

January 2012 Academic Orientation

Academic Orientation will help you succeed at York, make friends, and open doors into the many McLaughlin College opportunities available to you. We will introduce you to the academic services, social activities, recreational activities and facilities available to you, both at McLaughlin and throughout the university. We want to help you make connections.

Who's Invited? All students entering the university in January 2012 are especially invited, including transfer and mature students. All new students majoring in the following subjects are McLaughlin College students: Criminology, Global Political Studies, Law & Society, Political Science, Public Administration, Social Science, Sociology, and Work and Labour Studies.

Date: Thursday January 5th, 4 pm - 7 pm

Location: Founders Assembly Hall (152 Founders College), no. 50 on the York Map:
