses offered on an ungraded or "credit/no credit" basis or taken under the pass/fail option (more information is available online at the Current Students Web site) courses in the Faculty of Health are graded according to the following scale. The grade point values are used to compute averages.

Note: Only courses taken at York University are included in the grade point averages. The percentages indicated are not part of the official grading scheme and are meant only to be used as guidelines. The letter-grade system is the fundamental system of assessment of performance in undergraduate programs at York University.

Note: All of the above-noted grades are used to calculate averages and credits.

In courses where percentages are used as a means of reporting grades on individual pieces of work, the table above can be used to convert percentages into letter grades, unless alternative provisions for scaling and/or conversion are announced to students within the first two weeks of classes (see the section on Graded Feedback in this Handbook, or online at the Current Students Web site).

Grading Scheme in Courses

The grading scheme in courses (such as kinds and weights of assignments, essays, exams, etc.) will be announced, and be available in writing, within the first two weeks of class.

Graded Feedback (marks on assignments, essays and tests)

Under normal circumstances, you will receive graded feedback worth at least 15% of the final grade for Fall, Winter or Summer session, and 30% for ‘full year’ courses offered in the Fall/Winter session prior to the final withdrawal (drop) date from a course without receiving a grade, with the following exceptions:

- Graduate or upper-level undergraduate courses where course work typically, or at the instructor’s discretion, consists of a single piece of work and/or is based predominantly (or solely) on student presentations (e.g. honours theses or graduate research papers not due by the drop date, etc.);
- Practicum courses;
- Ungraded courses;
- Courses in Faculties where the drop date occurs within the first three weeks of classes;
- Courses which run on a compressed schedule (a course which accomplishes its academic credits of work at a rate of more than one credit hour per two calendar weeks)

Note: Under unusual and/or unforeseeable circumstances which disrupt the academic norm, instructors are expected to provide grading schemes and academic feedback in the spirit of these regulations, as soon as possible.
The receipt of graded feedback in advance of withdrawal (drop) deadlines will allow you to monitor your own progress in individual courses and provide the basis for you to make sound academic decisions about adding and dropping courses by the deadline. If you do not officially withdraw from (drop) the course by the deadline (using the online registration and enrolment system), you will receive a grade for the course. Failure to attend the course does not constitute withdrawal (or drop). See the section on Add and Drop Deadlines in this Handbook or online at the Current Students Web site.

Grades Distribution Adjustments

Your final grade in a course may not correspond to a straightforward tally of the marks or grades you received on individual course components. At times the instructor may curve or adjust course grades in order to achieve a required or more equitable course grade distribution profile.

A final course grade is not necessarily confined to a compilation of marks earned on individual course components. Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.

Credit/No Credit

The notations "Credit" and "No Credit" will be used when an entire course is being offered on an ungraded basis. No Credit will count as an earned failing grade of F in the grade point average. Some Faculty of Health Nursing practica courses are offered on a Credit/No Credit basis. Please refer to the Programs of Study section of this Handbook.

Alternative Grading Option (Pass/Fail)

You may enrol in elective or “free-choice” courses without fear of jeopardizing your grade point average if you are in good academic standing. It is possible for you to take a limited number of such courses for full degree credit on a Pass/Fail basis. Courses taken on this basis are listed on the transcript as Pass or as Fail. Neither of these two grades is calculated into your grade point averages. The course director forwards a written evaluation of the student's work in the course to the student and to the Registrar's Office. The following regulations apply to courses taken as a pass/fail alternative grading option:

- You may not be on academic warning, program warning, debarment warning, or on academic probation
- You may apply to take such courses only after you have successfully completed 24 credits (including transfer credits)
- Courses taken on a pass/fail alternative grading option may not be used for courses taken to satisfy major, minor, general education, certificate requirements, or 1000-level science courses
- You may take a maximum of 12 credits in an honours degree and six credits in a bachelor degree on a pass/fail graded option
- Before opting for a Pass/Fail grade, you are urged to consider the following:
  - Grades are used by organizations outside of the University to evaluate students
  - Admission to graduate programs and to professional schools of all types depend upon letter grades
  - You are cautioned that the appearance of a “P” instead of a letter grade on your transcript will be a significant disadvantage when competing for admission to graduate programs and in any evaluation of your academic performance
  - A “P” grade for any course during your last 60 credits or for any upperlevel course, is likely to be damaging to any evaluation of your transcript
  - If you wish to designate a course as a Pass/Fail alternative grading option, you must do so within the first two weeks of the term in which the course begins. In order to designate a course Pass/Fail, you must obtain the signature of the course director on the form available on the Current Students Web site. Once completed, the form should be delivered to Student Client Services
Release of Final Grades

Grade reports are generally released as follows:

- Fall term (F) grades – mid-January
- Winter term and Fall/Winter grades (W and Y) – mid-May
- Summer grades – early to mid-September

The notification that grades have been released will be posted on the Current Students Web site; click on Courses and Enrolment, look under Bulletins.

