PART A: PROGRAM INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

Welcome to the Undergraduate Program in Psychology!

Our undergraduate program is built on flexibility and breadth. It is flexible because undergraduate students have the option of obtaining a bachelor of arts (BA) or a bachelor of science (BSc) degree in psychology, a 90-credit or 120-credit Honours degree (double major, or Major/Minor) or a 120-credit Specialized Honours degree. In addition, students can complete their degree requirements during the fall/winter or summer terms by taking courses during the day or in the evening. We offer a breadth of courses; students may therefore choose to focus on specific areas of interest such as social, developmental, neuroscience, cognitive, quantitative or abnormal psychology, or follow a more generalized program that covers a wide variety of aspects of the discipline.

The BA Psychology program exposes students to a full range of psychological concepts and applications. The BSc option adds a focus on the physical sciences, including chemistry, physics, biology, and computer science, within a full range of discipline-specific courses.

Depending on the program/course choices, a Student can obtain excellent preparation for further postgraduate studies in psychology, law or medicine. Similarly, psychology can prepare students for many diverse career options in education, business, social services, public relations etc.

How to Use This Supplemental Calendar

This supplemental calendar has been produced to remind students of important details contained in the University Calendar, the official University document (calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/), and to provide program information specific to psychology. A copy of the Department of Psychology Supplemental Calendar is also available online at www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/about.html.

This supplemental calendar is divided into four main sections that include many subsections.

Part A provides an overview of general program information, such as changes and updates to the program, the joint York-Seneca program in Rehabilitation Services, and various psychology-specific scholarships, prizes and bursaries awarded to students. In addition, the calendar provides Department of Psychology-specific requirements that include, for example, a description of rules about prerequisites.

Part B describes degree requirements as of September 2012, for the 120-credit BA and BSc in psychology, e.g. Specialized Honours, Honours, Honours Major/Minor, and for the 90-credit BA and BSc. This section also includes programs-of-study worksheets. If you entered before 2009, have transfer credits, are reactivating your status to complete a degree or are confused about your degree requirements, contact the Psychology Undergraduate Office for an advising appointment. (For details, see “Advising Appointments,” page 4)

Part C provides detailed descriptions of the courses offered this year. The course information contained in this supplemental calendar is up to date as of March 9, 2012.

Part D provides information about student resources and student life on campus.
Updates to the Program

In July 2006, the Department of Psychology joined the Faculty of Health. All undergraduate psychology courses at the Keele campus, including those offered through the former Faculties of Arts and Atkinson and Faculty of Science and Engineering, are offered through the Faculty of Health (HH). As a result the HH rubric precedes all PSYC course codes at the Keele campus. Another Department of Psychology affiliated with York University is found at Glendon College (www.glendon.yorku.ca/psychology/index.html). Glendon courses (beginning with the GL rubric) are not necessarily identical to courses offered through the Faculty of Health Department of Psychology, although some may serve as substitutes or are course credit exclusions (CCE). In Part C of this supplemental calendar see the course credit exclusions within each course description. Note that a Glendon course that is a CCE cannot be automatically assumed to be an acceptable substitute to fulfill degree or program requirements in the Faculty of Health.

Revising the Specialized Honours Program

In September 2008, we launched a revised Specialized Honours program for students particularly interested in furthering their postgraduate education. To help students become more competitive for graduate school, we provide students accepted into the Specialized Honours program guaranteed undergraduate thesis supervision and greater guidance during their final year through PSYC 4001 6.00 (Specialized Honours Thesis Seminar course). In addition, the Specialized Honours program has higher admission, maintenance, and graduation requirements (cumulative grade point average [CGPA] 7.00 [B+]), as well as increased course requirements in research methods, statistics, and the history of psychology.

Students in the Honours program can apply to the revised Specialized Honours program if they are completing their second year and will have a 7.00 (B+) CGPA over a minimum of 53 credits. The psychology courses that must be completed within 53 credits include PSYC 1010 6.00, PSYC 2030 3.00 and PSYC 2020 6.00 or the equivalents. Students must also have completed (or plan to complete by the end of the summer of the year they apply) the general education requirements for the degree. The application window is open between May 1st and May 15th. Students should apply once all of their final grades are in so that the calculation of their overall GPA is accurate and up to date.

For further details and the online application for the Specialized Honours see http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/Specialized_honours_program.html

Seek Advice First

The staff in the Psychology Undergraduate Office can help students with a variety of issues, including difficulty with enrolling in courses. The office staff can also provide information on various topics, such as psychology degree requirements and enrolling in an independent-study course. If office staff members do not have the answer or if the director of the undergraduate program is not the appropriate person to answer the question, staff will direct the student to the correct person or office. In addition, one of the many advisers at the Faculty of Health Office of Student and Academic Services (HH OSAS) can provide information on general degree requirements or University-wide regulations, including general education requirements for a BA or BSc degree or what is involved in the petitions process. The HH OSAS office is in Room 019, HNES, call 416-736-5299, or e-mail hhadvise@yorku.ca for an appointment, or go to www.yorku.ca/health/current_students/advising.html for more information about OSAS advising.

Advising Appointments

A student can seek advice from many different people, who range from course directors, other faculty, staff etc. However, a huge number of courses are offered and more than 70 full-time faculty members conduct research and teach in the department. As we know our degree requirements, course content and course directors better than anyone else, a student should book an advising appointment with the undergraduate student adviser in the Department of Psychology Undergraduate Office. Students completing a psychology degree are encouraged to see the student adviser in the undergraduate office, either by appointment or during drop-in hours, before enrolling in courses. Call 416-736-5117 for hours and days of availability for drop-in sessions or an appointment. Around the third week in March, information will be posted for group advising sessions specifically developed for students completing Introduction to Psychology 1010 6.00 during the fall/winter term. This information will be posted across from the Psychology Undergraduate Office, Room 292 BSB.

Students who want to declare psychology as a major or minor must complete a Program Change request online. See www.registrar.yorku.ca/program/change for details about deadlines and how to submit this request. NOTE: students cannot automatically change their major to a Specialized Honours degree in psychology; students must apply to this program in May after completing 53 credits. (Please see information about the Specialized Honours program online (including application) at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/Specialized_honours_program.html

Information Sessions for Students Enrolled in the Honours Programs

Another source of advice is through the information sessions offered to all Honours students. The thesis coordinator offers a series of open information sessions or workshops throughout the year. These cover topics on completing your thesis, e.g. the difference between PSYC 4170 and PSYC 4000 or how to produce a poster presentation, and on applying to graduate school, e.g. writing the GRE or applying for graduate scholarships. A schedule of workshops/information sessions is posted in the undergraduate office at the beginning of the fall and winter terms. If you cannot attend the information sessions, see http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/PsychologyHonoursstudent.html for handouts, Web links etc. on these topics and others pertinent to third- and fourth-year Honours students.

Contact Information

Detailed contact information for the undergraduate program is found on the inside front cover. To summarize, the Department of Psychology Undergraduate Office is located in Room 291/292 of the Behavioural Science Building (BSB), and can be contacted by calling 416-736-5117 from 9:30am to 3:30pm every weekday and from 4:30pm to 6:30pm every weekday except Friday. You can also send your query by e-mail to psyc@yorku.ca. For information about resources and student life see Part D of this supplemental calendar.

Other Important Office Locations and Telephone Numbers

The office locations and telephone numbers for course directors, secretaries and teaching assistants are posted on the bulletin board outside the Psychology Undergraduate Office (291/292 BSB).

Faculty Interests

A printed copy of faculty research interests can be obtained in the undergraduate studies office. Students can also explore faculty members' research interests by going to www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/research.html and clicking on any of the core research areas.

Access to Courses

Students must complete PSYC 1010 6.00 with a minimum grade of C (60%) in order to be eligible to enrol in upper level Psychology courses (other than PSYC 2021 3.00 or PSYC 2020 6.00 which can be taken concurrently).

General Program Eligibility

To be eligible to graduate in any BA/BSc program, students must successfully complete at least 90 credits with a minimum overall CGPA of 4.00 (C) or higher.

To proceed in each year of an Honours BA/BSc program, students must have a minimum cumulative credit-weighted GPA over all courses completed. Students whose CGPA falls below 5.00 during the course of their studies may proceed in an Honours program, on warning, provided that they meet the minimum CGPA requirements below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YEAR LEVEL</th>
<th>CREDITS EARNED</th>
<th>CGPA REQUIREMENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Year 1</td>
<td>0-23 earned credits</td>
<td>4.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year 2</td>
<td>24-53 earned credits</td>
<td>4.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year 3</td>
<td>54-83 earned credits</td>
<td>4.80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year 4</td>
<td>84 earned credits</td>
<td>5.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

To be eligible to graduate in an Honours BA/BSc program, students must successfully complete at least 120 credits with a minimum overall CGPA of 5.00 (C+) or higher.

Repeating a Course

A student may repeat a passed or failed course once without submitting a petition request. The grade earned the second time the course is taken will replace the first grade in the calculation of the GPA. This means that even if a student's grade is worse the second time, the second grade is the one calculated into the GPA. In addition, both grades will appear on the transcript; NCR (no credit retained) will appear next to the first grade. For more information on repeating passed or failed courses, visit www.yorku.ca/secretariats/policies/document.php?document=92.

Degree Requirements and/or Restrictions

Students are responsible for the accuracy of their registration records, and for ensuring that the courses they have chosen meet the requirements for graduation. A failure to fulfill the degree requirements will result in a declaration of ineligibility to graduate, even if the requisite number of credits (90 or 120) has been completed. Students will remain ineligible until such time as the missing requirements are fulfilled.

Enrolling in and Completing Only One Section of a Course

The Department of Psychology offers courses during the fall, winter and summer academic sessions, and during the day and evening. We offer both full-year courses (designated by the identifier 6.00 after the course number, e.g. 1010 6.00) and half-year courses (designated by the identifier 3.00, e.g. 2120 3.00). Most 2000- and 3000-level courses are half-year courses (3.00 credits) and are offered during the fall, winter and summer sessions. Fall-term courses run from September to December and are identified by an (F) after the course number, for example, PSYC 2120 3.00(F). Winter-term courses run from January to April and are identified by a (W) after the course number, for example, PSYC 2120 3.00(W). Summer-term courses are offered in different terms throughout the summer (S1, S2, SU) and run anywhere from the beginning of May to mid-August. Courses identified by the same number but offered in different terms, e.g. 2120 3.00(F) and 2120 3.00(S1), or in different sections, e.g. 2120 3.00D (F) and 2120 3.00E (F), cover the same content; students must enrol in only one section of a course identified by the same course number. Courses with the same course number and name but a different credit weighting (i.e., 3 vs. 6) are considered course credit exclusions, e.g., If you have already taken PSYC 4020 3.00 you should not enrol in PSYC 4020 6.00 as you will not receive credit for it.

Enrolment Access to Courses

In many courses, some or all spaces are reserved initially for students in certain years, majors and programs. For example, in SOSC 3180 6.00A, Women, Culture and Society, spaces might be reserved for third- or fourth-year anthropology, psychology or sociology majors, as well as for third- or fourth-year students in the Women's Studies program. Thus, a second-year psychology student with the necessary prerequisite would initially be denied access to the course, in order to allow these other groups of students the opportunity to enrol. Course access specifications are reviewed periodically, from the time enrolment access begins until the final deadline date to enrol. Space is then released to other categories of students, if space is available. Psychology majors/minors who have difficulty enrolling in psychology courses should contact the Undergraduate Office as soon as possible for assistance. For contact information, see the directory at the front of this supplemental calendar.

IMPORTANT: ENROLLING ON THE DAY AND AT THE TIME OF YOUR ASSIGNED ENROLMENT ACCESS TIME IS TO YOUR ADVANTAGE.

Limitations on Non-Faculty of Health Courses

Credit for non-Faculty of Health courses, e.g. Faculties of Fine Arts, Business, Law, Science, Liberal Arts and Professional Studies courses, taken toward the BA degree will be allowed in accordance with limitations described in the Undergraduate Calendar. Please refer to the calendar at calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/ for more details, or consult the Undergraduate Psychology Office.

Total Number of Courses Permitted

A student is limited to enrolling in the equivalent of 36 credits per academic year, September to April. Students may take a maximum of 15 credits in the summer session.

Upper-level Course Prerequisites

Students are responsible for ensuring that they have completed the necessary prerequisites for their courses. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as a basis of appeal. Students found to be ineligible for a course may be removed from it at any time, and will receive no adjustment to their fees. The decision cannot be appealed. If students find that they do not have the course prerequisites, it is in their best interests to drop the course well before the drop date. Prompt attention to this matter will help students protect their academic record.

To enrol in 4000-level courses, students must satisfy the following.

- Students must be in an Honours program, have Honours standing, and have completed 84 credits (not including Faculty of Education courses).
- 4000-level psychology courses require the following general prerequisites or substitutes:
  - PSYC 1010 6.00 with a minimum grade of C.
  - PSYC 2030 3.00.
  - PSYC 2021 3.00 or PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutes.
- Before enrolling in PSYC 4000 6.00, PSYC 4001 6.00, PSYC 4170 6.00, or PSYC 4175 6.00 students must complete a full year of statistics, i.e. PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutions.
- Before enrolling in PSYC 4001 6.00, students must complete PSYC 3010 3.00 or a substitute course.
- Most 4000-level and some 3000-level psychology courses require completion of additional 2000-level or 3000-level specific course prerequisites. Students must make sure they have completed the other listed prerequisites, or their enrolment in the course will be cancelled and they may lose their tuition fee. To determine what these other course prerequisites are, please see the 3000- and 4000-level courses in this supplemental calendar.

