

GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ASIAN STUDIES

York Centre for Asian Research, York University

Welcome to the Graduate Diploma in Asian Studies (GDAS) programme.

Through the GDAS experience, you will acquire a broad understanding of contemporary Asian research issues -- valuable academic knowledge and professional experience in Asian Studies that will enhance your Masters or Doctoral degree.

This application form has three sections:

- Section I should be completed and submitted to the GDAS Coordinator when commencing the programme.
- Section II can be completed at the end of the programme or as you fulfill each requirement.
- Section III is to be completed at the end of the programme and submitted to the Diploma Coordinator. Make sure the form is submitted with ample time to be processed before graduation. Check the university's deadlines on the Registrar's website: www.registrar.yorku.ca/.

Any questions, including those concerning deadlines, can be directed to the GDAS Coordinator or the programme administrator at ycar@yorku.ca.
