

Faculty Strengths – Summary of Feedback Received

Education

- Curriculum, Teaching and Learning
- Education Policy, Leadership and Teacher Development
- Social, Philosophical, Historical and Theoretical Studies in Education
- Community Engagement and Social Innovation
- Digital Culture and Technologies in Education

Environmental Studies

- Applied Ecology
- Critical Urban Research and Planning
- Health and Environment
- Environment and Culture
- Environmental Politics, Critical Development Studies and Globalization
- Environmental Policy and Management

Fine Arts

- Social Change and Sustainability
- Place, Culture and Identity (with particular reference to the discourses of globalization as theory, history, production and exhibition)
- Networks, Science and Culture (as expressed in new arts processes and products as cultural applications of digital technology)
- Production and Reflection on Transdisciplinary Arts Practice

Glendon- to be received shortly

Health

- Positive Aging Across the Life Course
- Mental Health
- Diabetes
- Social Determinants of Health
- Neuroscience
- Global Health

Liberal Arts and Professional Studies

- Administrative Studies
- Anthropology
- Equity Studies
- Geography
- Communication Studies
- Digital Humanities
- Scholarship in Literature and Languages
- Critical Health Studies

- Women's Studies
- Economics
- First Nations/Aboriginal and Equity Studies
- Science and Technology Studies
- Labour Studies
- Refugee studies
- Public Policy
- Emergency Management
- Critical management studies (HRM)
- Information Technology (data mining, cloud computing, IT applications innovation)
- International scholarship
- Social Justice
- Innovation in research methodologies and practices
- Recognized Canadian and Global Leaders in: History, Communications & Media Studies, English Language and Literature, Geography, Modern Languages, Linguistics, Economics, Philosophy, Political and International Studies, Sociology (as per QS World Rankings and HESA 2012 Research Rankings).

Libraries

- Digital Humanities
- Scholarly Communication
- Digital Scholarship
- Canadian Documentary Heritage
- Knowledge Organization and Access
- Scholarship of Teaching and Learning

Osgoode

- Legal and Socio-Legal Theory
- Transnational Legal Studies
- Law and Social Justice/Equality
- Business Regulation
- Further areas of historical and emerging strength: Dispute Resolution, Environmental Law, Aboriginal Law, Public International Law, Law and Religion, Legal Theory, Tax Law

Schulich- to be received shortly

Science

- 21st Century Science (Future hires: Quantum Optics, Environmental Biology, Biological and Medicinal Chemistry, Energy Materials)
- Human Interactions Science (Future hires: Applied Mathematical Biology/Medical Imaging, Molecular Neuropharmacology, Molecular Neuroscience, Cellular and Molecular Biology)

Engineering

- Energy, Space, People, Environment: Research Actions for a New Society
- Energy Frontiers: Smart Technologies for the Green Environment
- Connective Media and Social Interactions
- Technologies for Healthier Life
- Intelligent Public Safety and Security Services

DRAFT