Definition of a Forecast

A Forecast is an estimation of the financial position of your Division, Faculty, Department or unit at the end of the current fiscal year. It is comprised of the Actual year-to-date Revenue and Expenditures plus an estimation of the Revenue and Expenditures that will incur for the remainder of the current fiscal year. The Forecast is based on a set of assumptions and projections that are made by the Division, Faculty, Department or unit in conjunction with the Finance department and Office of Budgets and Asset Management.

Preparation and Submission

A Financial Forecast should be developed at the Cost Centre level or at the Activity-Time-Location (ATL) level for each Cost Centre. If desired, it can be developed and submitted at the financial roll-up level (Faculty or Department level).

Users who wish to submit the forecast at the financial roll up level can do so by entering the consolidated financial forecast amount in any one Cost Centre that is included in the financial roll up and leave the remaining Cost Centres within the roll-up with zero forecast balances.

Forecast Ledgers

Forecast entries can be uploaded to the following ledgers:

1. Forecast Current or Working (Optional for all areas) - To upload your ongoing forecast (Own departmental/faculty use)
2. Forecast Finance (Mandatory for all areas) –To submit your forecast to Finance and Office of Budgets and Asset Management

Forecast Submission Due Date

Forecast Ledger	Submission date
Forecast Finance Submission (FCASTFIN)	Each faculty/department must submit their forecasts to Finance and Office of Budgets and Asset Management on January 31 each year unless a different date was communicated on the annual Forecast/Budget Call memo. Note: Each faculty/department has the same due date which is set and communicated by the department of Finance and Office of Budgets and Asset Management.
