

CAMPUS ALERT

Toronto, 7 September 2007

Toronto Police Services are currently investigating a report of sexual assault that took place on Friday, 7 September 2007 at Vanier College Residence.

More information will be issued as it becomes available from the police investigation.

In the meantime, Toronto Police Services will have a heightened presence on campus. Until further notice, York Security Services have been significantly increased, including an additional dedicated patrol presence within each residence complex. Staff within the residences will be increased and available around the clock. Additional instruction regarding personal safety measures is also being provided to resident students by Residence Life staff.

All York community members are asked to be vigilant and report any and all suspicious behaviour and to take extra precautions around campus.

York Security Services responds to all community calls for service and can be contacted directly at 416.736.5333