Some students may have completed slightly fewer than the required 84 credits and still intend to graduate by summer 2013. Such students may wish to enrol in fourth-year courses for 2012 to 2013, but will be denied access to 4000-level psychology courses when they use the online enrolment system. These students should contact the Psychology Undergraduate Office in 291/292 BSB by the end of May, 2012, for instructions.
Course Credit Exclusions

Credit will not be given for a second course deemed to be sufficiently similar in content to a previously taken course that it constitutes "course credit exclusion." Most course credit exclusions (CCEs) are listed within individual course descriptions in the calendar. Just because two courses are CCEs does not mean they are equivalent and therefore they do not necessarily serve as substitutes in fulfilling degree or program requirements.

Generally, statistics, economics and mathematics courses (to name only a few) often have course credit exclusions. In addition, many of our courses have CCEs with Glendon College psychology courses. Glendon psychology course numbers have the GL acronym instead of HH in front of PSYC, and, although they are considered CCEs, they do not necessarily have the same course numbers as ours.

Honours, Scholarships, Awards, Medals

In honour of their outstanding achievements, all students who obtain any of the following awards/scholarships are invited to an awards ceremony that usually takes place in early spring. Their names and photographs are also placed on our awards bulletin board outside the undergraduate office (room 291/292 BSB).

For any of the awards/scholarships listed below that require applicants to show financial need, applicants must have completed a student financial profile. Details and the online application can be found at www.sfs.yorku.ca/services/sfp/.

Awards for Outstanding Thesis Research

The W.B. Templeton Honours Thesis Award

To honour the memory of Professor W.B. Templeton, the W.B. Templeton Honours Thesis Award is awarded to the fourth-year psychology student who produces the most outstanding Honours thesis. The Honours thesis supervisor nominates the thesis. A special committee appointed by the undergraduate director of the Department of Psychology evaluates all theses and selects a winner. The recipient of the award has her or his name inscribed on a plaque, which lists all previous winners and is displayed in the Norman S. Endler Room (163 Behavioural Science Building). This award also includes a prize of $100.

Application: No application by the student is necessary.

Goranson Memorial Research Award

This award honours the memory of Professor Richard Goranson, a long-time member of the Department of Psychology who was committed to the supervision of undergraduate research projects. Awards are given annually to fourth-year Honours students who satisfy the criteria below and submit an application. Each award has an approximate value of $400, which is to be used to cover expenses incurred in carrying out thesis research.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Must be a Canadian citizen/permanent resident and an Ontario resident
- Must demonstrate financial need
- Must be registered in PSYC 4000 6.00 Honours Thesis or PSYC 4001 6.00 Specialized Honours Thesis

Application: Applicants must submit a one-page description of their thesis project, along with a description of the expenses this award would cover. The one-page, hard-copy description should be submitted to the program assistant in Room 283 BSB, Department of Psychology, or e-mailed to bthurst@yorku.ca with "Goranson Award" in the subject heading of the e-mail. Applications are due by the end of November. More information about the application can be found at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/awards.html.
Awards Based on Academic Merit and Financial Need

Koenig Psychology Undergraduate Award

In recognition of Professor Kathryn Koenig’s long-time commitment to undergraduate education in the Department of Psychology, the Koenig Psychology Undergraduate Award is offered as a means of identifying, honouring and rewarding excellence in the Psychology Honours program, Faculty of Health. This award carries a value of approximately $1,000 (tuition credit applied to the next fall/winter session).

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Completion of 78 credits
- Major in psychology in an Honours BA or BSc program
- Highest sessional GPA on 30 credits (five full courses) in previous fall/winter session
- Must demonstrate financial need
- Must enrol in at least 24 credits (or the equivalent of four full courses) in the session for which the award is granted
- Must be a Canadian citizen/permanent resident and an Ontario resident
- Recipients of the President’s or Governor’s Awards of Distinction are excluded from receiving the Psychology Department Scholarship concurrently.

Application: No application by the student is necessary.

The Ivana Guglietti-Kelly Award

This award is in honour of Ivana Guglietti-Kelly. Each year, both graduate and undergraduate students in any of the departments of psychology at York (Faculty of Health, Glendon College and Graduate Studies) will be invited to submit completed work in competition for this award. The approximate value of this award is $500.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Completed work may be historical, theoretical or empirical, but will be distinguished by its focus on qualitative methods illuminating psychological processes
- Must be a Canadian citizen/permanent resident and an Ontario resident

Application: Contact the Psychology Undergraduate program director, Psychology Undergraduate Office, 291/292 BSB.

Awards Based on Academic Merit

The Ivana Guglietti-Kelly Prize

This prize has been established to honour Ivana Guglietti-Kelly, whose interest and work in qualitative methods led to the first publication from the Department of Psychology at York University to be included in The Journal of Phenomenological Psychology. Each year, both graduate and undergraduate students in any of the Departments of Psychology at York (Faculty of Health, Glendon College and Graduate Studies) will be invited to submit completed work in competition for this prize. Two prizes may be awarded, and the approximate value of the prize varies.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Completed work may be historical, theoretical or empirical, but will be distinguished by its focus on qualitative methods illuminating psychological processes
- Must be a Canadian citizen/permanent resident and an Ontario resident

Application: Contact the Psychology Undergraduate program director, Psychology Undergraduate Office, 291/292 BSB.

The Psychology Undergraduate Book Prizes

These awards are offered as a means of identifying, honouring and rewarding excellence in the Psychology Honours program. Approximately six awards will be made annually to the most outstanding second-, third- and fourth-year psychology students completing a full course load (approximately one award for a BA and one award for a BSc in each year level). Awardees are offered a selection of a book sold by the publishers sponsoring the event.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Major in psychology in an Honours program in the Faculty of Health
- Highest sessional GPA on 30 credits (five full courses) in the previous fall/winter session
- Completion of at least 12 credits in psychology

Application: No application by the student is necessary.

The Sandra W. Pyke Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Professor Sandra Pyke to assist an Honours undergraduate Faculty of Health or Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies student entering year 4 (successful completion of at least 90 credits) of an Honours Double Major or Honours Major/Minor program in Psychology and Women’s Studies. In the case of ties, one award will be equally divided among the students who meet the criteria for the award. Approximate value of this award is $500.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- The recipient is selected on the basis of academic merit (the highest overall CGPA at the end of year 3).
- A condition for accepting the award is that the student will enrol in at least four full courses (24 credits) for the session in which the award is granted.
- Must be a Canadian citizen
- Should be enrolled in a double major or major/minor program in Psychology and Women’s Studies
- Recipients of the President’s Scholarship or the University Awards of Distinction will be excluded from receiving this award concurrently.

Application: No application by the student is necessary.

Awards Based on Financial Need

The James Alan Brackley Bursary

This award was established to honour the memory of James Alan Brackley, a Department of Psychology staff member for 32 years. One award will be given annually to a psychology major in the Faculty of Health who is in financial need.

Inclusion/exclusion criteria:
- Major or minor in one of the following programs at the Keele Campus:
  - Faculty of Health—Psychology, Kinesiology & Health Science
  - Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies—Creative Writing, English, History, Humanities, Philosophy
  - Faculty of Fine Arts—Film (Photography), Dance, Music, Theatre, Visual Arts
  - Faculty of Education—Education
- Completion of a minimum of 54 credits
- 7.00 (B+) average
- Must demonstrate financial need

Application: To apply for this award, please fill out the Student Financial Profile at http://sfs.yorku.ca/services/sfp/. Please include a personal statement outlining your financial circumstances.
York-Seneca Joint Program in Rehabilitation Services

Students who complete this joint program become rehabilitation counsellors, gaining experience in a broad range of rehabilitation services for developmental, emotional and physical disabilities. This program allows a student to complete a BA or BSc (90-credit) or an Honours BA or Honours BSc (120-credit) degree in psychology at York in conjunction with a certificate in rehabilitation counselling. The certificate is awarded jointly by York University and Seneca College. In the joint program, a full-time student would normally require four years of study for a BA or BSc degree, and five years of study for an Honours BA or Honours BSc degree. An information session, in which the program is described and questions are answered, is usually held in early February. Students can contact the program assistant (contact information below) early in January for details about the information session.

To fulfill the requirements for a BA or BSc in psychology, a student must take a minimum of 30 (but not more than 42) credits in psychology, including PSYC 1010 6.00 (with a minimum grade of C). For an Honours BA or Honours BSc in psychology, a student must take a minimum of 42 (but not more than 54) credits in psychology. Please see the program requirements worksheets for further details about the BA/BSc or Honours BA/BSc degrees.

During years 3 and 4, students will normally take 30 credits at York University, from the required program list; students will choose the equivalent of 30 credits from the Seneca College offerings. In addition to in-class academic instruction, students are required to complete two full-year (September to April) courses involving a total of 800 hours of supervised fieldwork in each of the three major domains of rehabilitation: physical, emotional and developmental. Programs will be tailored to each student through discussion with the coordinators.

Admission Requirements and Procedures

Students who wish to enter the Rehabilitation Services program should apply to the departmental program office in the year preceding the final year of their BA or BSc degree program. The application deadline is normally in early March. Generally, a student who demonstrates good intellectual ability, emotional stability and relevant experience will be considered for entry into the program.

Applicants must have

- completed 60 university-level credits toward a BA or BSc or 90 university-level credits toward an Honours BA or Honours BSc, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00 (C+).
- completed an Introduction to Psychology course (with a minimum grade of C).
- fulfilled the general education requirements of York University.
- previous employment or volunteer work in the field of rehabilitation or related relevant experience.

Students currently enrolled at York University may obtain hard copies of the application and other information by contacting the program assistant, 283 Behavioural Sciences Building, 416-736-5115, extension 66253; e-mail: ysrehab@yorku.ca. Further details about the program, including an online application, can be found at www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/joint_program.html. Students from other universities should contact ysrehab@yorku.ca for further information about applying to the program.

To be considered for admission, all applicants must submit a complete application, i.e. application form, official transcripts and two letters of recommendation. The deadline is the second Monday in March. York University and Seneca College coordinators will rank complete applications according to students’ academic standing and previous experience.
Courses/Timeline for Students in the Rehabilitation Certificate Program

Honours BA or BSc Degree Plus the Certificate in Rehabilitation Counselling

During years 1, 2, and 3, a student’s requirements at York University will be the completion of 90 credits, including PSYC 1010 6.00 (with a minimum grade of C). To avoid exceeding the maximum number of credits allowed by the Psychology program, students should take no more than 24 credits toward the major (including PSYC 1010 6.00); some of these should be from the required list of the joint program, below.

Course requirements at York University:
PSYC 2130 3.00 Personality
PSYC 2230 3.00 Motivation
PSYC 3140 3.00 Abnormal Psychology
PSYC 3430 3.00 Behaviour in Groups
SOCI 3820 6.00 Sociology of Health and Health Care
PSYC 4030 6.00 Behaviour Modification and Behaviour Therapy
PSYC 4060 6.00 Counselling Psychology

Course requirements at Seneca College:
YSR 819 Physical Disabilities—Part I
YSR 824 Interviewing and Case Management
YSR 826 Community Resources
YSR 828 Introduction to Rehabilitation and FWK 901 Rehabilitation Field Work (two days a week for two semesters)
YSR 820 Physical Disabilities—Part II
YSR 821 Theories of Vocational Development and Counselling
YSR 823 Canadian Social Policy Evolution (half course)
YSR 825 Rehabilitation Process (two semesters)
YSR 901 Life Skills Coaching and FWK 902 Rehabilitation Field Work (two days a week for two semesters)

BA or BSc Degree Plus the Certificate in Rehabilitation Counselling

During years 1 and 2, a student’s course requirements at York University will be the completion of 60 credits, including PSYC 1010 6.00 (with a minimum grade of C). To avoid exceeding the maximum number of credits allowed by the Psychology program, students should take no more than 12 credits toward the major (including PSYC 1010 6.00), unless these are taken from the required list for the joint program, below.

NOTE: In addition to completing the above courses, students must also fulfill the specific degree requirements for the 90 or 120 credit BA/BSc programs in which they are enrolled. For a detailed description of the degree requirements please refer to the Programs of Study descriptions for the Major.
Thinking About Your Future

Students who are interested in obtaining masters or doctoral level degrees in psychology should plan early in their undergraduate career. Most graduate schools in Canada require a minimum average of B+ (minimum overall GPA of 7.00) for the last two years (approximately the equivalent of 20 three-credit courses) of study in an Honours degree program.

Schools may also require that students have completed a minimum of eight full courses or the equivalent (48 credits) in a breadth of psychology courses that cover specific areas, including introductory psychology, statistics and research methods, as well as the biological, cognitive, developmental, social or abnormal basis of behaviour etc. Students contemplating graduate study are advised to take courses in statistics and research methods beyond those required for a general Honours degree, e.g. PSYC 3010 3.00 and PSYC 3031 3.00. In addition, they should check graduate program Web sites for further information about the breadth of psychology courses they must complete before applying to graduate school.

