

Labour Disruption at York News and frequently asked questions listed by areas of interest

Pages below are regularly updated. Check for the latest postings, or see York's daily news bulletins YFile (faculty and staff) and Ylife (students).

- For Collective Bargaining Updates from the University, please visit the Negotiations Update page.
- For information on the status of classes, exams and other academic activities, please go to the York Secretariat's Labour Disruption Information page.
- Students and prospective students seeking more information about the strike should visit the Division of Students Frequently Asked Questions page.
- Faculty and librarians should go to the Strike Policy and Guidelines for Faculty and Librarians presented in FAQ format by the Vice-President Academic & Provost.
- Non-academic staff should visit the Frequently Asked Questions for Staff page.
- Employees represented by CUPE Local 3903 can see these Frequently Asked Questions.
- Research employees can see these Frequently Asked Questions.

Services

- Transit and transportation information is available at the Transportation Services page.
- Hours of operation for food services are posted at the Food Services page.
- Undergraduate students living in residence should see the Frequently Asked Questions and Absence Form posted at the Undergraduate Housing page.
- Graduate students and others living in the York Apartments should see the Frequently Asked Questions posted at the York Apartments page.
- Information about library services is available at the York University Libraries news page.
- Information about inbound deliveries, including couriers, is available at the Procurement Services page.
- Information about parking permits can be found at the Parking Services page.