

DECOLONIZING

Welcome to the decolonizing and uncolonizing leadership podcast as part of the unleading project. My name is Dr. Vidya Shah at York University, and I will be moderating this panel with a fantastic group of people. As we dive into this topic, we recognize the necessary tensions and complications of what it means to decolonize.

In this podcast, we explore ideas such as:

- a) Connecting to the land, creatures, ancestors, and future generations
- b) Creating and recreating Community
- c) Leading with head and heart and centering love and healing in education
- d) Engaging practices of interconnectedness and relational accountability
- e) Restoring our capacity to lead
