

HartHouse

HART HOUSE
SOCIAL JUSTICE
COMMITTEE

GLOBAL AUSTERITY, ACCESS TO THE CITY & CITIZENSHIP

TUE JAN 31

4PM-6PM

Hart House Debates Room

This multidisciplinary panel will examine a myriad of social justice issues facing the city, including austerity; income inequality; gentrification; access to the city and public spaces; forms of resistance; and future prospects for citizenship in unstable economic times. The panel will examine these issues in the broader context of global austerity, while also taking note of local particularities and manifestations.

Refreshments will be served.

Tuesday, January 31, 2012

4:00- 6:00 p.m

Hart House Debates Room.

Please RSVP by sending an email to hhsocialjustice@gmail.com

Join us for a thoughtful discussion on global austerity, access to the city and citizenship.

Moderated by:

Frank Cunningham (Emeritus Professor, Philosophy & Political Science, U of T).

Panelists:

- David Hulchanski (Professor & Associate Director for Research, Cities Centre, U of T).
- Roger Keil (Professor & Director, The City Institute, York University).
- Margaret Kohn (Associate Professor, Political Science, U of T).
- Jayme Turney (Executive Director, Toronto Public Space Initiative).

WWW.HARTHOUSE.CA

HartHouse

*Elevators are located to the right of the Hart House reception (hub) and should be taken to the Debates Room, which is located on the second floor.