Research experience is a valuable asset in preparation for graduate programs. Interested students should consider an independent study course (PSYC 3890 3.00/6.00 or PSYC 4890 3.00/6.00) when they select their optional psychology courses. Students may also pick up an information sheet and the contract for the independent studies course in the undergraduate studies office.

A student completing the Specialized Honours program may be more competitive for the limited spaces available in graduate programs. Students who meet the requirements for the Specialized Honours program are therefore encouraged to apply no later than May 15.

Programs of Study, Degree Requirements and Worksheets

Psychology degree-requirement worksheets are provided in the following pages. They summarize the degree requirements for a major in psychology for a 90-credit (3-year) BA/BSc degree, or a major/minor 120-credit (4-year) Honours BA/BSc degree. Students are encouraged to use these worksheets to chart their progress as they fulfill the requirements for their degree.

In addition to completing fewer credits than students seeking a 120-credit Honours BA/BSc, students seeking a 90-credit BA/BSc are not required to complete a thesis or as many statistics or 4000-level courses. A major difference between the Honours and the Specialized Honours degrees is that students seeking a Specialized Honours degree must do additional coursework in statistics, research methods and the history of psychology. Both the Honours and Specialized Honours degrees require a thesis; students accepted into the Specialized Honours program are guaranteed a thesis supervisor and more guidance to help them become competitive in applications for graduate study in psychology.

Students are responsible for ensuring that the courses in which they enrol will meet all requirements for graduation. Students therefore are encouraged to make an advising appointment with a Department of Psychology undergraduate program adviser, who can monitor their progress.
BA Degree Requirements

The following summarizes the main areas of degree requirements that students must complete while progressing through the Honours BA (120-credit) or BA (90-credit) program:

- Psychology MAJOR requirements: All majors require completion of Introduction to Psychology with a minimum grade of C, statistics, research methods, course(s) from the 2100/3100 series and the 2200/3200 series, and a selection of other psychology courses to complete the minimum major and upper-level degree requirements. The Honours BA degrees also require completion of a thesis with an individual supervisor (PSYC 4000, PSYC 4001) or in a seminar course format (PSYC 4170) or in a community-based research format (PSYC 4175).

  The student’s degree program (Honours, Specialized Honours, Honours Double Major, Honours Major/Minor with psychology as the Major or Minor, or the 90-credit BA) requires completion of a specific number/type of psychology courses, which vary depending on the degree. Check individual worksheets for specifics.

- GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS: The general education requirements are listed in the individual worksheet. For a list of approved General Education courses in: Humanities, Modes of Reasoning, Natural Science and Social Science see www.yorku.ca/health/current_students/GeneralEdCourses.html

- ELECTIVE REQUIREMENTS: The total number of elective credits varies between degree programs and are listed in the individual worksheets. At a minimum, students must take 18 credits of electives outside of their major. As Psychology is one of the few programs with a maximum number of psychology courses allowed, students completing an Honours degree in Psychology must take more than 18 credits in electives outside of their major (see worksheets for details).

- RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT: A minimum of 30 course credits, and at least half (50 per cent) of the course credits required in the major/minor must be taken at York University.

- UPPER-LEVEL REQUIREMENTS: To enrol in 4000-level courses in psychology, students must have honours standing, completed 84 credits and the prerequisites for those courses (Please see page 79 for details).

  For the 120-credit BA (Honours, Specialized Honours, Honours Major/Minor when psychology is the major), students must take 36 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level; a minimum of 18 credits must be at the 4000 level. Included in the 18 credits at the 4000 level must be the completion of a thesis with an individual supervisor (PSYC 4000) or in a seminar course format (PSYC 4170) or a community-based research format (PSYC 4175), and at least six additional 4000-level credits in psychology.

  NOTE: Specialized Honours students conduct an individual thesis research project with a supervisor and enrol in a seminar course (PSYC 4001 6.00). Any other specific information on the upper-level requirements for other Honours BA degrees, e.g. Honours Double Major, or Honours Major/Minor when psychology is the minor, is included on the individual worksheets.

  For the 90-credit BA, students must meet the upper-level requirement, which is 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level; a minimum of 12 credits in psychology must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

- CUMULATIVE GPA (CGPA) REQUIREMENT: Students intending to graduate with an Honours degree must complete a total of at least 120 credits with a minimum CGPA of 5.00 (C+). Successful applicants to the Specialized Honours program must maintain a minimum CGPA of 7.00 (B+) and complete a total of at least 120 credits with a minimum overall cumulative grade point average of 7.00 (B+). If students in the specialized honours program do not maintain the CGPA of 7.00 then they will be automatically moved into the Honours program. They will graduate with an honours degree as long as they do not drop below the CGPA of 5.00. Students intending to graduate with a 90-credit BA degree must complete a total of at least 90 credits with a minimum CGPA of 4.00 (C).

The degree worksheets that follow specify degree requirements as of September 2012. These worksheets have been provided to supplement and remind students of important details contained in the University Calendar—the official document of the university. For complete information, please consult the University Calendar at calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/.

NOTE: These worksheets may not work as well for psychology students who formerly were mature or part-time students in the Atkinson Psychology program, or who are transferring from another faculty at York University or from another university. Such students may have taken courses whose names or course codes have changed at York University, or may have transfer credits from another faculty or university. To ensure that you are properly informed about your degree requirements, please make an appointment with the psychology adviser for the undergraduate program or the director of the undergraduate program.

*UPPER-LEVEL REQUIREMENT: Students must take 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level. A minimum of 12 credits in psychology must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

BSc Degree Requirements

Changes as of September 2012: new students admitted to the BSc program, as well as between faculty transfers and within the Psychology program transfers between the BA and BSc degrees will follow the below new BSc requirements. Students admitted to the BSc program prior to the change (including within faculty change of major transfers (e.g. from Kinesiology to Psychology) may proceed under the degree requirements in place when they were admitted.

The following summarizes the main areas of degree requirements that students must complete while progressing through the Honours BSc (120-credit) or BSc (90-credit) program:

- Psychology MAJOR requirements: All majors require completion of Introduction to Psychology with a minimum grade of C, Statistics, Research Methods, course(s) from the 2100/3100 series and the 2200/3200 series, and a selection of other psychology courses to complete the upper-level (see upper-level requirements section for details) psychology major requirements. The Honours BSc degrees also require completion of a thesis with an individual supervisor (PSYC 4000, PSYC 4001) or in a seminar course format (PSYC 4170) or in a community-based research format (PSYC 4175).

The student’s degree program (Honours, Specialized Honours, Honours Double Major, Honours Major/Minor with Psychology as the Major or Minor, or the 90-credit BSc) requires completion of a specific number/type of psychology courses, which vary depending on the degree. Check individual worksheets for specifics.

- GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS: The general education requirements are listed in the individual worksheet. For a list of approved General Education courses in: Humanities, Modes of Reasoning, and Social Science see www.yorku.ca/health/current_students/GeneralEdCourses.html

- ELECTIVE REQUIREMENTS: Course selection for the elective credits may be science or non-science courses used to fulfill the science and upper-level requirements.

- SCIENCE ELECTIVE REQUIREMENTS: A minimum of 9 science elective credits must be taken in the Science disciplines* outside the major that includes all Faculty of Science and Engineering (FSE) courses and most Kinesiology (KINE) courses. Of these 9 science credits, 3 science credits must be taken at the 2000 level or above outside the psychology major, and another 6 science credits outside the major at any level.

NOTE: These 9 science elective credits are not required for Double Major, Major/Minor combinations.

*Current Science disciplines are: Biology (BIOL), Biochemistry (BCHM), Biophysics (BPHS), Chemistry (CHEM), Computer Science (CSE), Earth and Atmospheric Science (EATS), Geography (GEOG), Kinesiology and Health Science (KINE), Mathematics and Statistics (MATH), Physics and Astronomy (PHYS), Psychology (PSYC), Science and Technology Studies (STS).

- 1000 LEVEL BASIC SCIENCE REQUIREMENTS: All BSc degrees require the completion of 15 credits of 1000-level science courses, which include 6 credits from math, 3 credits from computer science and engineering (CSE), and 6 credits from the following: physics (PHYS), biology (BIOL), and chemistry (CHEM). Students should refer to the degree worksheets for the list of specific courses.

- RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT: A minimum of 30 course credits, and at least half (50 per cent) of the course credits required in the major/minor must be taken at York University.
• UPPER-LEVEL REQUIREMENTS: To enrol in 4000-level courses in psychology students must have honours standing (minimum CGPA 5.00), completed 84 credits and have completed the prerequisites for the 4000-level courses (Please see page 79 for details).

For the 120-credit BSc (Honours, Specialized Honours), students must complete 42 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level. This includes 18 credits at 3000 or 4000 upper level courses required by the major; a minimum of 12 credits in psychology must be at the 4000 level. Included in the 12 credits at the 4000 level must be the completion of a thesis with an individual supervisor (PSYC 4000) or in a seminar course format (PSYC 4170) or in a community-based research format (PSYC 4175), and at least six additional 4000-level credits in psychology. NOTE: Specialized Honours students conduct an individual thesis research project with a supervisor and enrol in PSYC 4001. Any other specific information on the upper-level requirements for other Honours BSc degrees, e.g. Honours Double Major, or Honours Major/Minor when psychology is the major or minor, is included on the individual worksheets.

For the 90-credit BSc, students must meet the upper-level requirement, which is 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level; a minimum of 12 credits in psychology must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

• CUMULATIVE GPA (CGPA) REQUIREMENT: Students intending to graduate with an Honours degree must complete a total of at least 120 credits with a minimum CGPA of 5.00 (C+). Successful applicants to the Specialized Honours program must maintain a minimum CGPA of 7.00 (B+) and complete a total of at least 120 credits with a minimum overall cumulative grade point average of 7.00 (B+). If students in the specialized honours program do not maintain the CGPA of 7.00 then they will be automatically moved into the Honours program. They will graduate with an honours degree as long as they do not drop below the CGPA of 5.00. Students intending to graduate with a 90-credit BSc degree must complete a total of at least 90 credits with a minimum CGPA of 4.00 (C).

The degree worksheets that follow specify degree requirements as of September 2012. These worksheets have been provided to supplement and remind students of important details contained in the University Calendar—the official document of the University. For complete information, please consult the University Calendar at http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars//.

NOTE: These worksheets may not work as well for psychology students who formerly were mature or part-time students in the Atkinson Psychology program, or who are transferring from another faculty at York University or from another university. Such students may have taken courses whose names or course codes have changed at York University, or may have transfer credits from another faculty or university. To ensure that you are properly informed about your degree requirements, please make an appointment with the psychology adviser for the undergraduate program or the director of the undergraduate program.

PART B: POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Academic Petitions

A petition is a formal request for the waiver of a Faculty of Health regulation or deadline. Students have the right to petition with reasonable grounds for special consideration. Two of the most common petitions are late withdrawal, i.e., a request to remove a course from the transcript, and deferred standing, i.e. a request to write a missed final exam or to submit final assignments. The petitions process and forms can be found at www.yorku.ca/health/current_students/petitions.html.

Academic Honesty

A central purpose of the University is to teach students to think independently and critically. Breaches of academic honesty run counter to this purpose and violate the ethical and intellectual principles of the University; they are therefore subject to severe penalties.

York University has policies on plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of breaches of academic honesty. See details at www.yorku.ca/academicintegrity/students/. These policies apply to students enrolled in the psychology program. Below is a succinct summary of definitions, procedures and penalties.

Definitions, Procedures and Penalties

The following procedures are applied within the Faculty of Health. All provisions of the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty also apply. References to “students” in the following regulations should be taken to include applicants for admission to the Faculty of Health and former York University students, as well as those who are currently registered at York University. The following list of offenses is not exhaustive; consult also the definitions contained in the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. The University's regulations on non-academic discipline may also apply. Some academic offences constitute offences under the Criminal Code of Canada; a student charged under University regulations may also be subject to criminal charges. Under these regulations, the Faculty of Health may also lay a charge of breach of academic honesty against its students who are accused of offences against other educational institutions. If students are uncertain whether a course of action might constitute a breach of academic honesty, they should consult the instructor(s) concerned in advance.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the presentation of work as one’s own, which originates from some other unacknowledged source. In examinations, term papers and other graded assignments, verbatim or almost verbatim presentation of someone else’s work without attribution constitutes plagiarism. This is deemed to include the presentation of someone else’s argument in the student’s own words, as if it were her or his own, without acknowledgement.

Two particular forms of plagiarism are of special concern in psychology. The first is copying someone's words without using quotation marks. When a student copies another author's words, even if it is only a portion of a sentence, the student must enclose those words in quotation marks and give a page number in citing the source of the quotation. The second particular form of plagiarism is taking someone's writing and translating it into one’s own words without acknowledging the original author. Of course, summarizing or paraphrasing another writer's work is perfectly legitimate, but the original author must be cited in the body of the student’s own writing; just putting the author's name in the reference list is not enough.

In cases where students are unsure whether they are plagiarizing, providing full citation information is the safest approach. Asking the instructor in advance can also clarify uncertainty.
Cheating

Cheating is defined as

- the unauthorized giving or receiving or utilizing, or attempt at giving or obtaining or utilizing, of information or assistance during an examination. (References to examinations also include tests.)
- the unauthorized obtaining or conveying, or attempt at obtaining or conveying, of examination questions.
- giving or receiving assistance on an essay or assignment, which goes beyond that sanctioned by the instructor. (This includes the buying and selling of, and attempt at buying or selling of, essays and/or research assistance relating to course assignments.)
- impersonating someone else or causing or allowing oneself to be impersonated in an examination, or knowingly availing oneself of the results of impersonation.
- presenting a single piece of work in more than one course without the permission of the instructors involved.

