INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY
Fall/Winter 2022
(Winter Term)

Course Prerequisite(s): None

Course Credit Exclusions: Please refer to York Courses Website

Course Directors: Dr. Doug McCann is your instructor for the fall term.

Dr. Gerry Goldberg, C. Psych. For the winter term (email: gegold@yorku.ca)

TIME: Official class time is Thursday 2:30-5:30. Lectures are pre-recorded and available online via on eClass. Test 3 will be administered during this time. Test 4 will be administered during the exam period.

Virtual Zoom office hours: Although flexible, office hours for Dr. Goldberg will be during the official class time though obviously not during exams. Office hours for the Teaching Assistants (TAs) will be posted. Private zoom meetings may be scheduled by email. Dr. Goldberg will be available to discuss personal matters, issues related to accommodation/accessibility, and missed exams. He will not answer emails regarding issues/questions covered in the course syllabus. For questions concerning lecture or text material, study habits, etc., you should contact your TA.

In case you're not familiar with Zoom and don't quite know what to expect or how to join a meeting, please check out "Connecting to a Zoom meeting for students" <https://lthelp.yorku.ca/connecting-to-a-zoom-meeting-for-students>

We look forward to receiving your emails. When emailing include your Student ID and full name in the body of your email with the course number on the subject line (if not, a reply is not guaranteed). See end of this document for guidance on email etiquette.

Course Description:

A survey of psychology introducing basic terms, concepts and methods. Included are topics such as biological bases of behaviour, learning, perception, motivation, cognition, child development, personality, and abnormal and social psychology.

Note: This course is required for all students who intend to pursue additional courses in psychology at the 2000, 3000 and 4000 levels. Students must pass the course with a minimum grade of C (4.00) in order to pursue further studies in psychology.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Define psychology and explain how it meets the criteria of science.
2. Recognize key concepts, methods, theories and assumptions in psychology.
3. Describe basic characteristics of the scientific method in psychology.
4. Discern differences between personal views and scientific evidence.

Course Format

The lectures are prerecorded and available on the eClass course site and so are asynchronous. These lectures include media presentations. Lectures will discuss and expand on text readings and will, at times, discuss material not in the text. Although not all text material will be discussed directly in class you are responsible for all text and lecture material. You are responsible for this material and media presentations. When studying for tests, do not study just from the text or the lecture notes. Questions derived from media presentations may appear on tests. It is recommended that you do not try to cram. View each lecture in segments with rest breaks as they are 3-hrs long.

Course website: eClass

Except for the textbook, all course materials such as pre-recorded lectures, PowerPoint slides, tests/exams results, important notifications, etc. will be available on the eClass site. It is your responsibility to check this site regularly.

Required Text:

This text is available through the York University Bookstore)

Required: McCann, D., Weiten, W., & Matheson, D. (2022). Psychology: Themes and Variations (6th Canadian Edition). Toronto, Canada: Thomson-Nelson.

Recommended: Mindtap (Mindtap is bundled with the texts available through the York University Bookstore. Mindtap contains practice tests and study materials that many students find useful in preparing for course tests and exams.

NOTE: Make sure to get the right edition of the textbook - the 6th Canadian Edition with a publication date of 2022. This is the only textbook that will be referred to in this course. You can obtain a copy of the textbook through the York University Bookstore website. Mindtap is not used for purposes of evaluation, but is a tool that students can use to study and practice test taking.

The cover of the textbook looks like this:

Technical Requirements:

This course depends on remote teaching and learning. There will be no in-person interactions or activities on campus. There are numerous technical requirements for this course. These include a computer equipped with a webcam and microphone and high-speed internet access. Several platforms will be used to support this course (eClass, Zoom, Turnitin).

Zoom: Zoom occasionally will be used for class meetings such as question and answer periods. These will be recorded and placed on eClass. Zoom is hosted on servers in the U.S. If you have privacy concerns, provide only your first name or a nickname when you join a session. All participants are automatically notified when a session is being recorded. A session cannot be recorded without your knowledge.

Video: You may sometimes need to appear on video via Zoom (e.g., for remote exam proctoring). If you have concerns about appearing on video or do not have access to a webcam, please inform the course instructor at the beginning of the course.

Remote Exam Proctoring: A remote exam proctoring program, Proctortrack, may be used for multiple choice exams given within the exam period. This system may be utilized to promote academic integrity.

The instructor may use an online proctoring service to deliver the exam(s), which would be administered through the Learning Management System (e.g. eClass, Canvas, etc.). Students are required to have access to minimum technology requirements to complete examinations. If an online proctoring service is used, students will need to become familiar with it at least five days before exam(s). For technology requirements, Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) and details about the online proctoring service visit at <https://registrar.yorku.ca/proctortrack-faq> . Students are required to share any IT accommodation needs with the instructor as soon as they are able

Tests/Evaluation Winter Term:

Student evaluation in the winter term is based on 2 multiple choice tests each worth 24% of your final grade. Participation in URPP (Undergraduate Research Participant Program) constitutes 2% for a total of 50%.

Tests: See section near the end of this document entitled Information about taking online tests .

- Should Proctortrack is used students must present their York student ID card or a Canadian government issued pictured ID when taking online exams via zoom
- The 4th test will take place during the final official exam period and may involve remote exam proctoring (Proctortrack).
- Test are non-cumulative and both cover roughly four chapters + class material. Questions will be drawn from the text, lectures and media presentations.
- Each exam will consist of approximately 60 multiple choice questions administered during class time.

