

R. Knight 27.48

You have hung two very large sheets of plastic facing each other with distance d between them, as shown in the figure. By rubbing them with wool and silk you've managed to give one sheet a uniform negative surface charge density $-\sigma$, and the other a uniform positive surface charge density of $+3\sigma$.

What is the electric field vector at points 1, 2, 3 ?