NOTE: These regulations are not intended to discourage cooperative projects among students. Students are expected to obtain instructors’ permission in advance for cooperative projects and for the submission of a single piece of work for two different courses.

Other Forms of Breaching Academic Honesty

The following constitutes a breach of academic honesty: making false claims or statements, submitting false information, altering official documents or records or attempting or causing others to do or attempt any of the above, so as to mislead an instructor or an academic unit, program, office or committee as to a student’s academic status, qualifications, actions or preparation.

Theft of Intellectual Property: York University Student Code of Conduct (see www.yorku.ca/scdr/studentconduct.html for details) specifically prohibits a student’s theft of intellectual property, which includes recording a course director’s lecture without permission or taking lecture material provided for a student online, modifying it and/or using it for a student’s own personal use or gain. The material provided by a course director is to be used only for students’ personal study when they take the course for which it was created. Use in any other way could result, at the minimum, in sanctions in accordance with the York University Student Code of Conduct and, at the maximum, will be breaking federal, provincial or municipal laws and will be acted on accordingly.
PART C: COURSES

First-year Required Course in Psychology

Introduction to Psychology (1010 6.00) is a prerequisite (or corequisite in the case of 2020 6.00, 2021 3.00 and 2022 3.00) for all 2000-, 3000- and 4000-level courses in psychology. In order to pursue further studies in psychology, a student must pass Introduction to Psychology (1010 6.00) with a minimum grade of C (4.00). Students who fail to complete PSYC 1010 6.00 with the required minimum grade will not be eligible to take upper-level psychology courses. Non-majors and students who are completing a minor degree and want to take psychology courses as electives must also follow this rule.

2012-2013 Lecture Schedule and Supplemental Calendar

Changes will be posted on the bulletin board across from room 249 BSB. Students should check this board or the online lecture schedule at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/about_psyc.html before finalizing their timetables. Changes will also be reflected in addendum copies available in the Department of Psychology Undergraduate Office.

Psychology Courses Not Offered in 2012

Psychology Courses Ineligible for Science Credit

Some psychology courses are ineligible for science credit, but BSc and Honours BSc candidates may take them for non-science electives and psychology credit. These courses are as follows:

PSYC 3350 3.00 Cultural Psychology
PSYC 3430 3.00 Behaviour in Groups
PSYC 3600 3.00 Community Psychology
PSYC 3620 3.00 Vocational Psychology
PSYC 3630 3.00 The Psychology of the Family
PSYC 3670 3.00 Psychology of Sexual Orientation
PSYC 4120 3.00 Psychology and Literature (formerly PSYC 4120 6.00) (as of printing this supplemental calendar this course is ineligible for science credit, check with undergraduate office if this has changed at the time of enrolment).
PSYC 4891 6.00 Applied Community/Industry Project

Some topics chosen for Independent Study PSYC 3890 6.00 (3890 3.00) and PSYC 4890 6.00 (4890 3.00), Honours Thesis (PSYC 4000 6.00 or PSYC 4001 6.00) and Advanced Research in Psychology (PSYC 4170 6.00) courses may not be eligible for science credit. For confirmation that a topic or thesis may be counted for science credit, the student should submit an abstract indicating methodology to the psychology undergraduate director.

Important Information about Substitutions and Course Credit Exclusions (CCEs) for Statistics Courses

NOTE 1: Students who discontinue registration in Psychology 2020 6.00 at the end of the fall term may not petition for credit for a half course in statistics.

Course credit exclusions (CCEs) may not be substituted for PSYC 2020 6.00 to satisfy psychology degree requirements unless approved as acceptable substitutes by the department and faculty. (See the list below.) Students cannot take PSYC 2020 6.00 if they have taken another statistics course (in any department/faculty). See the University Calendar for the list of CCEs.

NOTE 2: Only courses specified in the following list may be substituted for the PSYC 2020 6.00 requirement. Some of these courses are not a substitution but a CCE only (see list). Six credits are required for substitution except as indicated below:

PSYC 2021 3.00 and 2022 3.00
AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 (prior to Winter 2002) and AK/PSYC 3110 3.00 (prior to Summer 2002)

Course Information and Descriptions

NOTE: A course grade of at least “C” in PSYC 1010 6.00 is a prerequisite for further studies in psychology.

1000-Level Courses

1010 6.00A (Y) INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY (EVENING COURSE)

Instructor: J. STEEVES (Fall)/ TBA (Winter)
Office: 1032 SHSRC

MON. 7:00 – 10:00pm

Prerequisite: None.

Course Credit Exclusion: AK/PSYC 2410 6.00 or GL/PSYC 2510 6.00.

General Description: A survey of the field of psychology introducing basic terms, concepts and methods. Included are topics such as biological basis of behaviour, learning, perception, motivation, cognition, child development, personality, abnormal and social psychology. A more detailed description will become available the first week of classes.

Requirements: The final grade for the course will be based on the following items weighted as indicated:

Other Information: Class attendance is important. Each session is intended to be interesting, challenging, and (hopefully) enjoyable for you. In addition, material presented in class—from lectures, films, and research demonstrations—will be included on the exams. It is your responsibility to find out what you missed. Thus, it is to your benefit to come to every class and to borrow notes from a fellow student when you do have to miss a class.

Textbook: The following textbook is required for the course. The Study Guide may be bundled with the text and although it is not required, you may find it useful.

Student Companion website: http://www.themesandvariations2ce.nelson.com/student/

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for first-year students, with a few spaces reserved for upper-level students.
1010 6.00B (Y)  INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: J. RICH
Office: 248 BSB

THURS. 11:30 – 2:30

Prerequisite: None

Course Credit Exclusion: AK/PSYC 2410 6.00 or GL/PSYC 2510 6.00.

General Description: This course will provide a broad overview of ideas, theories, and principles of human behaviour relevant to the study of psychology. There will be an emphasis on some of the many exciting research findings that have advanced the field. Included among the topics are an introduction to the scientific method, biological basis of behaviour, child development and aging, perception, learning, memory theory, cognition, language, health psychology, social psychology, personality, and treatment of psychological disorders.

Class Format: The three-hour class period is primarily lecture-based, but will also include films, demonstrations, and discussions.

Requirements: Grades will be based on four examinations (multiple choice and short answer).

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for first-year students, with a few spaces reserved for upper-level students.

1010 6.00C (Y)  INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: F. WILKINSON
Office: 1012D LAS

INTERNET

Prerequisite: None

Course Credit Exclusion: AK/PSYC 2410 6.00 or GL/PSYC 2510 6.00.

General Description: A survey of psychology introducing basic terms, concepts and methods. Included are topics such as biological bases of behaviour, learning, perception, motivation, cognition, child development, personality, and abnormal and social psychology. NOTE: This section of Introduction to Psychology is by internet. Students who are in their first term at York and are making the transition from high school to university are strongly advised NOT to register in this section; a classroom course is strongly advised in this case. This section is meant primarily for mature students, students who cannot come to the Keele campus on a regular basis and students who are not psychology majors but who want to take one or more psychology courses. This course is required for all students who intend to pursue additional courses in psychology at the 2000, 3000 and 4000 levels. Students must pass the course with a minimum grade of C (4.00) in order to pursue further studies in psychology.

Class Format: Internet. There are no formal classes in this section; all materials are presented via the internet in the Moodle learning environment and learning is self-paced. There will be optional for monthly discussion/question-and-answer sessions held both on-line and on campus. The only required on-campus activities are the four exams. Exams at off-campus sites may be arranged through Distance Education for students living three hours or more from Toronto.

Requirements: Two assignments, four exams, participation in the undergraduate research participation pool.

Other Information: This section is designed for mature and distance students whose schedules do not permit them to attend classes on campus. Others are admitted if spaces are available. It is NOT RECOMMENDED for students making the transition from high school to university.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for first-year students, with a few spaces reserved for upper-level students.

1010 6.00D (Y)  INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: D. MCCANN
Office: 247 BSB

TUES. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisite: None.

Course Credit Exclusion: AK/PSYC 2410 6.00 or GL/PSYC 2510 6.00.

General Description: This course is designed to introduce students to the study of human behaviour from a psychological perspective. The general topics covered will include the brain, behaviour and consciousness; learning and cognition; human development; personality and social psychology; and psychological disorders and treatment.

Class Format: One three-hour period consisting of a combination of lecture, discussion, films and experimental demonstrations.

Requirements: Five Exams, equally weighted.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for first-year students, with a few spaces reserved for upper-level students.

2000-Level Courses

2020 6.00A (Y) STATISTICAL METHODS I AND II
(EVENING COURSE)
THURS. 7:00 – 10:00pm
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
Prerequisite or Corequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusions and Substitutions: See page 34.
General Description: An introduction to the analysis of data from psychological studies. Topics include fundamental concepts and techniques of both descriptive and inferential statistics and their application to psychological research. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science and communication studies.

2020 6.00B (Y) STATISTICAL METHODS I AND II
MON. & WED. 8:30 – 10:30am
Instructor: J. CHECK
Office: 266 BSB
Prerequisite or Corequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusions and Substitutions: See page 34.
General Description: This course is designed to provide the student with the statistical skills necessary to analyze and understand the data from psychological research. Topics covered will include basic concepts of measurement, measures of central tendency, variability and relationship. In addition, selected inferential statistics will be covered, e.g. tests on correlations and mean differences. You should have a reasonably good working knowledge of high school algebra, but there will be NO calculus or matrix algebra in this course. A more detailed description will be available the first week of classes.
Class Format: There will be a two-hour lecture and a two-hour tutorial each week. The purpose of the tutorial is to review important topics discussed in the lecture and text, occasionally introduce new material, conduct review sessions for upcoming tests, take up assignments and tests and provide additional opportunity for students to ask questions.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science and communication studies.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 2120 3.00A (F).
General Description: This course is designed to provide you with a detailed introduction to major theories and research in the field of social psychology. Social psychology can be defined as “the scientific study of how people think about, influence, and relate to one another” (Myers & Spencer, 2006, p. 2). Throughout this course we will cover a wide range of topics of interest to social psychologists including social cognition (how we think about ourselves and others), conformity and persuasion, prejudice, as well as intimacy and attraction. The first goal of this course, therefore, is to provide you with the opportunity to learn more about the field of social psychology. We will examine how people influence, and are influenced by, their social environments and how seemingly minor changes in the social situation can have an important effect on individuals’ thoughts, feelings, and behaviours. A second goal is to allow you to learn more about those around you, and about yourself.

Class Format: As this is an internet course, students will be expected to read the text and view the lectures provided on the course website. Students may also be expected to post questions and/or join online discussions.

Requirements: Two non-cumulative midterm exams (worth 30% each) and a final examination (worth 40%). This is only a tentative grading scheme that may change; please check the course syllabus closer to the start date for more information.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in law and society, cognitive science and communication studies.

2220 3.00A (F) SENSATION AND PERCEPTION I

Instructor: R. MURRAY
Office: 0003J LAS

TUES. & THURS. 11:30 – 1:00pm

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3120 3.00, GL/PSYC 3690 3.00.

General Description: How do we use light and sound to perceive our immediate environment? We will approach this topic both from a biological point of view, discussing the sensory systems and brain areas that underlie our perceptual abilities, and also from a computational point of view, investigating how we use the information that reaches our eyes and ears. Topics include visual perception of shape, colour, depth, and motion; visual object recognition; auditory perception of pitch, loudness, and location; music and speech.

Requirements: quizzes (10%), two midterm tests (25% each), final exam (40%)

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in Cognitive science.

3031 3.00A (F) INTERMEDIATE STATISTICS LABORATORY

Instructor: J. ELDER
Office: 0003G LAS

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitute.

Course Credit Exclusion: KINE 3150 3.00.

General Description: This course provides training in the application of statistical methods. Topics will include descriptive methods, correlation, regression, t-tests, ANOVA, repeated-measures designs, non-parametric methods, and factor analysis. The emphasis will be on the use of SPSS to apply these methods to realistic datasets in the behavioural sciences.

Class Format: Each meeting will begin with a lecture and software demonstration introducing and reviewing key statistical concepts and how they are applied with SPSS. The second portion of the meeting will consist of a hands-on laboratory where students will work individually on problems that require application of these concepts to realistic datasets.

Requirements:
- Assignments: 30%
- Midterm: 20%
- Final project: 20%
- Final exam: 30%

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for honour students in psychology.

3031 3.00M (W) INTERMEDIATE STATISTICS LABORATORY

Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitute.

Course Credit Exclusion: KINE 3150 3.00.

General Description: This course provides students with the opportunity to apply, consolidate, and extend their statistical analysis skills to realistic psychological data using methods such as regression analysis. An important component of the course is the use of a statistical software package such as SPSS or SAS to prepare students for independent thesis research. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for honour students in psychology.
3090 3.00A (F) PSYCHOLOGICAL MEASUREMENT
EVENING COURSE
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
TUES. 7:00 – 10:00pm
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; one of PSYC 2020 6.00 or PSYC 2021 3.00 or substitute.
Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3550 3.00.
General Description: An introduction to measurement theory, including principles of psychological testing with special emphasis on test construction and the statistical evaluation, interpretation and validation of test scores. The course does not address the applied uses of tests. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.
Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for honour students in psychology.

