

SOUTH INDIA

EXQUISITE TEMPLES & TROPICAL LANDSCAPES

November 8 – 19, 2024

Meenakshi Temple,
Madurai

This tour is presented by the alumni associations of the University of Alberta, the University of Saskatchewan, Western University, McGill University, York University, McMaster University, and University of Guelph. All are welcome!

Experience the rich culture of scenic South India through its fascinating art, architecture, and rituals in a slew of World Heritage Sites.

Feast your eyes on lush, tropical landscapes, rice paddies, sugar cane, coconut groves, and colourful villages as you travel along the shores of the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea.

Discover grand temples, testaments to the great cultural opulence left behind by vanished dynasties. Delight in the French colonial vibe of Pondicherry and marvel at the restored courtyard mansions of Chettinad. Immerse yourself in the lush plantations of Periyar and learn to prepare a meal with the freshest of spices.

Savour the culinary traditions of the south; aromatic cuisines with an abundance of fresh vegetables and lightly spiced with influences of the merchants from around the world who came here to trade and left their mark on the regional cuisines.

Delight in luxurious accommodation: a picture-perfect French colonial inn on the Coromandel Coast; a restored heritage mansion deep in the interior; and a resort set in emerald-green rolling hills covered with spice plantations.

Our Route

Detailed Itinerary

Friday, Nov. 8: Arrive Chennai, Transfer to Mahabalipuram

You will be met upon arrival at Chennai Airport and transferred directly to our hotel by the sea in nearby Mahabalipuram (about an hour's drive from the airport.) Most flights arrive in Chennai late at night, so settle in and let the sound of the ocean lull you to sleep.

Overnight: Radisson Blue Resort Temple Bay, Mahabalipuram

Saturday, Nov. 9: Mahabalipuram

Relax this morning in the lush gardens of the resort, take a dip in the meandering outdoor pool, or luxuriate in the spa. This afternoon, after our briefing, we head out to view the collection of archeological wonders nearby: the magnificent 7th century Shore Temple; the massive carved monument of Arjuna's Penance; and the Krishna Madapam, with elaborate carvings of the myth of the god safeguarding villagers and cattle. Enjoy our Welcome dinner together this evening.

Overnight: Radisson Blue Resort Temple Bay, Mahabalipuram

Meals: Breakfast, Welcome Dinner

Sunday, Nov. 10: Along the Coromandel Coast to Pondicherry

Visit Auroville, the utopian "The City of Dawn" built by the flower-power generations of the 1960s. Continue to the former French colony of Pondicherry, which reflects a bohemian-chic feel with quiet cobbled streets lined with mustard-yellow colonial houses. Our resident storyteller accompanies us for a walk along the seaside promenade.

Overnight: Palais de Mahé, Pondicherry

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Shore Temple, Mahabalipuram

Monday, Nov. 11: Explore the capital of French India

Start the day with a walk in the Ville Noir to get a feel for the Franco-Tamil ambience and the restored heritage buildings. Visit the Hindu temple of Manakula Vinayagar, with 40 different forms of Lord Ganesha. Explore on your own, too; 'Pondy' is easy to navigate and there is a huge selection of galleries, museums, and shops to enjoy.

Overnight: Palais de Mahé, Pondicherry

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Tuesday, Nov. 12: Kumbakonam

Head inland today to the birthplace of the great Chola Empire, the remarkable civilization that expanded Hinduism to the banks of the Mekong River. Visit the vast Chidambaram Temple dedicated to Shiva as the lord of dance. The 'new' temples of this incredible space are around 1000 years old; the older part is said to be over 3,500 years old. Continue to the temple town of Kumbakonam. Visit and converse with young monks training as scholars and priests at a Vedic school.

Overnight: Mantra Koodam, Kumbakonam

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Wednesday, Nov. 13: Tanjore, Chettinad

Set off to Chettinad via Tanjore (Thanjavur), where we visit the World Heritage-listed Brihadishwara Temple, one of India's most fascinating temples. Built of 130,000 tons of granite with no binding material and intricately carved with magnificent depictions of temple life of over 1000 years ago, the site is also home to a giant bull carved of stone. Continue to Chettinad, the cultural home of the Chettiar banking and business community, many of whom migrated in the 19th and 20th centuries to Southeast Asia whence they sent back lavish furnishings to outfit their magnificent mansions. We're staying in one of these splendidly restored mansions for two nights.

Overnight: Visalam Hotel, Chettinad

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Brihadeeshwara Temple, a part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site is one of the largest temples in India and is an example of Dravidian architecture during the Chola period. The vimanam (temple tower) is 216 ft (66 m) high and is one of the tallest in the world. The Kumbam (the apex) of the temple is carved out of a single rock and weighs around 80 tons.

Thursday, Nov. 14: Chettinad

The Indian adage has it that “one is lucky to eat like Chettiar”. Food in Chettinad is one of the most distinctive in the country featuring a distinctive set of spices including star anise seed, peppercorns, cinnamon, bay leaves, and nutmeg. We'll have a cooking class this morning and learn to prepare a traditional meal. There's time this afternoon to relax and explore the lost grandeur of this striking village.

