MAKE YOUR MARK.
CHANGE THE WORLD.
WELCOME TO GLENDON.
There are various ways to discover Glendon Campus along with this handbook – you can read it as a complement to its digital version here.

You can discover our campus in this video or check out our upcoming events.

Easily connect with a current student in the field that interests you through our Glendon Virtual Network. Students that cover all of our undergraduate programs are available to tell you about their experience at Glendon.

STATEMENT OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TRADITIONAL LAND
We recognize that many Indigenous nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. Glendon as part of York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.
York University’s Glendon Campus is located on 35 hectares of uniquely protected land. This Glendon forest grows on a designated historic site protected by the Toronto and Region Conservation Authority. We are proud to act as responsible stewards of the land and safeguard it for future generations.
Smart and mighty

30+ student clubs to choose from and many more at Keele, our sister campus. At Glendon, you bring your passions and share them with others. You can create your own club from anime to gaming, fashion and the environment!

Our entirely renovated Glendon Athletic Club was the first practice gym of the Toronto Raptors.

26 students per class on average—which means an easier transition to university and the opportunity to have meaningful discussions with your profs.
Alumni with impact

Anaïs Dagrou, who completed a B.A. in Political Science at Glendon, is deeply involved in supporting women’s emancipation and children’s rights in Côte d’Ivoire, her native country. Former President of the Glendon African Network, Anaïs was named among the “Top 100 Black Women to Watch in 2020 in Canada”.

Nicole Doray is an environmental champion and has researched integration of AI, blockchain, and other technologies for environmental and social benefit. She was recognized as one of York University Alumni’s Top 30 Changemakers Under 30 and was selected as a Canadian delegate to the 2021 The World Bank Youth Summit on Resilient Recovery for People and Planet.

York is ranked 6th best comprehensive university in Canada according to the MacLean’s annual university rankings.

York is among the Top 100 best universities in the world according to the Times Higher Education 2021 Global Impact Rankings.
This handbook is designed to help you start thinking about the university experience that’s right for you. Explore the unique programs and features Glendon has to offer, and take some notes on what you discover.
At Glendon, we are proud to offer a personalized experience. This means that at our campus, you’ll be more than a number. In our small classes, you’ll make meaningful connections with peers, faculty and staff who have your well-being and success at heart. It’s in our nature.
Your Cheat Sheet to Help You Make A Smart Choice

TRANSLATION, INTERPRETATION & LANGUAGES

Studying languages and linguistics in particular gives you a solid background in critical and creative thinking, and organizational and leadership skills. These sought-after competencies can lead to careers in translation, interpretation, immigration, international diplomacy, mediation, media, journalism, editing, non-profit management, human rights advocacy, international development, foreign service, public policy, speech writing, speech pathology and audiology.

We are recognized for the depth and excellence of our language learning programs, from a wide array of majors and certificates, all the way to our doctorate in French studies.

EDUCATION

Do you love to share your knowledge and help others learn and grow? A career in Education may be right for you. Glendon is ideally suited to prepare you to teach French as a second language. Enrolling in the concurrent BEd program at York’s Keele campus while doing a BA or BSc at Glendon is also a great way to prepare you for a career in education. Looking to work as a principal, librarian, corporate trainer or community educator? Check out Glendon’s recognized programs.
COMMUNICATIONS, CULTURE & THE ARTS

Whether you’re interested in advertising, journalism, marketing, public relations, publishing or if you have a passion for making connections, you’re in the right place! Glendon’s bilingual Communications program, one of a kind in Canada, prepares you to tackle the many challenges organizations face when communications break down — a vital skill in our über-connected, global world. If this describes you, one of these programs may suit you best.

If you’re looking to make connections between cultures and improve the way individuals, organizations, markets and world regions communicate with one another, you may be looking for a career in translation, interpretation, immigration, international diplomacy, mediation, human rights advocacy, museum or gallery curation, international development, foreign policy, speech writing, neurolinguistics, or speech pathology and audiology. And we have recognized programs to get you there.

