

PATH TO BEING A UNIVERSITY STUDENT RECRUITMENT

01

WHAT IS A UNIVERSITY STUDENT RECRUITER?

- A person who recruits secondary students (either domestically or internationally) to pursue a post-secondary education at the university they are working for

02

IDENTIFYING THE NEEDED SKILLS

- Extroverted/people-oriented
- Having the ability to multitask/balance multiple projects
- Problem-solving/adaptability

03

BENEFITS OF PARTAKING THIS CAREER

- Getting to meet a variety of people from different backgrounds and ages
- Having real conversations with students and helping them forge their path for the future

04

WHAT THE CAREER ENTAILS

- Outreaching to teachers, students, and parents and trying to get them interested in university programs

05

NEEDED QUALIFICATIONS

- Actually having previously attended the university you are recruiting people for
- Someone who can present, talk to people, and have travelled before

06

REFLECTING ON YOUR INTERESTS

- Do you enjoy talking to people on a daily basis?
- Do you enjoy travelling and constantly working in different environments?
- Are you able to multitask and adapt to situations quickly?

PATH TO BEING A UNIVERSITY STUDENT RECRUITMENT

07

CHALLENGES UNIVERSITY RECRUITERS FACE

- Extremely time consuming during peak seasons (March)
- Constantly changing work locations, and schools to recruit
- A lot of time on the job is spent preparing for peak seasons

08

DAY TO DAY SCHEDULE

- Emailing, answering emails always on the phone, dealing with admission teams and trying to get students into University programs, wrapping up old trips and planning new trips

09

OPPORTUNITIES WITHIN UNIVERSITY RECRUITMENT

- Travelling abroad, in order to seek recruitment
- Rising through promotional ranks and positions IE. Director of recruitment

10

WHAT POTENTIAL CANDIDATES SHOULD KNOW

- You don't need to be an expert in any specific field
- Must be willing to seek out further opportunities within university recruitment
- It can be very rewarding if you have a great perspective beyond the job and look at it as the experience