3125 3.00A (F) HISTORY OF PSYCHOLOGY
Instructor: A. RUTHERFORD
Office: 215 BSB
TUES. 11:30 – 2:30
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3650 3.00.
General Description: This course will provide a selective overview of the history of psychology from the mid-1800s to the present, with earlier forays into the philosophical and practical underpinnings of psychological questions where appropriate. We will consider both the history of the discipline - Psychology - and the history of its subject matter – psychology – with the goal of exploring how these two histories are intertwined. Students will be encouraged to consider issues of reflexivity and subjectivity as they pertain to the development of psychology and its research practices. Students should emerge from the course with the ability to situate Psychology in its historical, cultural/global, and political contexts, and to more thoughtfully assess the work that psychologists do. This course will be especially useful to students preparing for graduate work in the discipline, as well as students interested in placing their existing course work in its social and historical context. Class discussion and video presentations will supplement lectures.
Requirements: Evaluation will be based on a series of multiple-choice and short-answer tests and a paper.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for students in third- and fourth-year science and society.

3125 3.00M (W) HISTORY OF PSYCHOLOGY
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
FRI. 2:30 – 5:30
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3650 3.00.
General Description: This course examines the discipline of psychology from a historical perspective and studies the emergence and development (and sometimes decline) of a number of theoretical systems that have influenced the nature, content and direction of psychological inquiry. A more detailed description will become available once a course instructor has been assigned.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for students in third- and fourth-year science and society.
3140 3.00A (F) ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY

INTERNET

Instructor: S. FLEMING
Office: 211 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3215 3.00, GL/PSYC 3230 3.00.

General Description: The first section of this course will be concerned with defining abnormality, discussing clinical assessment and diagnosis, developmental disorders, mental retardation, physical disorders and health psychology, and substance abuse. During the second half of the course, various syndromes including anxiety disorders, personality disorders, mood disorders, and the psychoses will be explored.

Tentative Requirements: Students will be required to write three multiple-choice examinations; each exam will be worth 1/3 of the final grade.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in law and society, criminology and health and society.

MON. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3215 3.00, GL/PSYC 3230 3.00.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 3140 3.00B (F).

Access Specifications: This section has most spaces reserved for students in the York-Seneca Joint Program in Rehabilitation Services and psychology majors/minors.

3140 3.00N (W)  ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor:  J. GOLDBERG
Office:  133A BSB

TUES. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3215 3.00, GL/PSYC 3230 3.00.

General Description: This survey course is designed to provide an introduction to psychopathology and the study of abnormal behaviour. Clinical psychologists are concerned with maladaptive behaviour of all sorts, severity and duration; however, the emphasis will be on descriptions and understanding of the major forms of mental and emotional disorders and on the scientist-practitioners who have made important contributions and discoveries in the field.

Class Format: Lectures - ‘Clicker’ is required in-class.

Requirements: Weekly quizzes, mid-term tests and cumulative final.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in law and society, criminology and health and society.

3140 3.00O (W)  ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY  Cont’d…

Other Information: Tests will largely be in multiple-choice format. (There may be some short-answer questions.) They will be based on assigned textbook readings, material presented in class, and audiovisual aids. You are required to write all tests and the exam on the scheduled dates. Please plan your exam studying accordingly, as mid-terms in many courses tend to be held at similar times. It is the student’s responsibility to organize his or her schedules to take into account this eventuality. Having multiple exams the same week is NOT considered a legitimate reason to reschedule an exam. Special test dates will be granted only on religious, medical or compassionate grounds, e.g. a death in the family, with appropriate documentation provided. The tests will not be returned to students but can be viewed with your TA during office hours.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in law and society, criminology and health and society.

3170 3.00A (F) HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY

MON. 11:30 – 2:30

Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AS/SC/PSYC 3440 3.00 (before Summer 2002), GL/PSYC 3635 3.00, KINE 3100 3.00, AS/SC/KINE 4050D3.00 or AS/SC/KINE 4710 3.00.

General Description: This course explores the developing role of psychology in the health field. It provides psychological frameworks that elucidate the (non-)practice of health behaviours, the role of stress in illness, adjustment to and coping with illness, and representations of health/illness. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for students in third- and fourth-year health and society.

3170 3.00B (F) HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY

FRI. 11:30 – 2:30

Instructor: J. MILLS
Office: 241 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AS/SC/PSYC 3440 3.00 (before Summer 2002), GL/PSYC 3635 3.00, KINE 3100 3.00, AS/SC/KINE 4050D3.00 or AS/SC/KINE 4710 3.00.

General Description: This course explores the role of psychological factors in the experience of health and illness. We examine research evidence and the need for a biopsychosocial model in order to understand and clinically treat various health problems (e.g., stress, pain, heart disease, obesity).

Requirements: Test I (multiple choice, long answer): 30%
Test II (multiple choice, long answer): 30%
Final Exam (multiple choice, long answer): 40%

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for students in third- and fourth-year health and society.

3250 3.00A (F) NEURAL BASIS OF BEHAVIOUR  (EVENING COURSE)

Instructor: V. GOEL
Office: 332 BSB

MON. 7:00 – 10:00pm

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2240 3.00 or AK/PSYC 3145 3.00.

General Description: This will be an introductory course in the neurophysiological basis of cognitive behaviour. The course will have a bias towards “higher” cognitive functions such as memory, language, and reasoning. We will focus on how the study of the brain can inform and constrain our cognitive and computational theories of these functions.

Requirements: The grades will be determined from three in-class tests, one written assignment and class participation.

Access Specifications: Most spaces will be reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.

3250 3.00M (W) NEURAL BASIS OF BEHAVIOUR

Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA

TUES. 11:30 – 2:30

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2240 3.00 or AK/PSYC 3145 3.00.

General Description: This course surveys issues concerning the development and localization of cerebral functions, and examines experimental and clinical studies illustrating behavioural effects of brain damage. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Access Specifications: Most spaces will be reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.
3260 3.00A (F) COGNITION
(EVENING COURSE)
Instructor: V. GOEL
Office: 332 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3135 3.00, GL/PSYC 3370 3.00.

General Description: This will be a basic course in the cognitive structures and processes involved in perception, memory, language, thinking, reasoning and problem-solving. We will motivate and explicate the cognitive paradigm, discuss data from the various domains and examine the models that have been advanced to account for the data. This section will have a cognitive science bias.

Requirements: The grades will be determined from three in-class tests, one written assignment and class participation.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.

---

3260 3.00B (F) COGNITION
Instructor: N. PARK
Office: 213 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3135 3.00, GL/PSYC 3370 3.00.

General Description: This course will examine a range of cognitive processes and will consider the experimental evidence that has helped to guide the development of theoretical formulations of how people perceive, understand, store, retrieve and act on information. We will examine different conceptualizations of cognition and review experimental evidence from cognitively unimpaired and patient populations. Laboratory and/or classroom demonstrations will be conducted in order to clarify the methods, findings and theories under discussion. During these demonstrations, students will act as research participants and will provide data for analysis. Each session is intended to be interesting, challenging and (we hope) enjoyable for you. In addition, material presented in class—from lectures, films, and research demonstrations—will be included on the exams. It is your responsibility to find out what you missed. Thus, it is to your benefit to come to every class and to borrow notes from a fellow student when you do have to miss a class.

Requirements: There will be two exams: one mid-term during scheduled class sessions and a final exam. The final exam will cover all of the course material. The structure of the exams will be a combination of multiple-choice and short-answer questions. The mid-term counts for 40% and the final counts for 60% of your final grade.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.

THURS. 2:30 – 5:30
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3130 3.00 (before Summer 2002), GL/PSYC 3390 3.00.
General Description: This course will examine a range of memory processes and will consider the experimental evidence that has helped to guide the development of theoretical formulations of how people perceive, understand, store, retrieve and act on information. We will examine different conceptualizations of memory and review experimental evidence from cognitively unimpaired and patient populations. Laboratory and/or classroom demonstrations will be conducted in order to clarify the methods, findings and theories under discussion. During these demonstrations, students will act as research participants and will provide data for analysis.
Class Format: The three-hour class period will encompass some combination of lecture, activities and breaks. Depending on the number of topics covered in a given lecture and the mood of the class, we will sometimes have a single 15-minute break in the middle; other times, there will be two 10-minute breaks. Class attendance is important. Each session is intended to be interesting, challenging and (we hope) enjoyable for you. In addition, material presented in class—from lectures, films and research demonstrations—will be included on the exams. It is your responsibility to find out what you missed. Thus, it is to your benefit to come to every class and to borrow notes from a fellow student when you do have to miss a class.
Requirements: There will be two exams: one mid-term during scheduled class sessions and an exam during the final exam period. The final exam will include all of the term’s work. The structure of the exams will be a combination of multiple-choice and short-answer questions. The mid-term exam counts for 40%, and the final counts for 60% of your final grade.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.
3270 3.00M (W)  SENSATION AND PERCEPTION II

INTERNET

Instructor: L. WILCOX
Office: 0003H LAS

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2220 3.00.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3690 3.00.

General Description: This course continues from and expands on Sensation and Perception I, which covers how we perceive visual and auditory information. Sensation and Perception II provides a more in depth understanding of neural coding of sensory information and covers additional topics such as perceptual development, touch, taste, smell and balance. In all cases we will cover the physiological basis and perceptual experience of the sensory information.

Note that Internet course tests will be written on campus unless arrangements are made with the Office of Computing Technology and e-Learning Services (416-736-5831). All students must activate their Moodle account using their York University email address at http://moodle.yorku.ca. Information and updates regarding the course will be distributed to York email accounts so these should be monitored regularly.

Evaluation: Two midterms (27.5% apiece), participation points (5%) and a cumulative final exam (40%)

Class Format: Internet course, on campus midterms and final exam

Other Information: Students are responsible for accessing the online course to obtain lectures and pertinent course information.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.

3280 3.00A (F) ANIMAL BEHAVIOUR (EVENING COURSE)

Instructor: S. MACDONALD
Office: 296 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: GL/PSYC 3680 3.00, GL/PSYC 3675 3.00.

General Description: In this course you will be introduced to the study of animal behavior using a combination of lectures, video demonstrations and three independent assignments based on naturalistic observations of animals. Lectures will focus on understanding animal behavior from psychological, ecological and evolutionary perspectives. Topics will include social organization and mating systems, parental care, foraging behavior, habitat selection, migration and navigation, learning, communication, and development. Students will also learn how to scientifically observe animal behaviour, with an opportunity to practice the methods used in the field.

Class Format: Lecture meetings, plus independent work on behaviour assignments.

Requirements:

- Written assignments, based on field projects (3) 30%
- Midterm exam (multiple choice format) 35%
- Final exam (multiple choice format) 35%

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in cognitive science.
3290 3.00A (F) PSYCHOLINGUISTICS (cross-listed to LING 3220 3.00)
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
MON. & WED. 11:30 – 1:00pm
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, or LING 1000 6.00.
Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3250 3.00, HH/PSYC 3190 3.00, GL/PSYC 3640, GL/LIN 3640.
General Description: A survey of psycholinguistic research and theory. Topics are chosen from the following: introduction to language structure, biological basis for language, speech perception, sentence processing, speech production, relation of language and thought, language acquisition and atypical language. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for students majoring in either psychology or linguistics.

3290 3.00M (W) PSYCHOLINGUISTICS (cross-listed to LING 3220 3.00)
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
THURS. 8:30 – 11:30am
Prerequisite: 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, or LING 1000 6.00.
Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3250 3.00, HH/PSYC 3190 3.00, GL/PSYC 3640, GL/LIN 3640.
General Description: See the description for PSYC 3290 3.00A (F).
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for students majoring in either psychology or linguistics and some for children studies and cognitive science students.

3310 3.00A (F) PSYCHOLOGY AND LAW
Instructor: R. SCHULLER
Office: 245 BSB
THURS. 8:30 – 11:30am
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3600 3.00.
General Description: The course explores the relationship between psychology and the legal system by examining applications of psychology to legal issues and procedures. Drawing on research from a variety of areas including social psychology, cognition, developmental and clinical, we will look critically at the investigative and trial process – both centre stage and behind the scenes. Many of the legal assumptions about human nature that underlie legal procedures and practices will be scrutinized from a psychological perspective. A variety of topics will be covered including police interrogations and confessions, eyewitness testimony, child witnesses, jury selection and decision making, and sentencing.
Requirements: Final grades will be determined on the basis of a series of multiple-choice/short answer tests and a paper.
Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year majors/minors in psychology, and some for students in third- and fourth-year law and society and criminology.
3310 3.00M (W) PSYCHOLOGY AND LAW

Instructor: R. SCHULLER
Office: 245 BSB

THURS. 11:30 – 2:30

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3600 3.00.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 3310 3.00A (F).

3350 3.00M (W) CULTURAL PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: R. LALONDE
Office: 237 BSB

TUES. 8:30 – 11:30am

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: None.

General Description: This course will address theory, research and methods pertaining to culture and psychology. The course will begin by offering different perspectives on culture and the methodological challenges that researchers face when bringing a cultural level of analysis to human behaviour. The potential role of culture will be examined across a range of psychological areas including perception, cognition, emotion and developmental processes, as well as social and abnormal behaviour.

Class Format: Lecture meetings.