Grade Point Averages

Refer to the grade point values in the second column of the table located under Grading System in this section of this Handbook. Point values are used only in calculating students’ grade point averages, both sessional and cumulative; and were not designed to be used to calculate marks in courses.

Sessional Grade Point Average

Reflects your grades for a particular academic session (e.g. Fall/Winter 2008-2009).

Cumulative Grade Point Average

Reflects your grades over your entire undergraduate career at York.

Grades from other Universities

Grades for courses taken at other Universities either prior to admission to York or on a York Letter of Permission are not listed on the York transcript and are not included in the calculation of grade point averages.

Repeating Passed or Failed Courses for Academic Credit

You are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course once for degree or certificate credit. You should note that course availability and space considerations may preclude the possibility of repeating a course in the session you choose. When you are allowed to repeat a course for degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in your grade point average (major, cumulative, sessional and overall). A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate credit requirements. The record of both the first and second time the course was taken (including both grades) will appear on your transcript, with the first course designated as “No Credit Retained” (NCR). The restrictions regarding repeating a passed or failed course also apply to cross-listed courses and course-credit exclusions.

ACADEMIC SESSIONS

Monitoring Academic Performance: Important Dates and Deadlines

It is incumbent on you to continually monitor your academic performance as you proceed through your individual courses and progress (by year level) toward your degree. This section outlines important information for your attention and consideration as you embark upon your studies in the Faculty of Health. You are encouraged to monitor important dates (sessional dates, add and drop deadlines, etc.) by visiting the Current Students Web site.

Fall/Winter Session

- The period of time from the beginning of instruction in September until the end of the examination period in April or May
Summer Session

- The period of months from beginning of instruction in May until the end of the examination period in August

Sessions are divided into terms of varying length. The table below represents the Fall/Winter Session and indicates important dates by terms. The most common terms in the Fall/Winter Session are F (Fall), Y (Year) and W (Winter).

Sessional dates and add and drop deadlines are important considerations when you are monitoring your academic performance on a course by course basis. The 2008-2009 Fall/Winter Sessional dates are included in the table below as an example.

Sessional Course Loads in the Faculty of Health/ How many credits can you take in a session?

Fall/Winter Session

Your normal course load in the Fall/Winter session is 30 credits. If you have substantial responsibilities outside the University you are strongly advised to consider taking fewer courses in a session. The maximum course load is 36 credits overall (and 18 credits per term).

Summer Session Course Loads

You may take a maximum of 15 credits in the summer session. Within this limit, no more than six credits may be taken during one six-week term. Consult the summer sessional dates online at the Current Students Web site when they become available.

Building Your Timetable

Time is a key factor for success at University. In addition to your in-class hours and study time, consider all aspects of your life which put demands on your time and plan your course load accordingly.

Add and Drop Deadlines

As described in the section on Enrolment and Registration in this Handbook, you will continue to have access to the registration system after your enrolment appointment.

There are deadlines for adding and dropping courses, both academic and financial. You will see the academic deadlines in the table below. Be sure to read the information on Refund Tables in the appropriate enrolment guide online at the Current Students Web site, so that you understand the differences between academic and financial deadlines. For the most part, the dates are different.

Adding Courses

The “Last date to enrol without permission of course instructor” deadlines indicate the last date you will have unrestricted access to enrol in (or add) courses using the online registration and enrolment system. After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

Dropping Courses

The drop deadline is the academic deadline before which you must officially withdraw from your course (using the registration and enrolment system). You can withdraw from (drop) courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the drop deadline. Failure to attend the course does not constitute withdrawal (or drop). If you do not officially withdraw from (drop) the course by the deadline, you will receive a grade for the course.

