

Jane's Walk

York University participated in Jane's Walk 2019 with a walk through campus entitled, Walking Indigenous Pasts, Presents and Futures. The walk was led by Yann Allard-Tremblay, Ruth Koleszar-Green, Alan Corbiere, Lance Morrison, Anders Sandberg, Jesse Thistle, Lisa Myers, and Randy Pitawanakwat. – together with the Centre for Aboriginal Student Services, the Indigenous Advisor to the President, Community Engagement, Community Relations, and the Faculty of Environmental Studies.

The walk was intended to support reflection on the responsibilities of being in the treaty territory known as the Dish with One Spoon. Throughout the tour, initiatives were highlighted that intend to strengthen Indigenous presence, visibility and engagement on campus.