Requirements: There will be two exams and one paper. Both exams will comprise multiple-choice questions as well as short-answer and essay questions. The first exam will be a mid-term and will be worth approximately 35% of the grade. The second exam will be held during the examination period and will be worth 40% of the grade. There will be one course paper (25% of the grade) that will give students the opportunity to explore the meaning of culture within a psychological framework.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors.

SCIENCE STUDENTS: This course cannot be taken for science credit, but it may be taken by BSc and BSc (Honours) candidates for non-science elective and psychology credit.

3410 3.00A (F) EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3350 3.00.

General Description: The application of theories and evidence from psychology to the process of education. Topics include the nature and control of human learning, theories of motivation, development of skills, concept formation, creative and critical thinking and social psychological processes in education. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in education.
3410 3.00M (W) EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3350 3.00.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 3410 3.00A (F).

3420 3.00A (F) EVOLUTIONARY PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: I. SILVERMAN
Office: 367 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3680 3.00.

General Description: This course approaches psychological processes and behaviour from the perspective of both proximate and ultimate causation; i.e. their immediate causes and their adaptive significance in the evolutionary history of the organism. The course will consider the original Darwinian theory of natural selection and subsequent neo-Darwinian formulations and will include both infra-human and human data.

Requirements: Two non-overlapping, equally weighted examinations.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for psychology majors/minors and some for students in science and society.

3420 3.00M (W) EVOLUTIONARY PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: I. SILVERMAN
Office: 367 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3680 3.00.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 3420 3.00A (F).

3450 3.00A (F) ENVIRONMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

TUES. 8:30 – 11:30am

Instructor: D. WIESENTHAL
Office: 288 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

General Description: A survey of issues and research findings in environmental psychology. Topics emphasize the effects of the physical settings created by humans on behaviour and draw material from research in personal space, territoriality, privacy, traffic psychology, urban behaviours and small-group ecology. The material discussed will emphasize the urban environment. A more detailed description will become available the first week of classes.

Requirements: Three non-cumulative examinations will be worth 40%, 40% and 20% of the course grade.

Other Information: Students wishing more information are advised to go to my webpage (http://www.psych.yorku.ca/davidw) for additional information. Please note that my course will change somewhat for the 2012 term.

3495 3.00A (F) NEUROSCIENCE OF AGING AND COGNITIVE HEALTH
Instructor: G. TURNER
Office: 244 BSB
WED. 2:30 – 5:30
Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2240 3.00 or AK/PSYC 3145 3.00.
General Description: This course investigates the neural basis of cognitive changes across the adult lifespan. Students will learn how the brain is altered in structure and function as people age and how these changes impact cognition. The course will examine the border between normal and abnormal aging and how neuroscience research is informing strategies to sustain cognitive health into older adulthood.
Cont’d…
Learning Objectives: Upon completing this course students should be able to:

1. Characterize how cognitive functions change from younger to older adulthood and how these relate to changes in brain structure and function
2. Summarize and critique research associating neural and cognitive changes in aging.
3. Contrast healthy and pathological aging at the level of brain and cognitive functioning (i.e. what brain and/or cognitive changes are consistent with healthy aging and what are indicative of pathological processes).
4. Survey and critically appraise interventions aimed at sustaining cognitive health into older adulthood. Critical appraisal will include the ability to (i) describe the intervention target (ii) review (or propose) a theoretical and neuroscience rationale and (iii) analyze available data addressing the overall effectiveness of the strategy in maintaining cognitive health.

Class Format: This course will be offered in a blended format. Students should be prepared for the fact that anywhere between 30%-80% of the course content and activities will be online. Specific details will be available from the course director closer to the beginning of the term.

Requirements: The final grading scheme will be available from the instructor closer to the beginning of term. The tentative grading scheme for the course includes: (i) a midterm (ii) an integrative final exam covering all materials presented in the course and (iii) a term paper critically appraising an intervention to promote healthy aging. (i.e. a program, product or service).

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors

3500 3.00A (F) DEVELOPMENT IN ADOLESCENCE

Instructor: J. RAWANA
Office: 131 BSB

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2110 3.00.

General Description: Adolescence is a fascinating time from a developmental psychology perspective. This course uses a multidisciplinary approach, and its primary purpose is to provide a comprehensive theoretical understanding of adolescence in contemporary society. First, the fundamental biological, cognitive and social transitions of adolescence will be reviewed. Second, the key contexts of adolescent development will be highlighted, including families, peers, schools, media and work and leisure settings. Finally, the major psychosocial developments of adolescence will be discussed, including identity, autonomy, intimacy, sexuality and mental health issues. Throughout the course, current and classical research findings will be presented, with an emphasis on adolescents in Canada.

Requirements: The final grade is based on two tests and a final exam (each worth approximately 25-30%) that are non-cumulative and cover textbook and lecture materials. Students will also critically apply the material and concepts presented in class in the form of one written assignment that focuses on a topic of interest to the student (20% of the final grade).

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for third- or fourth-year students in criminology and children’s studies.
3520 3.00A (F) INFANCY
Instructor: M. LEGERSTEE
Office: 212 BSB
TUES. 11:30 – 2:30
Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2110 3.00.

General Description: In this course, we will cover the current state of knowledge on various aspects of development during the infancy period—typically considered the first two years of life. Class lectures and discussions will focus on the infant's socio-emotional and socio-cognitive abilities, such as the infants’ awareness of people’s actions and their thoughts. Underlying our topics will be consideration of methodology, empirical evidence and theoretical issues. Further, the role of biological (predispositions; neurological correlates) and experiential mechanisms (such as caregivers' sensitivity/attunement) for the development of infants’ abilities will also be discussed.

Requirements: Two mid-terms, 25% each, and a final exam, 50%

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors and some for third- and fourth-year students in children's studies.

3520 3.00B (F) INFANCY
Instructor: M. LEGERSTEE
Office: 212 BSB
WED. 2:30 – 5:30
Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2110 3.00.

General Description: See the description for PSYC 3520 3.00A (F).

3550 3.00A (F) CREATIVITY
Instructor: I. KUSYSZYN
Office: 235 BSB
FRI. 11:30 – 2:30
Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

General Description: An introduction to the psychological study of creativity including theories of creativity, the processes of creativity, characteristics of creative people, blocks to creativity, the motivation to create, and solving social problems with creative (lateral) thinking tools.

Class Format: One three-hour class meeting weekly.

Requirements: Two multiple-choice and short-answer term tests, 40% and 20%; one project, 37%, for solving a problem in the real world creatively; plus three bonus marks (optional).

Three highly recommended texts:
1) Norton, M. (2006). The everyday activist: 365 ways to change the world. Toronto: Anansi. (Refer to this valuable book to get your Project ideas and save yourself much time.)

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors.

3560 3.00A (F) PSYCHOLOGY OF DEATH AND DYING

MON. 11:30 – 2:30
Instructor: S. FLEMING
Office: 211 BSB

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusions: AK/PSYC 3290 3.00, AK/PSYC 4250 3.00.

General Description: This course allows students the opportunity to discuss a topic that we all contemplate but seldom talk about. Lectures and small-group discussions explore a wide range of issues related to dying, death and grieving, including the development of attitudes toward death, the psychosocial context of dying today, the mental life of the dying person, hospice care, euthanasia, suicide, trauma and adjustment to loss.

Tentative Requirements:
- Essay/project: 30%
- Mid-term examination: 35%
- Final examination: 35%

Please note: There is no course kit to be purchased. All materials for the course can be found on the course Moodle board.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors.

Prerequisite: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion: AK/PSYC 3700B 3.00.

General Description: This course introduces environmental, sociological and ecological perspectives on psychological well-being that differentiate community psychology from the medical model of mental illness. Other topics include stress and coping, prevention, self-help, social support and culture. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year psychology majors/minors.

SCIENCE STUDENTS: This course cannot be taken for science credit, but it may be taken by BSc and BSc (Honours) candidates for non-science elective and psychology credit.
3630 3.00A (F)  PSYCHOLOGY OF THE FAMILY*

MON. 2:30 – 5:30

Instructor:  E. ROSS
Office:  228 BSB

Prerequisite:  PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.

Course Credit Exclusion:  AK/PSYC 3700J 3.00.

General Description:  A study of the family unit, drawing on findings and concepts from the areas of developmental, clinical and social psychology. Research on the social psychology and psychodynamics of the family group is considered. A more detailed description will be available the first week of classes.

Requirements:  The evaluation is two exams, each worth 40% and a short written assignment worth 20%.

Access Specifications:  Most spaces are reserved for third- and fourth-year students who are psychology majors/minors and some for children’s studies.

*SCIENCE STUDENTS:  This course cannot be taken for science credit, but it may be taken by BSc and BSc (Honours) candidates for non-science elective and psychology credit.

3890 6.00 / 3890 3.00 INDEPENDENT STUDY

Prerequisites:  PSYC 1010 6.00, with a minimum grade of C. Students should have completed at least 36 university credits overall.

NOTE:  This course is not accessible online until the student submits a completed and signed Independent Study Agreement Form to the Psychology Undergraduate Office, Room 291/292 Behavioural Science Building, to enrol in this course.

Students may arrange to do an independent study course with a faculty member from one of the two Psychology Departments: HEALTH or GLENDON. This allows students and professors to work in areas of psychology that lie outside the usual course offerings. If you wish to do an independent study course, choose a faculty member with whom you wish to work and contact him or her. A list of all faculty members with their areas of interest is available from the Psychology Undergraduate Office, 291/292 BSB or go to http://www.yorku.ca/health/psychologyhonoursstudent.html and click on Review Faculty areas of interest if seeking a Supervisor under FAQ. Also obtain from the undergraduate studies office a copy of the agreement form and the independent study guidelines. Work out the details of the course with the faculty member, and complete and sign the contract.  Then take the completed contract to 291/292 BSB when enrolment begins in the spring (in accordance with published enrolment dates) or before the last day to enrol in a course with written permission of the course instructor (see the 2012-2013 lecture schedule for the dates). An independent study course may be based on library or empirical research or a combination of the two. An independent study cannot have, as its major focus, a practicum experience in an applied setting. See the independent study guidelines available in 291/292 BSB for more information.

NOTE:  Students may take one full course (6.00 credits) independent study course or two half courses (3.00 credits) in each academic session.

SCIENCE STUDENTS:  Students beginning their BSc prior to September 2012 should note that some topics chosen for the Independent Study PSYC 3890 6.00 (3890 3.00) course may not be eligible for science credit. An abstract indicating the methodology should be submitted by the student to the psychology undergraduate director for confirmation that it will be counted for science credit.

Access Specifications:  NA.
4000-Level Courses

To enrol in 4000-level courses, students must complete their 4000-level course prerequisites and a total of 84 credits. Please read the following information for details.

- All 4000-level psychology courses require the following general prerequisites or substitutes:
  - PSYC 1010 6.00, with a minimum grade of C.
  - PSYC 2030 3.00.
  - PSYC 2021 3.00 or PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutes.
  - Before enrolling in PSYC 4000 6.00, PSYC 4001 6.00, PSYC 4170 6.00 or PSYC 4175 6.00, students must complete a full year of statistics, i.e. PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutions.
  - Before enrolling in PSYC 4001 6.00, students must complete PSYC 3010 3.00 or a substitute course.

Most 4000-level courses require completion of additional 2000-level or 3000-level specific course prerequisites. Students must make sure they have completed the other listed prerequisites, or their enrolment in the course will be cancelled and they may lose their tuition fee. To determine what these other course prerequisites are, please see the 4000-level course descriptions in this supplemental calendar.

NOTE: Students admitted into the Faculty of Health as of F/W 2006 will be required to complete PSYC 2021 3.00 AND PSYC 2030 3.00 or a substitute in order to complete a minor in psychology.

NOTE: PSYC 3010 3.00 Intermediate Research Methods cannot be taken by students who have passed or are taking PSYC 4000 6.00, PSYC 4001 6.00, PSYC 4170 6.00 or PSYC 4175 6.00.

4000 6.00 HONOURS THESIS

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C, and PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutes and PSYC 2030 3.00 or substitutes. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed at least 84 credits (excluding education courses). Not open to special students, or students completing a minor in psychology or students admitted into the Specialized Honours program in Psychology as of September 2008.

Course Credit Exclusions: PSYC 4170 6.00, PSYC 4175 6.00, PSYC 4001 6.00, AK/PSYC 4700 3.00, AK/PSYC 4800 6.00, GL/PSYC 4000 6.00.

NOTE: This course is not accessible to enrol in online until the student submits the completed and signed Honours Thesis Agreement Form (see below) to the Psychology Undergraduate Office, Room 291/292 BSB.

General Description: This course gives students the opportunity to carry out and report an original piece of research under the supervision of a faculty member. The nature of the Honours thesis is described in the Psychology Honours Thesis Manual, available from Room 291/292 BSB or online at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/PsychologyHonoursstudent.html. The thesis project may be empirical, historical or theoretical. The specific terms of the Honours thesis should be worked out with the supervisor. It is the student's responsibility to find a supervisor in the Faculty of Health Psychology Department who is willing to serve as the thesis supervisor. Ideally, these arrangements should be made in the spring or summer preceding the start of classes. When the student and the supervisor have come to an agreement on the subject of the thesis, both must sign the PSYC 4000 6.00 Thesis Agreement Form. When the form is completed and signed, the student should return it to Room 291/292 BSB so that he or she can complete registration.