Withdrawal from a Session

If you drop all of your courses and do not replace them with others, you will be considered officially withdrawn from the University for the session. You are not considered withdrawn until you have dropped your course(s) using the registration and enrolment system. Failure to attend classes does not constitute official withdrawal for either academic or financial purposes.
Normally, if you have withdrawn from a session and wish to attend another session, you may request a reactivation through the Registrar’s Office.

Notes:

1 Credits are applied against any amount owing on your account. Refunds are issued only when all charges outstanding on your account have been cleared.

2 Fee withheld refers to the amount of fees retained by the University when you drop a course during the specified time frame. You are responsible for this amount, whether or not the fees have been paid.

TERM WORK AND TESTS

Term work includes reports, assignments, essays, tests and other work assigned in a course with the exception of the final examination. Deadline dates and dates for in-class tests and examinations will be specified in your course syllabus.

When you do not or cannot write a mid-term examination (not held during the formal examination period), alternate arrangements to write the midterm examination should be made within the duration of the course by the course director and you, at the discretion of the course director.

All term work must be submitted by the first day of the official examination period of the term in which the course ends.

Alternate Tests

York’s disabilities offices and the Registrar’s Office work in partnership to support alternate exam and test accommodation services for students with disabilities at the Keele campus. For more information, see: www.yorku.ca/altexams/
Religious Observance Accommodation – Tests

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community, and making accommodations for observances of special significance to adherents. Should any of the dates specified in your course syllabus for an in-class test or examination pose such a conflict for you, contact the Course Director within the first three weeks of class. Similarly, should an assignment to be completed in a lab, practicum placement, workshop, etc., scheduled later in the term pose such a conflict, contact the Course Director immediately. More information can be found on the Current Students Web site.

End of Term Percentage Restriction

No examination or test worth more than 20% of the final grade will be given during the last two weeks of classes in a term, with the exception of classes which regularly meet Friday evenings or on the weekend (Saturday and/or Sunday at any time).

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are important components of the educational process. Examinations are usually written tests, although some may have practical components. Examinations vary greatly in structure, and content, depending on the subject area.

Examination Period

There is a final examination period at the end of each term.

Examination Schedules

The dates and times of formally scheduled examinations are listed on the Current Students Web site when they become available.

Identification at Examinations

You are required to present identification at each examination during the official examination period. The following items will be accepted:

- A YU-card with a photo
- A valid sessional identification card plus a photo-bearing form of identification such as a driver’s license or passport
- A YU-card without a photo plus a photo-bearing form of identification such as a driver’s license or passport

Language of Examinations

The language or languages of instruction will normally be the language or languages of examination.

Examination Answer Booklets

Answer booklets are the property of the University. Examination booklets and other answer forms remain the property of the University. You may not remove them from the test or examination room, nor may you possess blank examination booklets.

Examination Conflict

There are three types of undergraduate exam conflicts:

1. Two or more exams at the same time;
2. Three exams on the same day;
3. Exams during three consecutive periods in 24 hours, (e.g. 7pm to 10pm the night before, then 9am to noon and 2pm to 5pm the next day)
Resolving an Examination Conflict

If you have a final undergraduate exam conflict please fill out the exam conflict report form, available on the Current Students Web site.

Alternate Examinations

York’s disabilities offices and the Registrar’s Office work in partnership to support alternate exam and test accommodation services for students with disabilities at the Keele campus. Before you submit your alternate exam and test request, you'll need to register with Disability Services. If you're not currently registered, registration information is located at: www.yorku.ca/dshub/

Religious Observance Accommodation – Examinations

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community, and making accommodations for observances of special significance to adherents. Please note that to arrange an alternative date or time for an examination scheduled in the formal examination periods (December and April), you must complete an Examination Accommodation Form. Refer to the appropriate guidelines regarding Religious Observance Policy and Accommodation for Final Examinations on the Current Students Web site.

Missed/Unable to Write Examination (Requests for Deferred Standing)

You may be granted Deferred Standing if you miss or are unable to write your final examination at the scheduled time, or submit your final assignment on the last day of classes. In order to apply for Deferred Standing, you must complete a Deferred Standing Agreement Form and reach an agreement directly with your course director for an alternate final examination date or for an extension to the deadline. The Deferred Standing Agreement Form facilitates the setting of an alternate date for writing a final examination or submitting a final assignment before Faculty deadlines. More information can be obtained from the Current Students Web site.

