

In Memory of Nancy A. Accinelli

Vanier College Productions Endowment

For close to 30 years, Nancy was a passionate supporter of Vanier College Productions (VCP) at York University. A successful amateur company of actors, technicians and multi-talented performers, it was made all the more remarkable through Nancy's tireless efforts. She embraced, wholeheartedly, the company's mission to nurture a love of theatre and all things theatrical in York students. Your gift to the Vanier College Productions Endowment will assure the continued success of VCP and provide a lasting tribute to Nancy's life and legacy.
