

Mackey Scholarship in Critical Disability Studies

These awards will be given to newly admitted students to Critical Disability Program who self-identify as a person with a disability and demonstrate the array of experiences acquired within their pursuit of higher education at the doctoral level, their interest in critical disability studies, and what they hope to accomplish with their education upon graduation.

The Mackey Scholarship is offering $1,000 entrance scholarship to new full time doctoral student in Critical Disability Studies program

This scholarship was established in 2015 in memory of Peter Mackey, an erudite and sophisticated thinker. He was researching the problems that disabled people experience and what might a society be like were these problems solved.