Creators are born communicators and express their ideas through their craft, art, emotions and original thinking. Our Drama & Creative Arts program leads our graduates to careers as art teachers, museum professionals, arts administrators, professional artists, actors, directors, curators, drama teachers, designers, technicians, community arts professionals, stage managers, and more.

Our immersive programs are designed to give you the expertise you need to succeed. You will develop a well-rounded academic base, plus sought-after skills – critical thinking, research and communications – that are prized in today’s global job market. Glendon is the ONLY university campus in Canada to offer bilingual or trilingual International Bachelor degrees across all programs.
Business Economics
Come learn about economic theory and its application to business analysis. You’ll consider questions such as why some companies are more successful than others, which industries will be growing fastest over the next years, and whether investors should move their money from debt to equity. All while building connections in Toronto – the economic engine of our country!

TIM BOUNITCH BA 2021 – FINANCIAL SERVICES
“While doing my degree in Business Economics, I discovered a passion for finance and data science. I loved the diversity of courses the program offered me. Thanks to the small class sizes, I was able to interact directly with professors, which allowed me to connect what was taught in lectures to real-world applications.”

History for today’s world
How does our understanding of history help us build imaginary worlds as seen in Assassin’s Creed and Bridgerton? Learn from award-winning professors in Canadian, European and Latin American history. We’ve also added engaging new courses in African history with the arrival of professor Rose Ndengue – an expert on African decolonization and Black feminism. Interested in practical experiences at institutions such as the Aga Khan Museum and the City of Toronto Archives? Consider our Certificate in Public History.

MAIA FOSTER-SANCHEZ BA 2016 – MULTIMEDIA AND EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT
“As I move into research and policy roles, I am glad I studied history because it taught me essential analytical skills, to always corroborate my sources and to be reflective.”

Get practical in Cognitive Neuropsychology
Earn valuable hands-on experience with the Cognitive Neuropsychology stream, now proudly offered within the Glendon Psychology program. You’ll study with top experts specialized in dementia and Alzheimer’s disease research. The program coordinates practical research opportunities with affiliated hospitals and health centres.

ANA BADAL BSC 2021 – COMMUNITY CARE
“During my student journey, I have found a passion for neuropsychology, psychobiology, and clinical research. Luckily, I was able to gain support from my professors and mentors and further this interest of mine through the neuropsychology concentration directed by Dr. Guy Proulx.”

Earn a dual degree – International Studies & emlyon Business School (France)
Get the chance to study for two years in Glendon’s flagship International Studies program, followed by two years at France’s #1 business incubator, the emlyon Business School. This program lets you combine a business education with a liberal arts background, enhanced by Glendon’s trademark excellence in French-language training and international experience.

MELISSA CARDONA 4TH YEAR STUDENT
“I participated in the GENIAL entrepreneurship program during my first year where I had the chance to launch my own business. In my third year I returned as the coordinator of the program to help mentor other students with their business ideas. I even won a pitch competition that was judged by real investors and entrepreneurs! This is something that really stood out in my university experience.”
All Glendon programs include hands-on learning opportunities that help enhance your studies and drive your success. Internships are possible for all students in all programs to boost career readiness. Leverage practical opportunities in the Greater Toronto community and have a positive impact on the world.

Hands-On Learning: Drive Your Own Research
Glendon is vibrant with research. You get lots of freedom to collaborate and explore your fields of interest, throughout your undergraduate studies.

Glendon’s Top Scholars program offers high-achieving incoming students the opportunity to start their own hands-on research projects immediately in their first year. In their upper years, students continue to receive mentorship and guidance from faculty through our Research Apprenticeship Program and G21 Research Incubator.

ANMOL, TOP SCHOLAR AND RESEARCH APPRENTICE
STUDENT IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, ALSO PURSUING A CERTIFICATE IN LAW & SOCIAL THOUGHT

“I got to do research with Professor Clara Chapdelaine-Feliciati, an international lawyer who has worked with the United Nations and focuses on women’s rights. It was just the perfect fit for me because I want to go into international law and eventually go to law school with my degree!”
Hands-On Learning: Build Your Skills

Career and Skills Development Centre
Our Centre helps students and alumni navigate career options, skills development and hands-on education opportunities. We support you with grad school prep, finding and applying to jobs, writing résumés and cover letters, interviewing and networking.

