

Call for Presentations!

“Beyond the Interface: Critical Perspectives of Sex Work and Sextech”

This conference seeks to bring together scholars, activists, artists, sex workers, frontline organizations, sextech professionals, and sexual technology users, to critically examine the multifaceted relationships between technology, sexuality, commerce, and society.

Proposals/Abstracts are due June 30th, 2024

Please email them to kcherri@yorku.ca
The virtual conference will take place in October 2024
(exact dates TBD)

The Centre for Feminist Research's Critical Trafficking and Sex Work Cluster at York University is hosting a virtual conference

Conference themes and panel categories:

- 1) Legal and Ethical Perspectives of Sextech and Sex Work
- 2) Representation and Inclusivity in Virtual Spaces
- 3) Neoliberal Globalization, Colonialism, and Digital Realms
- 4) Wellness and Safety in Virtual Spaces
- 5) Technological Innovation and Social Change

We invite everyone to submit a 300-word abstract/description which includes:

- The title of your proposed presentation
- Its relevance to the conference themes
- Potential contributions to the discourse

Please also send a 100-word bio of each presenter, and indicate which category best reflects your proposed presentation

Please send abstracts to kcherri@yorku.ca by June 30, 2024

This Zoom conference is 100% free to attend and participate in. In lieu of conference registration fees, we encourage you to donate generously to sex worker-led organizations