Please Note: When you do not or cannot write a mid-term examination (not held during the formal examination period), alternate arrangements to write the mid-term examination should be made within the duration of the course by the course director and you, at the discretion of the course director. The Deferred Standing Agreement does not apply.

Rewriting of an Examination

There is no provision for rewriting a final examination to improve a final grade.

Reviewing Graded Examinations

Under properly controlled conditions, you may review your graded tests and examinations. Used final examination booklets, however, remain the property of the University and are retained by the teaching unit for a certain length of time before they are destroyed. More information and procedures for reviewing examinations may be obtained from the academic unit offering the course.

Requesting a Grade Reappraisal

You may, with sufficient academic grounds, request that a final grade in a course be reappraised (which may mean the review of specific pieces of tangible work). Non-academic grounds (such as illness or misfortune) are not relevant grounds for grade reappraisals; in such cases, students are advised to petition to their home Faculty. You are normally expected to first contact the course director to discuss the grade received and to request that your tangible work be reviewed. Tangible work may include written, graphic, digitized, modeled, video recording or audio recording formats, but not oral work. In the event that you are still not satisfied with your final grade or the course director is not available to review the work, you may submit in writing a formal request for a grade reappraisal to the department or unit in which the course is offered. The Senate approved deadline for submitting grade reappraisals is February 15 for fall term grades, June 15 for fall/winter session and winter term grades, September 30 for summer session grades, or a minimum of 21 days from the release of grades, whichever is later.
You need to be aware that a request for a grade reappraisal may result in the original grade being raised, lowered or confirmed. More information may be obtained from the Current Students Web site or from the academic unit offering the course.

PROGRESSING TOWARDS YOUR DEGREE

Academic Standing

Academic standing depends on several factors which include the number of credits a student has passed, the grade point average achieved during a particular session (sessional grade point average), or the overall grade point average (cumulative grade point average).

Year Level and Student Progress

Your progress toward a degree in the Faculty of Health is measured in terms of the number of credits passed (or earned) rather than years of study completed. The year level includes transfer credit. Year four applies to students in honours programs only.

Honours Standing Grade Point Average Requirement

If you have completed less than 84 earned credits and your cumulative grade point average is below 5.0, you may continue in a Faculty of Health Honours degree program provided you meet the year level progression requirements as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year one</th>
<th>0-23 earned credits</th>
<th>Minimum overall cumulative grade point average 4.0</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Year two</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Limited Additional Credits

Students in a bachelor program who have passed 90 credits in accordance with Faculty and program requirements, but whose cumulative grade point average is below 4.0 may attempt to raise their average to 4.0 by taking up to 12 additional credits, to a maximum of 102 credits. These courses must be above the 1000-level and must be taken at York University.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Honours (BScN Honours) Degree (120 Credits)

- Continuing BScN students. Students who have completed less than 120 credits and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.0 may proceed in Honours.
• Students at the point of completing 120 credits who have at least a cumulative grade point average of 5.0 and have a minimum grade of C (4.0) in all courses used in the major may apply to graduate or continue in the BScN Honours if requirements are not met.

Entry/Re-Entry

Students who attain the 5.0 cumulative grade point average prior to completion of 90 credits and have fulfilled the entry requirements may apply for entry/re-entry to the program. Students who have not attained the 5.0 cumulative grade point average at the point of completing 90 credits, will be ineligible for the program. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average. All requests for re-entry to the BScN are subject to School of Nursing approval. Some programs may have limited entry. Students may submit a change of degree request to enter/re-enter the program to the Faculty of Health Office of Student and Academic Services. All students who enter/re-enter the BScN program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry.

Faculty Transfers

Students from other Faculties may submit a Faculty transfer request to enter the program to Student Client Services.

Failure to Maintain Academic Standing

Please refer to the Academic Penalties section which contains information on program warning, program warning conditions, required withdrawal, reactivation after required withdrawal, debarment warning, and debarment warning conditions.

Academic Standing Requirements for Visiting Students

Individuals who wish to enrol in undergraduate credit courses, but who do not intend to complete a degree or a certificate may be admitted to York as a Visiting Student. There are three categories of Visiting Students:

A. Those who hold an undergraduate degree (three-year bachelor's degree minimum) from an accredited University/University-level institution;
B. Those who do not hold an undergraduate degree but wish to enrol in York courses to fulfill the academic, upgrading or professional development requirements of a professional designation;
C. Those who are currently attending another recognized University and wish to take York courses on a letter of permission issued by their home institution.

