

Librarian Roadmap

Volunteer & Job Shadow

Observe and learn about the profession from the experts themselves.

3 Months / Years

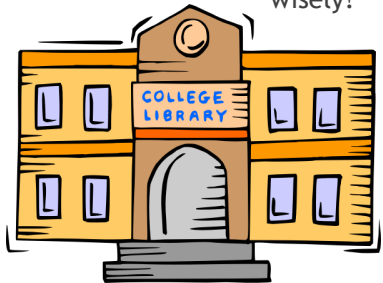

Milestone

Undergraduate Degree

Your choice in future specialization is highly motivated by your bachelor's degree subject matter. Choose wisely!

English, History, Health Studies

3/4 Years

Masters Degree

Library & Information Science Offered in many Canadian Universities

1/2 Years

Milestone

McGill, UofT, UBC, Dalhousie

Job Search

Finding a job could be difficult as there are many tenured librarians in the profession

Public, Academic, Health & Business

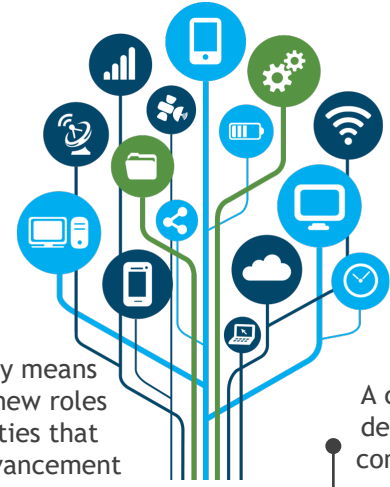

American Library Association (ALA)

Accreditation by the ALA is required for most Canadian jobs

Career Movements

Growing Industry means there are many new roles and responsibilities that aide in career advancement

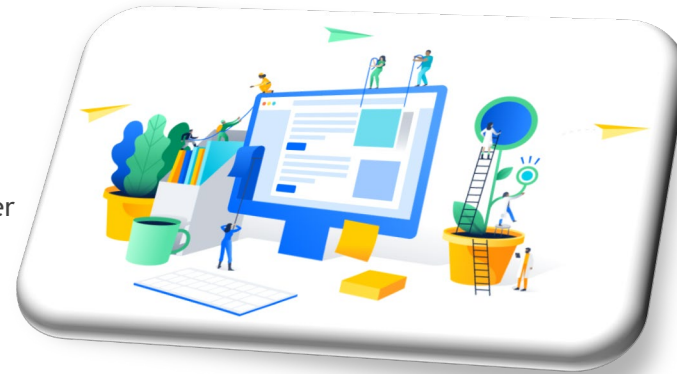

Licensing & Content Development

Teaching & Learning

Archives & Data Communication

Professional Development

Continuing Education and Specializations are encouraged to create better opportunities for subject matter expert.

Tenure

A continuous appointment defined as an institutional commitment to permanent employment

Milestone

Job Satisfaction

Continuing to work at one's craft and finding the joy in your work is still the utmost important

