

Disability, music education, and adaptive workshops

Diane Kolin, PhD student in Musicology

Watch the video

Problem:

There is a lack of learning opportunities for music students with disabilities.

Proposed solution:

Coordination and animation of adaptive workshops in a music school, for students with and without disabilities.

Result and feedback:

Students and teachers enjoyed the experience. More adaptive workshops are already organized.

