

CRITICAL SPIRITUALITY

Welcome to the critical spirituality in leadership podcast as part of the unleading project. My name is Dr. Vidya Shah at York University, and I will be moderating this panel with a wonderful group of people. In it, we explore ideas such as:

- a) Engaging in a consistent practice of embracing the inner life, healing and critical self-reflection
- b) Walking students, families and ourselves home
- c) Embracing the whole self as human becomings (not simply human beings) that are fluid and multiple in nature, disrupting false logics of binaries
- d) Centering love and reframing leadership as stewardship and service
- e) Holding tensions, paradox, and interconnections, with all of the complexities and complicities of the ego

For more information about the podcast and our panelists, please check out the unleading website. Come join us for this beautiful conversation as we sit in the possibilities of coming home to ourselves.