GPA Requirement

Students in categories a) and b) whose overall cumulative grade point average (OCGPA) falls below 4.00 on at least 24 credits attempted will not be allowed to enrol in any subsequent session as visiting students. Students who are not permitted to re-enrol must apply for re-admission through the Admissions Office.

Note: Repeated course legislation does not apply to visiting students but only to academic degrees and certificates. Therefore, all courses attempted or taken will count in the OCGPA.

Credit Limits

Students in category b) who have maintained an OCGPA of 4.0 throughout their studies and who have completed 30 credits will not be allowed to enrol in subsequent sessions and must either reactivate to proceed as visiting students or may choose to apply for admission to a degree or certificate program.
Grade Reports

Grade reports include information on your academic standing and eligibility to proceed in your program. If at the end of a session, your academic record does not meet Faculty or program standards you will be subject to academic penalties. You will be notified of any penalties incurred on your final grade report, so it is incumbent on you to consult your grade report online as soon as it is released.

Grade reports are generally released as follows:
- Fall term (F) grades – mid-January
- Winter term and Fall/Winter grades (W and Y) – mid-May
- Summer grades – early to mid-September

The notification that grades have been released will be posted on the Current Students Web site; click on Courses and Enrolment, look under Bulletins.

ACADEMIC PETITIONS

Petitions for Exemptions from Regulations

Academic regulations allow you to develop your interests and talents to the fullest in ways consistent with the philosophy and standards of the Faculty. In establishing academic regulations, the Faculty also recognizes that instances will arise where it makes sense, in the context of a student’s academic career, to waive regulations which would otherwise apply.

Petitions Committee

The Petitions Committee considers requests for exceptions to all Faculty regulations, including petitions to continue studies without interruption from students who have been required to withdraw or debarred. The guidelines for consideration of petitions/appeals by Faculty committees are located at the following URL:
http://yorku.ca/univsec/senate/committees/sac/petguid.htm

Right to Petition

Students in the Faculty of Health have the right to petition for special consideration. A petition is a request for the waiver of a regulation: it cannot be used to create legislation (for example: a degree program) that does not exist. Normally, petitions will not be considered by the Petitions Committee more than one year beyond the date of the release of grades for the session to which the petition relates.

Petitions Procedures

Petitions are held in the strictest confidence, and brought anonymously to the committee. The committee considers the petition itself, any supporting documentation (eg. from professors or medical practitioners) and other relevant information contained in the student’s record. Students may not appear in person.

Initiating a Petition

To initiate a petition, you must obtain a petition package from Student Client Services or http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/services/petitions/forms.htm#5

Petitions must be mailed or hand delivered to:
Faculty of Health Petitions Committee
C/o Registrars Office, Bennett Centre for Student Services
The drop box is located in the front lobby and is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

More information on petitioning is available from Student Client Services, or the Faculty of Health Office of Student and Academic Services, Ground Floor, Health, Nursing and Environmental Studies Building. You may also visit the Current Students Web site.
ACADEMIC HONESTY ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic Honesty

The Policy on Academic Honesty is an affirmation and clarification for members of the University of the general obligation to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty. As a clear sense of academic honesty and responsibility is fundamental to good scholarship, the policy recognizes the general responsibility of all faculty members to foster acceptable standards of academic conduct and of the student to be mindful of and abide by such standards.

Academic honesty requires that persons do not falsely claim credit for the ideas, writing or other intellectual property of others, either by presenting such works as their own or through impersonation. Similarly, academic honesty requires that persons do not cheat (attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation), nor attempt or actually alter, suppress, falsify or fabricate any research data or results, official academic record, application or document.

Suspected breaches of academic honesty will be investigated and charges shall be laid if reasonable and probable grounds exist.

A student who is charged with a breach of academic honesty shall be presumed innocent until, based upon clear and compelling evidence, a committee determines the student has violated the academic honesty standards of the University. A finding of academic misconduct will lead to the range of penalties described in the guidelines which accompany this policy. In some cases the University regulations on non-academic discipline may apply. A lack of familiarity with the Senate Policy and Guidelines on Academic Honesty on the part of a student does not constitute a defense against their application. Some academic offences constitute offences under the Criminal Code of Canada; a student charged under University regulations may also be subject to criminal charges. Charges may also be laid against York University students for matters which arise at other educational institutions.

