

Moving the Agenda Along

WES invites you to attend a stakeholder forum on advancing credential reco

This forum is part of WES' Community Engagement Initiative, and will be an opportunity to explore challenges and innovative solutions related to credential recognition for immigrants. The forum will take place in Toronto on:

Wednesday, March 28, 2012 | 08:30 AM - 12:00 PM | Central YMCA
20 Grosvenor St (College/Yonge)

Keynote speech by Jeffrey Reitz, University of Toronto

Please join us to share your expertise, experiences and perspectives on the continuing and emerging challenges related to credential recognition, and how you see WES' role in addressing these challenges.

Over the past ten years, issues related to international credential recognition have been at the forefront of public policy dialogue in Canada; despite the progress that has been made and the multiple players on these issues, skilled immigrants still face challenges in gaining appropriate employment, and new and under-addressed credential recognition issues have arisen.

WES seeks your participation in Moving the Agenda Along: A WES Stakeholder Forum on Advancing Credential Recognition, which will help assist us in refining our strategic outlook to understand, strategize, and promote good credential recognition practices in the coming years.

Please RSVP to Sophia Lowe: slowe@wes.org by January 31, 2012

*With the following information: Name, Organization/Affiliation, Title, Phone and Email
If you are unable to attend, you are welcome to name an alternate to attend from your organization*

A continental breakfast and refreshments will be served. A couple weeks before the Stakeholder Forum, you will receive the agenda for the morning and a brief summary of the credential recognition challenges and opportunities as well as the questions we will be discussing in assigned breakout sessions.

We look forward to seeing you at the forum.

Sincerely,

Timothy Owen | Director, World Education Services