There are more than 16,800 experiential education opportunities at York University, across both Keele and Glendon campuses!

GLENDON DIGITAL MEDIA LAB
Access cutting-edge tech equipment and explore your creativity and talent through extracurricular digital media projects and workshops.

STUDY ABROAD
At Glendon, three times more students participate in international exchanges than the national average, and we have more than 300 international partnerships that reflect our own diversity. Prepare for a global career through these study-abroad opportunities and global internships. We also offer internationally-based courses in France, the Netherlands, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, Mexico, Spain, the United States and at our EcoCampus in Costa Rica, that are often available in the summer.

GENIAL
Join Glendon entrepreneuriat et innovation à l’international, or GENIAL, a bilingual training program, for its online resources, workshops, conferences, business model competitions, incubation program and other learning opportunities.

LANGUAGE CENTRES
Our Language Training Centre for Studies in French and Spanish Resource Centre exist to enable you to become a more efficient and effective learner of French or Spanish through proven effective methods, practice and workshops in each language.
PROGRAMS THAT HELP YOU GO PLACES

Your program is your place to grow, gain experience and build your network during university. Glendon programs equip you with the skills you need to advance your professional life in a rapidly changing world. You’ll become a versatile, empowered and inspired graduate.

Law school

KRISTEN, CANADIAN STUDIES AND WOMEN’S STUDIES, 2011

“I wanted to go to law school and the courses were just so incredible. I remember taking Popular Trials and covering these trials that changed the landscape of Canadian law and thinking “Wow!” It was so affirming of my decision to go to law school and it put me head and shoulders above the other kids in my class when I made it to law school, so that [Law and Social Thought] certificate program was very unique.”
Transferable skills make for interesting career paths as seen by these 10 recent graduates who followed their passions.

FOLLOW THE GLENDON–SCHULICH 4+1 PATHWAY
To help prepare you for management roles, Glendon has partnered with York University’s Schulich School of Business to offer the 4+1 Pathway to Master of Management (MMgt). High-achieving students can build on their four-year undergraduate program of choice with the one-year MMgt degree, which provides a solid base in management fundamentals.

Gabrielle, Communications, 2019 and MMGT Schulich, 2020
Strategic Communications and Community Engagement, Glendon Campus

“A former global brand ambassador and model, I am now thrilled to be a brand architect.”
YOUR LANGUAGE ADVANTAGE

Glendon is a leader in bilingual teaching and research in Toronto.

If you’re looking to impact the world through a global career, knowing several languages can be a significant advantage. In this interconnected and rapidly changing world, there is an increased need for a multilingual workforce and the ability to conduct business in more than one language is becoming critical. Bilingual people often hold higher positions and earn more money than monolinguals in the same industry.
Knowledge of both English and French is not an admission requirement for most of our programs, provided you are proficient in one of them. Our goal is to help you reach an intermediate level of proficiency in a second official language by graduation, even with little to no experience at the start.

We bust some myths about bilingualism at Glendon.

MARCOS, FRENCH STUDIES

“Since starting at Glendon, I have enjoyed the benefits of a bilingual campus. I had opportunities to improve my French proficiency, which helped me realize how much more I could achieve with the knowledge of a second language. Profs, academic advisors and fellow students at Glendon want you to succeed and are here to help.”
YOUR LANGUAGE ADVANTAGE

AIDAN, CANADIAN STUDIES, 2016
“I am from a French-Canadian background and unfortunately the language learning skipped a generation. My father never learned it, so he was never able to teach me. I came to Glendon and I really wanted to learn French to reclaim my language. By fourth year, I was able to take all my courses in French!”

