Social Procurement

York University's Social Procurement Policy leverages the significant buying power of the university to benefit local economies by providing additional access to underrepresented businesses and communities to its procurement process.

The Social Procurement Policy reinforces York's vision and role as an anchor institution to create a responsible and sustainable supply chain process.