A central purpose of the University is to teach students to think independently and critically. Cheating and other forms of academic dishonesty run counter to this purpose and violate the ethical and intellectual principles of the University; they are therefore subject to severe penalties. For more information, refer to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty (see University Policies and Regulations section of the Undergraduate Calendar) or: www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/

Academic Integrity

The best way to cope with the pressure of your responsibilities as a student is to develop strong academic skills, which includes ensuring that you understand and adhere to the principles of academic integrity. To avoid the possibility of committing an academic offense, ensure that you:

- Read and understand the Policy on Academic Honesty. Ignorance of the Policy is not an acceptable excuse for academic misconduct
- Produce honest academic work. For instance, this means that you must always reference all your sources in your written work, including those from the Internet
- Consult your instructor if you are unsure whether a certain course of action is acceptable
- Discourage others from violating standards of academic integrity
- Use resources at York to help improve your research and writing skills

You are strongly encouraged to familiarize yourself with issues of academic integrity, positive strategies to improve academic efforts and avoid committing an academic offence. For more information, visit: www.yorku.ca/academicintegrity/students/index.htm

An academic integrity tutorial, including a self-test are located at: www.yorku.ca/tutorial/academic_integrity/

MONEY MATTERS: ENROLMENT DEPOSITS, TUITION FEES, STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

How to Pay Your Enrolment Deposit and Tuition Fees

After you have enrolled in courses you will need to pay your $450 enrolment deposit within five business days. The preferred method for paying your enrolment deposit or other charges on your student account is by telephone or through the Internet.

Four easy steps to follow to establish telephone or web banking

1. Contact your financial institution in order to set up your bank account(s) for telephone or Web-banking
2. The bank’s system will tell you how to add York to your list of payees and to make a payment
3. Use your York student number as the account number to pay your bill
4. The bank’s system will give you a confirmation number for your records

It takes about 4 business days for your payment to be transferred to your York student account.

As long as you pay by Web or phone by the due date your payment will be accepted as on time. (Student Financial Services always allows a few extra days after any due date so that your payments can get to York from the bank in time and you won’t be penalized).

Student Financial Assistance

Recent changes to the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) grant and loan programs and new commitments from York University have made it easier than ever to receive help paying for University.

York provides a blended funding model to ensure eligible students receive optimal financial assistance. Your final funding amount may include, for example, an OSAP grant or loan, plus eligibility for a Work/Study position at York, or an OSAP grant or loan plus a scholarship from York.

To see an example of what funding might be available to you as a York student go to: www.yorku.ca/yorkscommitment
To get full details on funding available through OSAP visit: http://accesswindow.osap.gov.on.ca

Here are three suggested steps to take to ensure that you optimize your opportunities for financial assistance.

1. Apply online to the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP).
   The earlier you apply, the earlier OSAP can respond. Out-of-province applicants should apply to the government student financial assistance program in their home province.

2. Complete York’s Student Financial Profile (SFP) online to be considered for:
   - York bursaries
   - Work/Study program
   - Service Bursary

   (The Profiles designed to help York students who require financial assistance for direct educational costs (tuition, books and mandatory fees) that are above and beyond OSAP funding. To learn more, visit: www.yorku.ca/osfs/sfp

3. And: As described briefly under the section on Academic Excellence in this Handbook, apply early for York Scholarships and Awards. Information on links to additional financial opportunities are listed on this site: http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/schburprizes.shtml

In 2006-2007, for example, York awarded $52.5M in student financial assistance. During the next three years, more will be added to our annual commitment. York will also continue to support its students through part-time employment at the University.

The York Undergraduate Psychology Students’ Association is a student run organization that aims to bring students and faculty in the York Psychology program together. With the support of faculty members who donate their time to discuss their area of Psychology with UPSA, we are able to create a unique learning situation for our members. By providing the opportunity to meet with professors in an informal atmosphere students are able to see both the study of Psychology and the course directors from a new perspective.

We are also grateful to have York graduate students share their graduate school experiences, hints on preparing for graduate school, and pointers on which skills are essential to succeed once you get there. It is our hope that these informal meetings will provide a comfortable atmosphere where students are encouraged to ask the questions that help to develop an overview of the field of Psychology. York University has one of the biggest Psychology programs. We would like this group to serve as a foundation for the formation of student study groups, support groups, social groups and opportunity networking in the field of Psychology. It all begins with one fundamental principle: Use what you’ve got! For further information please see our Web site.

