

York Convocation

SPRING 2011

The President's Invitation

On behalf of Chancellor McMurtry and myself, I am pleased to invite you and your family to celebrate the 2011 Spring Convocation at York University.

Convocation is the formal recognition of your academic achievements following years of commitment, dedication and hard work. It is also the beginning of what we hope will be your lifelong association with York. At Convocation, you will join a group of more than 240,000 alumni worldwide who share in York's tradition of excellence.

York has come a long way since our founding in 1959. Throughout the years, we have witnessed excellence in the classrooms, new research and discoveries, and extensive service in the community. It is our hope that as the newest ambassadors of this institution, you will share these achievements with the world, ensuring our continued success for generations to come.

The Chancellor and I look forward to congratulating you personally in June.

Mamdouh Shoukri
President and Vice-Chancellor
