

Copyright Licence

GRADUATE PROGRAM IN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES YORK UNIVERSITY

In the interest of facilitating research by others and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, I hereby grant a licence to YORK UNIVERSITY to make copies, including electronically formatted copies, of my thesis or dissertation or parts thereof, the copyright in which may rest in me, subject to the following conditions:

- this licence continues for the full term of the copyright or for so long as may be legally permitted;
- a copyright notice appears on all copies;
- a copy may be submitted to Library and Archives Canada for archiving in microform, paper or electronic formats and for reproduction, loan, distribution or sale of microform, paper or electronically formatted copies;
- charges for copies may be collected to cover actual costs; and
- all copies made bear a statement to the effect that the copy is being made available in this form by authority of the copy-right owner solely for the purpose of private study and research and may not be copied or reproduced except as permitted by the copyright laws without written authority from the copyright owner.

I represent and promise that my thesis or dissertation is my original work, does not infringe any rights of others, and that I have the right to make the grant conferred by this copyright licence.

Dated this _____ day of _____, _____

Name _____

Witness _____

NOTE:

In exceptional cases, where adequate cause can be shown to delay publication, the student may request the Dean of Graduate Studies to restrict access to any copies of a thesis or dissertation delivered to York, for a period of up to three years after submission and the Dean, in consultation with the student's Program Director and the thesis or dissertation Supervisor, shall determine for what period, if any, such access will be so restricted in the absence of the written consent of the student.