

SYLLABUS

(Weekly topics, readings for lectures, class discussions, presentations & assignments).

Jan. 7, WELCOME, Introductions, Course Overview and group activity " Doing Ethics Through Select Thought Experiments" (Handouts).

Read from Online library/Moodle reserve link: Ethics in Canadian University physical activity curricula and Ethics Education: The Cornerstone of foundational behaviours of Professional Practice

Read: "Ethics and Moral Reasoning" in Course Kit & Chapter 1 from Course text (Sport Ethics).

Jan. 9, 14

Lectures: Introduction to Ethical Concepts and Terms, Major Normative Ethical Theories, Principles and the Ethical Decision-Making Process.

Read from Course text (Sport Ethics): Ch. 3 (pp.53- to top of 64), and from the Course Kit: Ethical Challenges in Sport Management (pp.375-379). Preventing Moral distress and ethical Decline in Sports Medicine AND Undergraduate healthcare ethics education, moral resilience, and the role of ethical theories,

Jan. 16, 21

Lecture: Overview of a Step- by- Step Model (I) For Rendering Ethical Judgment and Practice with Case Study Analysis

Read: Pages 64-68 and pgs. 141-147 (Example Case) from Sport Ethics and/ practice case from Biomedical Ethics (Handout)

FINALIZE SIGN UPS FOR PRESENTATION GROUPS

Jan. 23, 28

Lectures: Major Normative Ethical Theories: Teleological/ Consequentialist , Deontological / Non-Consequentialist and an Existentialist Ethic.

Read: Chapter 4 , Sport Ethics & select Bioethical Theories in Appendix of Course Kit.

Read: Online course Moodle/ Library Reserve: Ethical decision making in sport administration a theoretical inquiry into substance and form.

Jan. 30

Lecture: Guiding Ethical Values & Major Ethical Principles in Sport, Health Care & Research

Read: Chapter 7 of Sport Ethics and

Review: Suggestions for Making Effective Student Presentations

Feb 4. TEAM 1: Character Development in Traditional & Digital (virtual) Esports.

Read: Which "character" should sport develop? Ethical Considerations Related to Sport and Play in a Digital World and Virtue (al) games- real drugs.

Feb. 6

Lecture: Select Ethical Dilemmas and Issues in Contemporary Sport and Recreation

Read: Chapter 2 of Sport Ethics.

Feb. 11 TEAM 2: The Ethics of Therapeutic Recreation and AAT

Read from Course Kit: Ethics in Therapeutic Recreation and Ethical Issues in Animal Assisted Therapy Programs.

Feb.13 TEAM 3: The Ethical Debate about Genetically Engineered Athletes & Testing AND/OR Genetically Engineered (CRISPR) Foods

Read: Ethical Considerations of Genetic Manipulation in Sport and The Ethics of Genetic Testing in Sport. AND/OR Snipping Around for Food.

CASE STUDY DUE

Feb. 15 - 21 Winter Reading Week

Feb. 25 Lecture: Comparative Models of Cognitive Moral Reasoning: Justice & Care
Read from the Course Kit: The Ethics of Care and Towards a New Ethic as well as Pages 93-96 in Sport Ethics (related to cognitive moral development through to the ethic of caring).

Feb. 27 TEAM 4: The Ethical Costs of Medical Issues in Sport: Concussions

Read: Concussion in Sport: Conceptual and Ethical Issues and Ethics, Brains Injuries and Sport: Prohibitions Reform & Prudence

March 3

Lecture: Major Ethical Health Care Approaches: Classic & Some Alternatives

Read: Teaching Bioethics in the New Millennium.

Mar. 5 TEAM 5: Ethics and Animal Research

Read: The Ethics of Animal Use for Research and The Ethics of Animals Research and What are the Prospects for Agreement?

Mar.10 TEAM 6: Ethics in Human Research

Read: Ethics in Exercise Science Research and/or Ethics and The Physiological Assessment of Athletes /or Expectations and Graduate Education: Advancing Research in Kinesiology.

Mar. 12

Lecture: Environmental Theories and Sustainability in Sport and Recreation

Read: New ways of thinking about Bioethics.

Mar. 17 TEAM 7: Environmental Stewardship in the Health Care Sector

Read: Healthcare professionals' perspectives on environmental sustainability.

Mar. 19 TEAM 8: Ethics Surrounding a Canadian Two-Tier Healthcare system: An International Comparison

Read: The alluring myth of private medicine, & The benefits of privatization.

Mar. 24 TEAM 9: Ethics of E-Health and Telerehabilitation

Read: Ethical Aspects of e-health and/or Ethical Dimensions of Using Artificial Intelligence in Health Care.....

Mar. 26

Lecture: More on Professional Regulation, Accountability & Governance.

Read from course kit: "Whistleblowing and Organizational Ethics" and review Online Professional Codes of Ethics or Conduct Codes

Mar. 31

April 2 IN CLASS TEST

FINAL PAPER DUE