AIDAN’S PATHWAY
From Guelph, Ontario & Core French Until Grade 12

Enrolled in Canadian Studies

Took Français langue seconde (FLS) in 1st year

Started taking some program courses in French in 2nd year + attended Salon Francophone

By 4th year was taking all program courses in French

Graduated with Bilingual BA and a Certificate of Bilingualism

Has worked bilingually in insurance, higher education and hospitality since graduating.
MARA, INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
“I really enjoy walking down the halls or attending events and hearing just as much French being spoken as I do hear English. Being bilingual is a skill that I value greatly. My goal is to work for the Government of Canada in Global Affairs and I know that being bilingual with French will be essential to my success. It is also a lot of fun to learn a second language and it has opened up a whole new world of opportunities for me!”

MARA’S PATHWAY
From Toronto, Ontario & French Immersion up to Grade 12
Enrolled in International Studies
Took Français langue seconde (FLS) in 1st year
Started taking some program courses in French in 2nd year, including a French Experiential Education course and got a Work-study position on campus
In 3rd year is taking more program courses in French, continuing with a Work-study position on campus and going on an exchange to France
Expected to graduate with a Bilingual iBA in International Studies with a Certificate of Bilingualism
Aims to work bilingually for the Government of Canada

Earning a bilingual degree is easier than you think and will make you stand out on the job market.
Being in charge of your own finances is new for many first-year students, so here is a quick guide to help you get a sense of what you’ll spend, as well as ways to fund your studies, through awards and other financial aid, student loans and working on or off campus. Let’s start with making a budget.
SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES

EXCITING NEWS! York entrance awards are now renewable every year for admission averages of 80% + AND CEGEP students are now eligible for the automatic entrance scholarships.

SOURCES OF FUNDING
First, identify where you will get money from.

| Personal savings                        | $ |
| Income during the school year          |   |
| Family contribution (RESP funds, etc.) |   |
| Scholarships and bursaries              |   |
| Government financial aid and/or student loans (OSAP, AFE Québec, etc.) |   |
| Government assistance (CPP benefits, ODSP, etc.) |   |
| Other loans (line of credit, private loan, etc.) |   |
| Other resources                        |   |

TOTAL SOURCES OF FUNDING:

YEARLY COSTS
Then identify the costs you’ll have to pay throughout the year. Some are fixed yearly costs, and some are monthly.

| Course (tuition) fees (full-time course load of 30 credits) | $6,913* |
| Books, equipment and school supplies (estimate, may vary) | $1,500  |
| Residence (8 room-size options) | $6,724-$10,253* |
| Meal plan (4 options) | $3,750– $5,500* |
| Health (insurance) plan | $254* |

TOTAL FIXED COSTS:

MONTHLY COSTS
Multiply each item by 8 for the 8 months you’ll be in school.

| Rent |   |
| Utilities (phone, laundry, etc.) |   |
| Personal spending (toiletries, entertainment, etc.) |   |
| Transportation (public transport, trips home, car payments, etc.) |   |
| Food (groceries, eating out, snacks, etc.) |   |

TOTAL MONTHLY COSTS:

*These fixed costs are undergraduate yearly costs based on Fall/Winter 2020–2021 and are subject to change.

Now, take your total funding sources, and subtract your total fixed and monthly costs. Coming up with a positive number? Great, you’ve got enough resources to cover your school and personal expenses. Do you have a negative number? This means you won’t have enough resources to cover your costs. You will need to revisit your budget and check out the funding opportunities Glendon offers. See our Scholarship and Bursary information above.
LIFE IN RESIDENCE

If you are new to the city and want to live in a safe, supportive and welcoming environment, consider applying to live in a Glendon residence.

Located steps away from our residences, it is open to the entire Glendon and surrounding community.
BECOME PART OF OUR COMMUNITY

Glendon is home to a welcoming, connected, global community of students who take pride in sharing in one another’s cultures and languages. We help you make sure that your first year transition is as easy as possible.

Grow your network during your studies – especially in the city where you may build your career!
ANNA, POLITICAL SCIENCE, 2019
“I love that Glendon is such a small and beautiful campus. After I transferred from a bigger university, Glendon really felt like home. Because the classes are so much smaller, it gives you the opportunity to connect with your peers and your profs.”

