

Knowing how to get around the library is crucial to success in a university course. We hope this assignment will help you get the tools to you need to find factual information and primary and secondary sources on any research topic. It is due in tutorial on 18 November, 2005; you mark will be incorporated into your tutorial grade. Students must also complete the online academic integrity tutorial by December 2, 2005. The tutorial can be found at: http://www.yorku.ca/tutorial/academic_integrity/

1. Please provide the full bibliographical information (in proper form) and call number of one of the following books:

Joy Parr, Labouring Children OR Viviana Zelizer, Pricing the Priceless Child

2. Please provide the full bibliographical information (in proper form) and call number of a secondary source on a similar topic:

3. Please provide the full bibliographical information (in proper form) and call number of a primary source on a similar topic:

4. Please provide the citation (in proper form) of a scholarly article on a similar topic:

I

5. What was the Keating-Owen Act? When was it enacted? How long did it last?

6. When was Thomas Barnardo born? When did he die? When did he open his first Home?