Students interested in doing an Honours thesis should be seeking an Honours thesis supervisor in the spring before enrolling in PSYC 4000. Those who do not have a supervisor by the start of their enrolment window should complete the psychology Honours student data sheet (available at the back of the Honours student handbook that can be picked up in Room 291/292 or found online at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/PsychologyHonoursstudent.html and submit it to the undergraduate office where it will be kept on file for available faculty to review. Students can also use a copy of the data sheet to distribute to the faculty with whom they are interested in working. Enrolment in the thesis course can be completed in the fall, but every effort should be made to complete the thesis contract by early September, or as soon as possible.

Information sessions for Honours students will be held on Wednesdays from 11:30am to 1:00pm during the 2012-2013 academic year. These sessions will deal with various topics of concern to Honours students who are conducting their thesis or who will be applying to graduate school. Topics include the following: choosing between PSYC 4170 6.00 and PSYC 4000 6.00, writing the GRE, applying for grad school scholarships, writing in APA style, creating a poster etc. In addition, all Honours students should go to http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/PsychologyHonoursstudent.html for tips and web links on the aforementioned topics, as well as information on doing a thesis, the ethics approval process, help with statistics etc. The list of information sessions (and where they are located) is also posted in the Psychology Undergraduate Office in 291/292 BSB.

SCIENCE STUDENTS: Students beginning their BSc prior to September 2012 should note that some topics chosen in the Honours Thesis (PSYC 4000 6.00, PSYC 4001 6.00) and the Advanced Research in Psychology (PSYC 4170 6.00), may not be eligible for science credit. An abstract indicating the methodology should be submitted by the student to the psychology undergraduate director for confirmation that the thesis may be counted for science credit.

Access Specifications: This course is strictly for 4th year honour students with psychology as the major.

4001 6.00A (Y) SPECIALIZED HONOURS THESIS

TUES. 8:30 – 11:30am

Co-ordinators: J. EASTWOOD
Office: 118 BSB

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00; PSYC 2021 3.00 and PSYC 2022 3.00 or PSYC 2020 6.00 (or substitutes); PSYC 3010 3.00; PSYC 3031 3.00.

Note: Students must obtain the written approval of an Honours thesis supervisor before registration is permitted. Forms for this purpose are available in the undergraduate office and must be completed and signed by the student and supervisor before the undergraduate office will give the student access to enrol in this course online.

Other Information: All of the above prerequisites must be completed before enrolling into PSYC 4001 6.00.

Course Credit Exclusions: PSYC 4000 6.00, PSYC 4170 6.00, PSYC 4175 6.00, GL/PSYC 4000 6.00, AK/PSYC 4700 3.00 (before Summer 2002), AK/PSYC 4800 6.00 (before Summer 2002).

General Description: Students carry out an individual piece of psychological research in consultation with a thesis supervisor and write a thesis. Some Honours thesis topics may not be eligible for science (SC) credit. In addition, students attend a seminar course.

Class Format: The seminar component to this course has some mandatory and some non-mandatory components. The mandatory component of the seminar is worth 35% of the final thesis grade. This would comprise attendance at sessions for oral presentations of the thesis proposals of other students, attendance at a session on ethics, presenting the thesis proposal orally and presenting the thesis on poster day.

Cont’d…
4001 6.00A (Y) SPECIALIZED HONOURS THESIS Cont’d…

There will be other non-mandatory components that students can attend or not, e.g. sessions on applying to grad school, writing the GRE, scholarship applications, creating posters, and assistance with experimental methodology, analysis and APA writing style. The learning objectives for the seminar component are to develop understanding of ethics in research, oral presentation skills and critical reading and writing skills.

Requirements: The thesis component is worth 65% of the final grade that will be assigned by the Honours thesis supervisor. The seminar component is worth the other 35% of the grade and will be assigned by the seminar course director. Requirements for the seminar will comprise attendance at sessions for oral presentations of the thesis proposals of other students, as well as a session on ethics. Students are also required to give an oral presentation of their thesis proposal, provide a written draft of their final paper and present their thesis as a poster during the undergraduate thesis poster day.

Textbooks: There is no specified reading list as it changes for each student and topic under study. The only books that students might want access to would be the APA manual and perhaps the SPSS manual. However, these specifications are idiosyncratic for each person running the seminar(s).

Other Information: PSYC 4001 is open only to students who have been accepted into the Specialized Honours program as of September 2008.

The number of contact hours for the thesis component will vary, depending on the research project and the thesis supervisor. The seminar component will meet more regularly in the first term in order to ensure students receive appropriate feedback and guidance on their proposals and introduction and methods, and have access to a seminar on ethics; students will meet less regularly as a group in the second term, when they are actively collecting their data.

Access Information: Only for students who have applied to and been accepted into the revised specialized honours program.

Course Credit Exclusions: PSYC 4060 6.00, AK/PSYC 4210 3.00, GL/PSYC 4250 3.00.

General Description: Overall, the purpose of this course is to gain a comprehensive understanding of major theories of counselling and psychotherapy, through a critical examination of their key concepts, therapeutic goals, and techniques. The core structure will be to examine each approach’s: 1. theory of human functioning; 2. theory of how psychological difficulties occur; 3. the therapeutic goals that the approach sets (the theory of what must change for clients to resolve their difficulties); 4. within therapy tasks or intervention for the therapist to reach therapy goals; and 5. therapy tasks for the client within the approach. Some examination of common factors of psychotherapies and psychotherapy integration will also occur.

Class Format: Seminar

Requirements: Tests and written assignments.

Access Specification: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major.

4080 6.00A (Y)  NEUROPSYCHOLOGY OF ABNORMAL BEHAVIOUR
Instructor:  W. HEINRICHS
Office:  263 BSB
WED. 11:30 – 2:30

Prerequisites:  PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 2240 3.00 and PSYC 3140 3.00. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

General Description:  This course provides an understanding of brain and behaviour with special reference to schizophrenia and a range of neurological and psychiatric disorders. It also provides students with the opportunity to learn basic steps in formulating and presenting in oral and written form a research proposal on a neuropsychological topic with guided consultation from the instructor.

Class Format:  In the fall term, the instructor will take a primary role in lecture-discussions of schizophrenia. The winter term will involve students selecting and developing individual research proposals in their area of interest in neuropsychology and biological psychiatry.

Requirements:  One term test, oral presentation, research sketch and final proposal.

Access Specifications:  Most spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major and some for fourth-year honour students in cognitive science and criminology.

Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

General Description: An examination of the genetic, physiological and anatomical bases of several types of abnormal behaviour. The social, public policy and ethical implications of a neuropsychological view of abnormal behaviour are discussed. A more detailed description will be available the first

Requirements: Two take home exams (15% each), one presentation and paper (total 30%), one team grant assignment (total 30%), participation (10%)

Textbook: Readings are through Moodle.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major and some for fourth-year honour students in cognitive science and criminology.

4080 6.00C (Y) NEUROPSYCHOLOGY OF ABNORMAL BEHAVIOUR
Instructor: C. TILL
Office: 125 BSB

TUES. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 2240 3.00 and PSYC 3140 3.00. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

General Description: The focus of this seminar course is to examine how brain function is affected by a variety of neurological and clinical psychological disorders, and general medical conditions. Students will learn about the neuroanatomical and neurochemical underpinnings of abnormal behaviours associated with both adult and childhood-onset disorders. In addition, various assessment techniques, including clinical neuropsychological evaluation and neuroimaging, will be explored in order to delineate how we have come to understand and treat various clinical disorders. A final component of the course will be an examination of some of the multifaceted ethical and theoretical issues involved in understanding the relation between the brain and behaviour.

Class Format: The course will involve didactic lecture, in-class demonstrations and videos, discussion of case presentations and readings, and student oral presentations. Lectures are designed to stimulate student's interest in the field of clinical neuropsychology and will serve to enrich, clarify, and illustrate critical issues from the assigned readings. My goal is to engage students in the field by interweaving biopsychological theory with real-life clinical examples and sophisticated scientific methods. Supplemental material will be presented in lectures to acquaint students with current issues and debate in the field of neuropsychology and is intended to elaborate on topics covered in the readings.

Requirements: In-class test, two oral presentations, several written assignments, grant proposal

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major and some for fourth-year honour students in cognitive science and criminology.
4120 3.00M (W)  PSYCHOLOGY AND LITERATURE

Instructor: R. MAR

Office: 239 BSB

Wed. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 2120 3.00; PSYC 2120 3.00; one of PSYC 3260 3.00, PSYC 3290 3.00, or PSYC 3410 3.00. Students must be in an Honours Program in Psychology and have completed 14 university courses or 84 credits (Excluding Education Courses).

Course Credit Exclusions: AS/PSYC 4120 6.00 (taken after FW00),

General Description: An exploration of issues involved in the interrelationship of psychology and literature in order to enhance the student’s understanding and appreciation of human behaviour and experience, and of imaginative literature. There will be a focus on empirical scientific research on literature, including work from developmental, cognitive, social and neuroscience approaches.

Class Format: The course will be in a seminar format, with students expected to come prepared every week to participate in discussion based on course readings. Some component of the course discussion may also take place online.

Requirements: Grades will be based solely on written assignments and class participation, with no tests or multiple-choice questions. Weekly response papers will be required, along with two major essay assignments. Writing quality, e.g. grammar and style, will compose part of the evaluation.

Textbook: No textbook will be used. Instead, readings will be provided by the instructor and all will be original sources, including empirical research articles.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major.

*SCIENCE STUDENTS: This course cannot be taken for science credit, but it may be taken by BSc and BSc (Honours) candidates for non-science elective and psychology credit.

4150 6.00A (Y)  RIGOROUS ALTERNATIVES

Instructor: T. TEO

Office: 231 BSB

Wed. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00; PSYC 2021 3.00, PSYC 2020 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes.

General Description: This course provides an introduction to the international movement of critical psychology, which was developed in the context of challenging the mainstream’s ontological, epistemological and ethical-political assumptions, as well as its practices, in order to provide more comprehensive theories and interventions. In the fall term we analyze the various critiques of psychology, including the cultural-historical, postmodern, feminist and postcolonial critique of psychology. In the winter term we focus on concrete alternatives developed by critical psychologists in various sub-disciplines of psychology, including clinical, community, health and personality psychology, and look at critical topics such as globalization, empowerment, subjectivity and resistance.

Class Format: Lectures, seminar presentations, discussions, audiovisual material.

Requirements: Weekly commentaries, presentations, class participation, manuscripts.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major.
PLEASE NOTE: Former Atkinson students majoring in psychology in the Faculty of Health must have completed PSYC 3010 3.00 or a substitute before they can enroll in PSYC 4170 6.00.

General Description: This section is designed to give students the background to plan, execute, analyze and report a study of equivalent standard to an Honours BA thesis. To this end, the course will be conducted in three overlapping phases: 1) a quick refresher course on research methods and analysis; 2) presentation and discussion of individual research proposals; 3) final design of projects, execution, analysis and written report on the proposed research. Students must work collaboratively in teams of at least two students, but will generate their own hypotheses, research design, analyses and associated proposals and final report (thesis).

Requirements:
1) Project proposal (presented in class) 20%
2) SPSS analysis of data and interpretation 5%
3) Class poster presentation of research findings 25%
4) Final written research report 50%

General Description: An advanced research course in which research is conducted in partnership with community agencies and organizations in order to address community partner needs in broad areas within health and social psychology. Students integrate psychological theories and methods with the design, data collection, analysis, presentation and write up of applied research projects. A more detailed description will become available the first week of class.

Class Format: lectures, off-campus data collection

Requirements: Group projects, class presentations, written assignments, poster, final paper.

Other Information: Students will only work on research projects identified by community partners.

NOTE I: It is strongly recommended that students complete PSYC 3010 before enrolling in this course.

NOTE II: Students will need to complete a standard survey prior to being eligible to enroll into this course. Please contact the instructor via email for more information: mhynie@yorku.ca.

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the Major.
4190 3.00A (F) SEMINAR IN HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY

Instructor: F. WILKINSON
Office: 1012D LAS

TUES. 7:00 – 10:00pm

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 3170 3.00. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

Course Credit Exclusion: None.

General Description: The purpose of this seminar is to provide advanced Psychology students with an opportunity to examine in dept current issues in Health Psychology in a seminar format. The course will be based on concepts introduced in the 3000 level Health Psychology course, which is a prerequisite to this course. This year the course will focus on HIV/AIDS using this as a model system for our discussion of psychological issues related to human health and illness as they occur in the context of an epidemic.

Students should be aware that because HIV/AIDS is a sexually transmitted disease, a considerable amount of class discussion will concern a very diverse range of sexual practices. Moreover, the reading material was chosen to give students first person perspectives on HIV/AIDS from the viewpoints of persons with AIDS and those working on the front lines in treating HIV/AIDS. Therefore the material can be disturbing, both in its language and content. The success of a seminar course depends on everyone's willingness to approach the subject matter with an open mind and willingness to examine issues associated with HIV/AIDS in a scientific and non-judgmental fashion.

For this reason, students who will not feel comfortable discussing these topics in a coeducational seminar environment and/or are not interested in this type of exposure to the writings surrounding HIV/AIDS are strongly advised NOT to enroll in this section of the course.

Class format: The weekly meetings will consist of a combination of lecture material about HIV/AIDS, class discussion of the assigned reading material, oral presentations, and training on practical aspects of presentation and term paper preparation. Class attendance is mandatory and will be reflected in the "participation" portion of the grade.