Overnight: Visalam Hotel, Chettinad

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Wednesday, Nov. 15: Madurai

Drive west through the Tamil countryside to Madurai (about four hours). The geographical and religious center of Madurai is a massive Hindu temple complex dedicated to Meenakshi, the “fish-eyed goddess.” Its fourteen elongated pyramidal towers swarm with thousands of garishly coloured figures of gods, demons, and animals, while inside priests perform rituals at multiple shrines, and worshipers seeking favors from the gods pay their respects in most unusual ways. It is an extravaganza that spills out into the surrounding streets, where markets sell offerings and other religious paraphernalia, as well as everything else under the sun. This is India – exotic, spiritual, and intriguing.

Overnight: The Gateway Hotel, Madurai

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Thursday, Nov. 16: Across the Western Ghats to Periyar

Today's scenic drive takes us into the hills of Periyar in neighbouring Kerala to our gorgeous resort in the heart of the spice jungle. Our resort's master chefs share their skills with us at an evening cookery class to learn the secrets of traditional Kerala cooking and enter the magical world of Indian spices; what they are, how to use them, combine them, and savour the special magic they bring to foods. Your friends at home will be cardamom green with envy once you return with your new-found secrets! Our resort features a fine ayurvedic facility – this is a wonderful opportunity to enjoy massages and treatments.

Overnight: Spice Village

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Spice Plantation in Periyar

Friday, Nov. 17: Periyar's spice gardens

Visit nearby spice plantations; pepper, cardamom, cloves, and cinnamon are all cultivated here. Tea is another of Periyar's famed exports. The undulating hills of Kumily, a short drive from Periyar, are home to a number of both tea and coffee plantations. We'll visit plantations here today and learn what it's all about from plucking to processing.

Overnight: Spice Village

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Monday, Nov. 18: Kochi

Drive down through the lush green of terraced tea plantations to the edge of the Arabian Sea and the charming town of Kochi. In the city, we'll explore the intriguing mix of ancient mosques, Portuguese houses, a 400-year-old synagogue, the remains of the Raj, and giant fishing nets from China by the waterfront. This evening, we'll marvel at a Kathakali performance, the traditional dance of Kerala, before our celebratory dinner together.

Overnight: Eighth Bastion, Kochi

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Farewell Dinner

Tuesday, Nov. 19: Depart Kochi

The morning is at leisure to do some last-minute shopping before we transfer to the airport for homeward-bound flights. With a little more time available, consider a relaxing stay in Kerala's backwaters on our optional extension. See below for details.

Meals: Breakfast

What to Expect

Joining Instructions

November 8, 2024

This tour begins at Chennai International Airport (airport code: MAA). Travellers arriving on the tour start date will be met on arrival and transferred to our meeting point. This transfer is included in the cost of the tour. When you book the designated pre-trip accommodation with Worldwide Quest, your transfer from the airport to our group hotel on arrival is also included. If you are making your own pre-trip arrangements, this transfer can be provided at additional cost.

November 19, 2024

The tour concludes with a single included transfer to Cochin International Airport (airport code: COK). Please contact us to verify timing of this transfer prior to making any flight arrangements.

Transportation

We will be travelling in a comfortable air-conditioned coach driven by a professional driver. While roads are mostly paved except on rural back roads, there are few divided highways, therefore, we cannot expect to cover distances as quickly as we might in North America. There are a few long driving days, but roadside scenery provides a quintessential Indian experience.

Accommodation

We are staying in a mix of Western style hotels and restored heritage inns:

Radisson Blu Resort Temple Bay is set in 44 acres of lush, landscaped gardens with unparalleled views of the Bay of Bengal. Enjoy the spa, fitness centre, and outdoor pool. Rooms have private balconies to enjoy that view.

Palais de Mahé lies close to the seaside promenade in the centre of Pondicherry. The majestic courtyard, deep verandahs, and period furniture combine South Indian fire and flavour with French intensity and fervour. Rooms are spacious. The pool is delightful.

Mantra Koodam is set in a coconut grove in the countryside of Kumbakonam. Designed to resemble a characteristic Brahmin street, the living spaces are in cottages with large verandahs, ornate teak doors and open-to-air bathrooms. Includes a swimming pool.

Visalam is a favourite hotel set in a heritage house in the centre of the village. Public spaces and rooms are decorated in period style with high ceilings, gleaming floors, and antique furniture. Swimming pool.

Spice Village is set in a spice garden in the cool highlands of Periyar. Modelled on the dwellings of the Manan tribe of the region, the rooms are set in cottages in the splendid grounds. Modern interiors and bathrooms are based on natural materials and local woodcraft. Swimming pool.

Eighth Bastion is located by the sea in the heart of the historic Dutch area of Kochi. Rooms blend contemporary and colonial style mixing clean lines with nautical paintings and Dutch elements. The internal courtyard has a pleasant swimming pool.

Level of Activity: Moderate

A good level of fitness is required to enjoy this trip. You should be able to walk up to three hours at a time over uneven terrain both in rural areas and in crowded cities. In some places, access to temples and forts is only on foot with some steep ascents. Shoes must be removed to enter some temples. Should you have any questions about your ability to take part in this tour, please give us a call.

Weather

We expect sunny skies and lovely warm weather throughout our South India trip. Temperatures will likely range from highs of 30°C to overnight lows of 20°C .

COVID-19 Entry and Travel Requirements