UPSA offers:
- Free tutoring in Psychology subjects to our members
- Meet & Greet the Graduate Student and Professors plus more
- The advertisement of research assistant opportunities via our listserv to our members
- Volunteer opportunities listed at our office and we raise money for charity each year

Undergraduate Certificates
The School of Kinesiology and Health Science offers undergraduate certificates in: athletic therapy; coaching; fitness assessment and exercise counselling, and; sport administration that may be taken concurrently with an honours degree. Upon graduation, students who have successfully completed the degree and certificate requirements receive a certificate in addition to the undergraduate degree. Students may only enrol in one certificate stream at a time. Certificate requirements are listed in the Faculty of Health Undergraduate Certificate section of this calendar.

Course Substitutes
The School of Kinesiology and Health Science does not recognize any course substitutes for its academic course requirements. Students who complete a course offered by another unit or program that is a course exclusion with a kinesiology course must replace the corresponding kinesiology course with another kinesiology course of equal or greater credit value at the same year level or higher.

York-Seneca Joint Program in Psychology and Rehabilitation Services

This program allows a student to complete a BA or BSc or an Honours BA or Honours BSc degree in psychology at York in conjunction with a Certificate in Rehabilitation Counselling. The certificate is awarded jointly by York University and Seneca College. A full-time student would normally require four years of study for a BA or BSc degree, and five years of study for an Honours BA or Honours BSc degree, in the joint program.

In order to fulfill the requirements of a BA or BSc in psychology, a student is required to take a minimum of 30 (but not more than 42) credits in psychology, including HH/PSYC 1010 6.00 (with a minimum grade of C). For an Honours BA or Honours BSc in psychology, a minimum of 42 (but not more than 54) credits in psychology are required. (See degree program requirements.)

During years 3 and 4, students will normally take 30 credits at York, from the required program list, and the equivalent of 30 credits will be chosen from the Seneca offerings. In addition to in-class academic instruction, students are required to complete two full year (September - April) courses involving a total of 800 hours of supervised fieldwork in each of the three major domains of rehabilitation: physical, emotional, and developmental. Programs will be tailored to each student through discussion with the coordinators. Minimum academic requirement for applicants is a 5.0 grade point average in the first 60 credits.

Admission Requirements and Procedures
Students who wish to enter the Rehabilitation Services Program should apply in the January preceding the final year of their BA or BSc degree program to the departmental program office. Generally, a student who demonstrates good intellectual ability, emotional stability and a strong interest in working with the disabled will be considered for entry into the program. Applicants must have:

- completed 60 University-level credits towards a BA or BSc or 90 University-level credits towards an Honours BA or Honours BSc with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.0;
- completed an Introduction to psychology course (with a minimum grade of C);
- fulfilled the general education requirements of York University;
• previous employment or volunteer work in the field of rehabilitation.

Application materials for students currently enrolled at York University may be obtained by contacting Sandra Locke, 281 Behavioural Sciences Building, 416-736-5115, extension 66210; e-mail: slocke@yorku.ca.

Students from other universities should apply through the York University Admissions Office. In order to be considered for admission, applicants must submit a complete application (i.e., application form, official transcripts, and two letters of recommendation). Complete applications received by the deadline (March 1) will be rank-ordered according to academic standing and previous experience in the field of rehabilitation. The top applicants will be interviewed jointly by York and Seneca coordinators.

ACADEMIC PENALTIES

Students whose academic record does not meet Faculty or program standards are subject to the academic penalties of academic warning, required withdrawal, debarment warning, debarment and academic probation.

Academic Warning
Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 4.0 at the end of any session, or who enter the Faculty with a grade point average equivalent to less than 4.0 on the York scale, receive an Academic Warning. Students on Academic Warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.0 within the next 24 credits taken, or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.0 in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.0, or be required to withdraw. Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 credits is below 2.5 will be required to withdraw.

Required Withdrawal
Students whose academic record shows marked weakness may be required to withdraw from their studies for one year, during which they are encouraged to identify and remedy any problems which may have contributed materially to their failure to perform up to their potential, and to reflect on their reasons for pursuing a university education. The following regulations apply to required withdrawals.

Grade Point Average Below 2.5:
Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 York credits is below 2.5 must withdraw for twelve months.

