

EXTENSIONS

With a mix of conviviality and play, the Technoscience Salon gathers up scholars, artists, and scientists to rethink the lives and worlds entangled in science and technology.

Extensions :: This year's Salon queries the ontological politics of extensive processes, from ecologies to economies to networks and distribution systems.

THEME :: CARTOGRAPHY

When :: Friday, February 10, 2012, 4-6pm

Presenters :: Katey Anderson (YorkU) and Tina Choi (YorkU)

Location :: Sidney Smith 2098, 100 St. George St., University of Toronto

Nourishment :: Potluck Food

For more about the Technoscience Salon, directions, and a schedule of the year's events, visit technosalon.wordpress.com