EMMA, BIOLOGY, 2019
“Glendon offered me the small classroom environment and unique academic curriculum that allowed me to build very strong relationships with professors who also became mentors, allowed me to explore various interests and ultimately discover my passion through the many research and experiential learning opportunities that were made available. All these factors played a crucial role in making my grad school application stand out.”
SMALL CAMPUS. BIG HEART. Looking for an easier transition to university? Our small campus can help you with that.

Helping and supporting one another is what makes Glendon so unique. We offer a personalized experience where you really matter — in a safe and protected parkland environment in midtown Toronto with 24/7 security, as well as many support programs that serve our diverse community, who come from more than 100 countries around the world.
ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

You’ll have access to the Glendon Accessibility, Well-Being and Counselling Centre, which provides services for every student.

We offer academic accommodation and support to all students with disabilities, including:
• Students with temporary or permanent disabilities
• Students enrolled in full- or part-time studies at Glendon Campus
• Students registered in undergraduate or graduate studies

PERSONAL COUNSELLING

If you are experiencing personal difficulties or have a mental health condition, we have experienced counsellors available to speak with you confidentially.

ORIENTATION ACTIVITIES

JumpStart
Get a jump on your post-secondary transition with this unique four-day pre-orientation program at the end of August. You’ll learn tips for adjusting to the academic demands of university life, studying more effectively and adapting to your new environment.

Glendon Orientation (GO) Day
At this mandatory event in September, you will receive essential information about student life, services and resources on campus. You’ll meet your Peer Mentor, professors and other students.

Orientation for All
In addition to Glendon Orientation Day, we host dedicated orientation events for LGBTQ2+ & Allies, International Students, Indigenous students and more.
HOW TO APPLY

STEP 1
RESPECT DEADLINES
Make sure you apply before the deadline! Otherwise, you run the risk of not being admitted.

STEP 2
CHECK THE REQUIREMENTS
Make sure to check what courses you will need to have completed in order to be considered for admission, and anything else your chosen program requires. If a test is needed as part of the application process, you can expect to hear from us after you have applied.

STEP 3
SUBMIT
OUAC is the provincial online portal for all Ontario high school student university applications. You simply enter your information and click to submit.

Applicants from outside Ontario (including high school students, university and college transfer students and mature students) can submit their application through OUAC.on.ca or through York University at futurestudents.yorku.ca/requirements/apply, and must ask their previous institution(s) to send their transcripts directly to:

Office of Admissions, York University
Bennett Centre for Student Services – 3rd Floor Reception
99 Ian Macdonald Blvd
Toronto, ON M3J 1P3

STEP 4
STAY ON TOP OF YOUR APPLICATION
Once you have applied, you’ll receive your York U reference number. Enter this number in MyFile, the York student portal, to track the status of your application online, and check the status of your supporting documents. Make sure you pay attention to email and mail messages from York University.
HOW MyFile WORKS
Within a few business days of submitting your application online, you will receive a confirmation email from York University, which will contain your 9-digit York ID number. With this ID number, you will be able to access MyFile and see any documents being requested by the Office of Admissions. These will be listed under the “Supporting Documents” tab.

MyFile is also the place to apply for most Scholarships and Housing on campus (residences) as well as the tool to book your first year advising appointment.
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

All Glendon programs have minimum requirements (see top chart), and some programs have specific requirements in addition to the minimum ones (see bottom chart) — check them out here to make sure you take all the courses you need!

If you’re looking for your program and don’t find it in the bottom chart, it means that your program only has minimum requirements.

If you are a Canadian student from outside Ontario or Québec, you can find out-of-province admission requirements here:

IMPORTANT DATES

Here is what you can do to be on track with your admission to Glendon and keep in touch with us.

September to December 2021
Join us for our Virtual Fall Campus Day: Open House – November 21, 2021. You’ll have the chance to speak with our professors and learn about the services we offer.

Ask your questions to a student already enrolled in the program that interests you. Easily book a 15-minute chat with a member of the Glendon Virtual Network!

December 2021 to April 2022
January 13, 2022 is the Fall 2022 application deadline for all Ontario high school students; applicants from Canadian international schools; and high school students from Canadian provinces outside Ontario.

