

Dean Ron Owston Award

The Dean Ron Owston Award will be granted annually to one student enrolled in the BA Educational Studies Program and one student in the Master of Leadership and Community Engagement in the Faculty of Education with an award valued at $500.00 each. The awards will be granted to domestic or international students who, during their first year have a minimum 7.5 or A average and demonstrate financial need. The undergraduate award will be adjudicated by the Faculty of Education awards committee and the graduate award will be adjudicated by the Graduate Program in the Faculty of Education.

The BA in Educational Studies and the Master of Leadership and Community Engagement programs were established by University Professor Dr. Ron Owston under his leadership as Dean of the Faculty of Education. A pioneer in teaching, learning, and research on the internet since its early days, he also was founding Director of the Institute for Research in Learning Technologies.
