

Study Abroad in Mexico or USA

Apply for $5,000 Stipend!

Mexico City

<http://www.uia.mx/>

Fall Semester

Fall Semester

Leon, Guanajuato, Mexico

<http://www.ugto.mx/sitioug/espanol/estructura/index.asp>

Either fall or Spring Semester

LOGO LOYOLA UNIVERSITY
Loyola University, Chicago, USA
Loyola Website

Spring Semester

York University has received a grant from the federal Department of Human Resources and Skills Development to support a trilateral student exchange program. The grant will fund eligible students with an interest in migration issues (Cultural assimilation, Multiculturalism, political-economic factors governing migration. Etc )to study abroad for a semester at one of the 4 partner universities: Universidad Iberoamericana (Mexico city, Mexico), Universidad de Guanajuato (Guanajuato, Mexico), Loyola University (Chicago, USA), and De Paul University (Chicago, USA). Students selected for the program will receive a stipend of $5,000.

You can apply for support if you meet the following criterion:

Meet the admission criterion for exchange student for the host university; including the language requirement.

Be a sophomore or upperclassman.

Be in good academic standing

Willing to complete program application which will involve essay, letters of support and interview

Have an interest in migration studies/issues.

Meet the language requirement of the host school.

Participate in case study research team.

You will be York's Ambassador abroad

Guanajuato in Mexico is a tropical paradise - a 17th century historic site - free from guns, drugs, and violence

For More information Contact:

Dr. Hira Singh

hsingh@yorku.ca