

Student Advisor

Is this the career path for you?

What is a Student Advisor?

A student advisor is someone who gives academic help to students.

They provide a support system for the students of the school they are working in.

Skills / Aptitude Needed

- People Person
- Work Well in a Group
- Willingness to Solve Problems
- Extrovert
- Ability to Meet Deadlines
- Time Management
- Problem Solving
- Willingness to Help Others

Pathway

1. Get involved in extracurricular activities centered around student leadership within school
2. Complete a bachelor's degree in virtually any career
3. Look for career opportunities available within the extracurricular programs

The most important thing emphasized by Student Advisors is to get involved in your University and take advantage of the programs offered to you!