Requirements:

- Midterm: 20%
- Weekly assignments and class participation: 15%
- Book Report: 15%
- Project:
  - Topic Proposal and Bibliography: 5%
  - Class Presentation: 10%
- Term Paper: 35%

Access Specification: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the Major.
4190 3.00M (W) SEMINAR IN HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY           (EVENING COURSE)
WED. 7:00 – 10:00pm

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 3170 3.00. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

Course Credit Exclusion: None.

General Description: This seminar will focus on a single health problem, e.g. HIV/AIDS, cardiovascular disease, cancer, using this as a unifying context to examine the interplay of biological, psychological and social determinants of health status and of health-promoting and health-damaging behaviours. A more detailed description will become available the first week of class.

Access Specification: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the Major.

4220 6.00A (F) THEORIES OF HUMAN NATURE

MON. & WED. 8:30 – 11:30am

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

General Description: This seminar centres on a critical analysis of the concept of human nature. Rather than advocate one particular theory, we will explore the history of several competing interpretations, examining their scientific basis and cultural resonance. What constitutes human nature? Is it the same thing as one’s psychology? Who has had the expertise to speak about human nature? What counts as evidence of human nature? Are questions about human nature scientific or do they more properly belong to another realm of knowledge? This course is the equivalent of a full-year, 6 credit course, but is being taught in a condensed format over the fall semester.

Requirements: Quizzes 20%
Participation 20%
Oral Presentation 20%
Proposal 5%
Paper Draft 1 15%
Paper Draft 2 20%

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the Major.

WED. 2:30 – 5:30

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; Students must have at least one introductory neuroscience or animal physiology course PSYC 2240 3.00, SC/BIOL 3060 3.00, KINE 3650 3.00. Students must be in an Honours Program in Psychology and have completed 14 university courses or 84 credits (Excluding Education Courses).

Corequisites: PSYC 4000 6.00 (KINE or BIOL, thesis equivalent).

Prerequisite or Corequisite: PSYC 3250 3.00, PSYC 3260 3.00, PSYC 3270 3.00, SC/BIOL 4370 3.00, KINE 4500 3.00, KINE 4505 3.00 or equivalent.

Course Credit Exclusion: GS/PSYC 6260 3.00

General Description: The course examines how the brain represents, updates, and transforms spatial information from the senses, primarily vision, into goal-directed movements of the eyes, head, and hand. Classes consist of a combination of lectures followed by journal article discussions and / or formal seminar presentations by students. A more detailed description will be available the first week of class.

NOTE: Admission requires written permission of the course instructor. Preference would be given to students planning to do an honours thesis research project on a topic related to the course.

Access Specification: Some spaces are only reserved for fourth-year honour students with a major in psychology, biology or kinesiology.

4460 6.00A (Y) ATYPICAL DEVELOPMENT
Instructor: TBA
Office: TBA
MON. 4:00 – 7:00pm

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; PSYC 2110 3.00 or AK PSYC 3240 3.00. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

Course Credit Exclusion: GL/PSYC 3510 3.00.

General Description: An examination of psychological problems and disorders of childhood and adolescence including an extensive exploration of their nature, causes, and treatment based on current research. Developmental risks and protective factors will be considered. Students are also required to complete a volunteer (unpaid) placement in children’s settings, such as schools and childhood agencies. A more detailed description will become available when an instructor has been assigned.

Practicum/Case study: Class participants are expected to become involved in a volunteer practicum activity (once per week for about 16 weeks from October to March approximately). This class activity is designed to give students the experience of following one child (anonymously), and studying his or her situation in depth, and then relating it to theories and applications discussed in class. Students may arrange their own volunteer placement, or participate in the course group program. The latter involves volunteering as a mentor to an elementary or middle-school student, in one of three local public schools that are partnering with our program.

Cont’d…
There will be an information session led by the teaching assistant responsible for the practicum coordination early in the academic year, as well as regular discussion meetings with this TA, of which students can avail themselves to maximize their experience. Students are asked to speak to the instructor early in the term to discuss their choice of volunteer setting. There is much flexibility; however, studying the child of friends or family members is not considered an option. Students Please Note: For TBA sections, the method of evaluating the practicum experience will be determined the first week of class when an instructor has been assigned.

NOTE: In order to participate in any volunteer activity involving children, you will be required to obtain a vulnerable persons police check. The practicum coordinator will distribute the application for the permit. This and other practical matters relating to the practicum will be discussed during the first week of class.

Access Specifications: Most spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major and some for fourth-year honour students in education and children’s studies.

4890 6.00 / 4890 3.00 INDEPENDENT STUDY

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 or AK/PSYC 2410 6.00, with a minimum grade of C; PSYC 2030 3.00 or AK/PSYC 2530 3.00 or substitute; one of PSYC 2020 6.00, PSYC 2021 3.00, AK/PSYC 2510 3.00 or substitutes; Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

NOTE: This course is not accessible online until the student submits a completed and signed Independent Study Agreement Form to the Psychology Undergraduate Office, Room 292, Behavioural Science Building, to enrol in this course.

Students may arrange at York to do an independent study with a faculty member from one of the two Psychology Departments: HEALTH and GLENDON. An independent study course allows the student and professor to work on mutual interests that lie outside the usual course offerings. If you wish to do an independent study course, choose a faculty member with whom you wish to work. A list of all faculty members in the Health Psychology Department with their areas of interest is available from the Psychology Undergraduate Office, 291/292 BSB or go to http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/PsychologyHonoursstudent.html and click on Review Faculty areas of interest if seeking a Supervisor under FAQ. Also obtain from the undergraduate office a copy of the agreement form and the independent study guidelines. Work out the details of the course with the faculty member, and then complete and sign the contract. Take the completed contract to 291/292 BSB when enrolment begins in the spring (in accordance with published enrolment dates), but before the last day to enrol in a course with written permission of the course instructor (see the 2012-2013 lecture schedule).

An independent study course may be based on library or empirical research or a combination of the two. Independent study cannot have as its major focus a practicum experience in an applied setting.

See the independent study guidelines, available in 291/292 BSB, for more information.

NOTE: Students may take one full course (6.00 credits) independent study course or two half courses (3.00 credits) in each academic session.

SCIENCE STUDENTS: Students beginning their BSc prior to September 2012 should note that some topics chosen for the Independent Study PSYC 4890 6.00 (4890 3.00) course may not be eligible for science credit. An abstract indicating the methodology should be submitted by the student to the psychology undergraduate director for confirmation that it will be counted for science credit.

Access Specifications: NA.
4891 6.00 / 4891 3.00  APPLIED COMMUNITY/INDUSTRY PROJECT*

Prerequisites: PSYC 1010 6.00 minimum grade of 4.00 (C), one of HH/PSYC 2020 6.00 or substitutes, HH/PSYC 2030 3.00 or substitutes. Students must be in an Honours program in Psychology and have completed 84 credits (excluding education courses).

A project undertaken in a community/industry based setting provides an opportunity for students to explore and elucidate the psychological theories and principles learned in the applied/hands-on setting associated with the topic under study. Students find a site and a person on-site to supervise them, and arrange for a faculty member in Psychology to oversee the project as a co-supervisor.

Learning Objectives:
- Discuss, describe, discover current knowledge on a particular topic in psychology,
- Relate and reflect on this knowledge to the topic in an applied setting.
- Translate psychological theory and principles learned in the readings and apply them to the project or expand upon them.
- Develop communication skills to a range of audiences through written work and/or oral presentations,
- Develop autonomy and professional capacity by learning to work effectively with others

Requirements: (Details of the grade breakdown for the course will need to be agreed upon by the student, community/industry supervisor, and the York faculty member no later than by the beginning of September):

20% of the final grade assigned by the middle of the course for written work that may include but is not limited to a detailed proposal of the project, annotated bibliography, etc.

30% of the final grade due last day of classes for the final project (the nature and content of which to be determined through discussion with the student, applied supervisor, and faculty member).

50% of the final grade for work completed during placement off-site. This component of the grade is to be determined in consultation with the community/industry project supervisor.

Number of contact hours:
Students would be required to commit to 5-10 hours per week of involvement in course-related learning activities at the practicum site for a minimum of 150 hours per 3 credits. This should include a 1 to 2 hour meeting with the community-based supervisor on a weekly basis and a meeting with the internal York co-supervisor every three weeks for a 3 credit course and every six weeks for the 6 credit course.

Note: 1) A completed (signed and approved) Community/Industry Project Application/Contract Form must be submitted to the Undergraduate Office 291/292 BSB in order to enrol. Contracts may be picked up in the undergraduate office. 2) Students may complete a maximum of 6 credits of PSYC 4891 3.00/6.00

Access Specifications: All spaces are reserved for fourth-year honour students with psychology as the major.

*SCIENCE STUDENTS: This course cannot be taken for science credit, but it may be taken by BSc and BSc (Honours) candidates for non-science elective and psychology credit.
PART D: RESOURCES AND STUDENT LIFE

Many resources are available to students, either through the Web or on campus. We have created a frequently asked questions (FAQs) page that provides guidance and direction for finding answers to many different questions, such as where to go for help if you are having difficulty with multiple choice tests, dealing with test anxiety, or transitioning to university level writing. See details at www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/faqs.html. See below for further resources.

Undergraduate Psychology Students Association (UPSA)

The Department of Psychology at York University is the largest one in North America. As a result, our undergraduate program is quite large. A student therefore may feel lost attending first- and second-year classes with large numbers of students. The student-run organization UPSA is dedicated to giving students an opportunity to meet other students and faculty in the program, and to offering members information seminars and academic support to help them succeed. To learn more about UPSA or to join, visit the association office at 126B Calumet College, e-mail UPSA@yorku.ca, or visit the Web site at www.yorku.ca/upsa/UPSA/Home.html

Faculty of Health Student Caucus (FHSC)

The FHSC acts as a unifying body for all the student clubs and organizations within the Faculty of Health. It is a student-led organization representing the students in the faculty, and it also implements activities and events involving the entire university community. Members meet other undergraduates in the faculty, become an integral part of representing their peers through supportive discussions and debates that help determine the future of the faculty’s academic and social environment, and work with other organizations (both in and out of the Faculty of Health) to help develop York’s community. If you would like to become a general member, please visit www.yorku.ca/healthsc to get an application. If you have any questions and/or concerns, e-mail fhscsec@yorku.ca, or drop by the office at 126 Calumet.

Mature Students’ Associations

The Atkinson Centre for Mature and Part-time Students (ACMAPS) was established in 2007. The mandate of the centre includes raising awareness of issues that affect mature and part-time students across the University, leading and facilitating initiatives responding to the needs of these students, and advocating on their behalf. The establishment of ACMAPS confirms York University’s ongoing commitment to welcome and to serve the needs of mature and part-time students across all faculties. Students can visit ACMAPS at 111 Central Square, phone 416-736-5770, or e-mail acmaps@yorku.ca.

York University Mature Students Organization (YUMSO) helps mature students adjust to and enjoy the back-to-school experience, offers mentorship and advice, and provides a communications network. Since the creation of ACMAPS, YUMSO has worked with the centre on events, advocacy, mentoring and more. The organization is located at 113B Vanier College, and queries can be e-mailed to yumso@yorku.ca.
Counselling and Disability Services (CDS)

Services include personal counselling, group development workshops, support and academic accommodation for students with learning, mental health, physical, sensory and medical disabilities. Also available is learning skills training, e.g. how to deal with test anxiety, write multiple choice tests, develop time management skills, develop note-taking skills etc.; see www.yorku.ca/cds/lss/workshops.html for details. The CDS office is at N110, Bennett Centre for Student Services, 416-736-5297. For more information, go to www.yorku.ca/cds/aboutus/.

The Writing Department

Practical instruction is offered in all aspects of writing via individual tutoring, electronic tutoring, drop-in instruction, credit courses, and a number of group workshops that include topics such as major elements of effective essay writing, critical thinking and American Psychological Association style. (See www.yorku.ca/laps/writ/workshops.html for a list of workshops.) The Web site at www.yorku.ca/laps/writ/index.html provides students with up-to-date information about the services provided, and links to writing resources. For general inquiries or to book an appointment, go to S329 Ross Building or call 416-736-5134.

Libraries

The libraries at York University provide resources that include borrowing/renewing privileges and help with research. For details, go to www.library.yorku.ca/ccm/Home/Services/ and follow the appropriate links.

Career Centre

The centre provides workshops and opportunities for students to learn how to build skills and experience, search for jobs, determine career goals etc. For further details, go to Suite 202, McLaughlin College, or call 416-736-5351, e-mail careers@yorku.ca or visit the Web site at www.yorku.ca/careers/students.htm.

Getting Involved in Research

All students interested in getting involved in research can contact individual faculty members to see if they are taking on volunteers. Faculty research interests cover a broad range of theoretical and applied issues in psychology. Please go to www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/research.html and click on the individual research areas to learn more. Students can also be hired for research assistant positions advertised through the Research at York (RAY) program. See sfs.yorku.ca/employment/admin/ray/eligibility.htm for eligibility details.

Petitions

A petition is a formal request for the waiver of a Faculty regulation or deadline. Examples of common petitions are petitioning for a late withdrawal from a course or deferred standing. For further details and contact information please refer to the Faculty of Health website at www.yorku.ca/health/current_students/petitions.html.