Submit your supplementary documentation if you applied to a program that requires supplementary evaluation (AMPD, Business Administration, Education and the Glendon iBA/BBA dual degree).

December 2021 to April 1, 2022
Apply for Glendon entrance awards and scholarships at https://www.glendon.yorku.ca/futurestudents/fees-and-funding/scholarships-and-bursaries/application/. You do need your MyFile access to apply, but don’t need to have an offer of admission.

March 2022
Join us for our Spring events to experience Glendon and discover what it’s like to be a student here.
- March Break U – March 14 to 18, 2022
- Experience Glendon: Spring Open House

Keep checking MyFile and your email account, which you provided on your application, for updates to the status of your application.
YOU RECEIVED AN OFFER FROM GLENDON? CONGRATS! HERE ARE YOUR NEXT STEPS.

June 2022
The deadline for Ontario high school students to accept their offer is June 1, 2022.

As soon as you have accepted your offer, complete YU START. Your course enrolment access time will be emailed to you, and you’ll have the support of YU START student leaders to help you transition to Glendon.

Apply for residence by June 1 if applicable. Your room will be assigned to you in mid-July.

Apply for OSAP by June 30 to ensure your funds are available in early September.

Notify the Office of Admissions if you are enrolling in summer school.

Your final transcript is required in August.

July-August 2022
Get ready for classes and Orientation! Important dates for the 2022-2023 school year will be posted online in the summer of 2022.

Budgeting for year ahead, work-study program application, residence.

Late August 2022
Glendon Orientation Week – making new friends!

Early September 2022
Glendon Orientation (GO) Day – meet your professors, advisors and other students.

September 2022
Classes start!
TIPS FOR PARENTS

THE RESEARCH AND APPLICATION PROCESS

Start your search early – there are many options to choose from. Sit down with your future high school graduate to discuss what interests them. From there, visit https://www.ontariouniversitiesinfo.ca/programs to search and discover programs offered by Ontario universities related to those fields of interest.

Know the deadlines – The OUAC deadline for all Ontario high school student applications is January 13, 2022. Scholarship and bursary applications also have their own deadlines. Make sure your child is aware of those deadlines and applies in time. Applicants are highly encouraged to apply for scholarships and bursaries even before they have received an offer of admission.

Explore the various courses in the program – This helps future students get a better understanding of what they’ll learn, and solidify what they would enjoy or be interested in.

Speak with professors and current students – The Glendon Campus is a small and inclusive community, where profs get to know their students by name. Meet with us at our open house events, drop-in sessions and through the Glendon Virtual Network, and get answers to all your questions.

Check entry requirements – Make sure you review both the general and program-specific requirements with your child. Some programs, like the Glendon BEd and Dual degree, require a supplementary application.

Understand student finances – Sit down with your future university student to review their sources of income, develop a budget and make sure they can adequately fund their studies.

FIRST YEAR

Adopt the role of a coach.
As the parent of a student in university, your role becomes more focused on coaching them and checking in on their wellness.

Start on the right foot.
Getting involved with everything, and failing to consider how that might make the student feel, may make transition to university more difficult. Take a step back and let them experiment.

Help them find a healthy balance.
Help them with time management, so that they avoid focusing solely on their academics and any jobs they may also hold, which can become overwhelming. Ensuring they schedule leisure time, volunteering or physical activity breaks will help them find balance.

Ensure they get the most out of the experience.
Getting involved is a driver to a successful first year for many students. Are they seeking to join clubs, get a job on campus or accessing university services?

PARENTS & SUPPORTERS ORIENTATION

Taking place on residence move-in day, this session lets parents, guardians and family connect with the Glendon team to ask questions about campus security, orientation, food services, student life, financial aid and OSAP.
THE BIG CITY AND THE BIG CAMPUS AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Experience the best of both worlds with our peaceful green space and the exciting perks of downtown life. A free shuttle is available between the Glendon and Keele campuses so you can access more choices of courses, restaurants, study spaces and extracurriculars.
