

Darwin is best known for the theory of evolution, but much of his research was on the Power of Movement in Plants (1880)

Plant Movement

“Brassica oleracea: circumnutating movement of buried and arched hypocotyl (dimly illuminated from above), traced on horizontal glass during 45 hours. Movement of bead of filament magnified about 25 times”.

GO Green

Plant Biology
SC/BIOL 2010