

Roles of an Elementary School Teacher

- Creating lesson plans
- Grading homework
- Grading tests/assignments
- Answering questions
- Relationship building
- More than just an educator: medic, mother, nurse (anything students need you to be for them)

Is Teaching the job for you?

- Do you like working with children?
- Are you a life-long learner?
- Do you thrive in positions of power?
- Are you flexible?
- Do you like to foster skills in others?
- Are you comfortable dealing with difficult children?
- Do you have a passion for teaching academics?

If you answered yes to all these questions teaching may be the career for you!

Elementary
School
Teacher

The Teacher

An elementary school teacher is an educator, but also a second role model for many students. This position allows students/children to learn new skills and knowledge throughout the classroom

SKILLS

- Communication
- Problem solving skills
- Time management
- Interpersonal skills
- Empathetic & Patient
- Collaborative
- Organized
- Professional

APTITUDES

- Being able to adapt daily schedules or lessons to best fit students needs
- Being a team player
- Caring about students as individuals rather than as a whole group
- Being attentive
- Boosting the confidence and success of others around them
- A leader

“

Whatever you do will be amazing

QUALIFICATIONS

To be an Elementary School Teacher in Ontario, you will need the following:

- A 3 or 4 year post secondary undergraduate degree.
- A degree in education, such as a Bachelors of Education.
- An Ontario Training Certificate from the Ontario College of Teachers.

Pathway To Elementary School Teaching

Undergraduate Degree

Teachers College

Supply Teaching

Full Time Teacher!

