

Doors Open Toronto

During Doors Open Toronto, which took place on May 25th and 26th, 2019 members of the public had an opportunity to explore the Schulich School of Business' newest building, the Rob & Cheryl McEwen Graduate Study and Research Building, as well as the Bergeron Centre for Engineering Excellence.

During the two-day event, more than 300 people visited campus to explore the two buildings.