Grade Point Average Below 4.0 and Equal to or Greater Than 2.5:
Students who have received an Academic Warning for a cumulative grade point average below 4.0 must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.0 within their next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.0 in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.0; otherwise, they must withdraw for twelve months. Should the student’s cumulative grade point average fall below 2.5 at any time after completion of 24 York credits, they will be required to withdraw for twelve months.

Petition to Continue without Interruption:
Students who have been required to withdraw may submit a petition to the Faculty of Health Petitions Committee requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition will be allowed to continue their studies on Debarment Warning.

Reactivation after Required Withdrawal:
Students who have been required to withdraw must apply for reactivation after the requisite period of absence by submitting a reactivation form to Student Client Services. The form is available on the web at http://www.registrar.yorku.ca. Students who return to their studies after such a required withdrawal (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Committee on Petitions) receive a Debarment Warning.

Debarment Warning
Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty of Health, or from another Faculty at York, or elsewhere receive a Debarment Warning upon continuing their studies in the Faculty. Students on Debarment Warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.0 within the next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.0 in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.0, and must then maintain this average. Students who do not fulfill these conditions will be debarred from the University.

Debarment
Students who fail to meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above will be debarred from the University. Debarment, the minimum period for which is normally two years, means that the student is no longer a student at York University.

Petition to Continue without Interruption:
Students who have been debarred may submit a petition to the Faculty of Health Petitions Committee requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition will be allowed to continue their studies on Academic Probation.

Reapplying after Debarment:
Students who have been debarred and who wish to resume their studies must apply for admission through the Admissions Office, www.yorku.ca/admissions, and must provide persuasive evidence that they are ready and able to complete a degree program. Students who are readmitted (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Petitions Committee) receive an Academic Probation.

Academic Probation
Students who have been debarred and who subsequently resume their studies in the Faculty of Health, whether by petitioning to continue without interruption or by reapplying for admission, receive an Academic Probation. Students on Academic Probation must meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above; otherwise, they will be debarred again.

ACADEMIC PENALTIES FOR HONOURS BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING (ALL STREAMS)

Program warning for Honours BScN:
BScN students who have completed less than 120 credits will be placed on a program warning if the cumulative grade point average is at least 4.0 but is below 5.0.

Students may continue in BScN providing they meet the program warning conditions outlined below.

Program warning conditions for BScN:
BScN students on program warning, within the next 24 credits taken, must have both a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.0. At no time may the cumulative grade point average fall below 4.0. At no time may the cumulative grade point average fall below 2.5 upon completion of at least 24 York credits. Upon completion of 120 credits BScN students who do not have cumulative grade point average of at least 5.0 including a minimum grade of C (4.0) in all courses used in the major will be ineligible to proceed in the program or graduate.

Failure to meet the above program warning conditions:
Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 York credits is below 2.5 must withdraw for twelve months (required withdrawal).

Students who do not meet the program warning conditions for their program as listed above will not be eligible to continue in the program and must declare a new degree program to be eligible to continue with their studies. Students with less than a 4.0 cumulative grade point average who have completed less than 90 credits must declare a new degree program and will proceed in the new degree program on academic warning.

Required withdrawal:
Students whose academic record shows marked weakness may be required to withdraw from their studies for twelve months, during which they are encouraged to identify and remedy any problems which may have contributed materially to their failure to perform up to their potential, and to reflect on their reasons for pursuing a university education. The following regulations apply to required withdrawals.

Grade point average below 2.5:

Students who return to their studies after such a required withdrawal (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Committee on Petitions) receive a debarment warning.

Debarment warning:
Students who have been required to withdraw receive a debarment warning upon continuing their studies in the Faculty.

Petition to continue without interruption:
Students who have been debarred may submit a petition to the Faculty of Health Office of Student and Academic Services requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition would be allowed to continue their studies on academic probation.

Reapplying after debarment:
Students who have been debarred and who wish to resume their studies must apply for readmission through the Admissions Office, and must provide persuasive evidence that they are ready and able to complete a degree program. Students who are readmitted (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Committee on Petitions) receive an academic probation.

Academic probation:
Students who have been debarred and who subsequently resume their studies in the Faculty whether by petitioning to continue without interruption or by applying for readmission, receive an academic probation. Students on academic probation must meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above; otherwise, they will be debarred. Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who do not have the required cumulative grade point average of at least 5.0 and/or a minimum grade of C (4.0) in all courses used in the major will be ineligible to proceed or graduate.