Winter Term	Multiple Choice
Test 3	March 3 2:30-3:20	(24%) Chapters 10-13, lectures 13-18 including media
Test 4	TBA: Exam period	(24%) Chapters 9,14-16, lectures 20-24 media

URPP or Research Participation: 2% of your grade in the winter comes from your participation in the URPP (Undergraduate Research Participant Program) research opportunities. To earn the 2% research mark you must participate in 4 hours of research in the winter term (for 2%). You cannot obtain the full 2% credit unless you do 4 hours of research. If you feel strongly about NOT participating, you will be provided with an alternative written assignment by URPP (not by your professor).. All of this is done under the direction of the URPP coordinator, not your instructors or the TAs. Details regarding participation in the URPP should be forthcoming from the administrator of URPP. Any information will be posted on eclass. You can contact URPP at urpp@yorku.ca. If you have any concerns regarding urpp points or participation, email them, not your instructor or TA.

Course website: eClass

The eClass course site has important information about the course (including a copy of this course outline with updates), pre-recorded lectures and most slides in PowerPoint format. Grades will be posted on this site. New information concerning the course, such as make-up exam information will be posted.

It is your responsibility to check the eClass site for this course frequently for updates.

Teaching Assistants: Updated contact information and office hours for the Teaching Assistants will be posted on the eClass website. Students will be assigned to a specific Teaching Assistant alphabetically by the student's last name. Check the website about two weeks into the course to find out your assigned TA. It is important that each student have someone who is familiar with him or her and their grades etc. If you have trouble meeting during your TA office hours, contact them about this.

Each TA will be available weekly for consultation regarding text readings, exams, grades, study habits, etc. They will be happy to talk with you about any troubles you are having with the lectures or the text materials, improving your study habits and about graduate school in psychology and careers in psychology. If you wish, you can use emails to set up a private zoom meeting.

Access to tests/exams:

To promote academic integrity students will not have access to their exams after they complete them. Your TA can discuss your exams with you in general terms. Use the sample questions for feedback

START YOUR OWN STUDY TEAM:

Students learn most from communicating with each other. When students get together to help each other understand material they relate to and remember the material. I encourage you to form your own study teams. The course website or eClass site is set up so that students may communicate among themselves using the class discussion forum link. You have the opportunity to invite others to join at a specified time and place to form teams. For example, you might select one of the following as a meeting time: immediately after class, one hour before class, Monday to Friday during the day, evening, or weekend, etc. You could meet online or at some meeting location. Access to the university is limited due to Covid-19 but you might meet in a coffee shop or patio, etc. Make sure it is a safe location. Get started right away. Take a leadership role and send out an email invite to your fellow students. \

Missed Tests/Late Assignments:

Missing exam is considered a very serious matter. If you miss a test, you will be given only one opportunity to make up this test. This will be after the April exam period. If you miss a makeup test, there will be no other opportunity to make up the grade for the test. If you miss the test(s) prior to the drop date, you have waived the right to have a specific percentage of graded feedback available prior to the drop date.

For any missed quiz students MUST complete the online form below which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the missed quiz or late assignment.

Due to COVID-19 an Attending Physician's Statement (APS) is not required, however, a reason for missing an evaluated component in the course must be provided. In addition, to the online form, a student's documented reason for a missed test must be submitted. Tests/exams missed due to non-medical circumstances must be supported by appropriate documentation, i.e., death certificates, automobile accident reports, airline/bus ticket/receipt for emergency travel (with date of booking on ticket), etc. Airline/train/bus ticket/receipts for emergency travel must indicate destination, departure, and return dates. Having to work at the time of a test is not considered a valid excuse for missing the test.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Only extremely unusual circumstances would warrant a second chance if you miss two term tests. It would be in your best interests to drop or withdraw from the course if you have long term health issues. Permission from the course instructor is required before any accommodation can be determined. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

Psychology Department's policies on missing an exam (available at http://www.yorku.ca/health/psyc/advising_missedtests.html).

Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

Continuing Study in Psychology

Students must obtain a minimum grade of C (4.0) this course in order to be permitted to pursue a degree in Psychology or to take any further course work in psychology even if they do not plan to major in Psychology. This regulation applies to students wishing to take Psychology courses in most faculties.

Add/Drop Deadlines

For a list of all important dates please refer to: <https://registrar.yorku.ca/enrol/dates/fw21>

	Fall (F)	Year (Y)	Winter (W)
Last date to add a course without permission of instructor (also see Financial Deadlines)	Sept 21.	Sept 21	Jan. 23
Last date to add a course with permission of instructor (also see Financial Deadlines)	Oct. 5	Oct. 26	Feb. 7
Drop deadline: Last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (also see Financial Deadlines)	Nov. 12	Feb. 11	March 18
Course Withdrawal Period (withdraw from a course and receive a grade of "W" on transcript – see note below)	Nov. 13- Dec. 7	Feb. 12 – April 10	March 19- April 10

Add and Drop Deadline Information – for official dates see

(<https://registrar.yorku.ca/enrol/dates/fw21>)

Add and Drop Deadline Information

There are deadlines for adding and dropping courses, both academic and financial. Since, for the most part, the dates are different, be sure to read the information carefully so that you understand the differences between the sessional dates below and the Refund Tables.

You are strongly advised to pay close attention to the "Last date to enroll without permission of course instructor" deadlines. These deadlines represent the last date students have unrestricted access to the registration and enrolment system.

After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

You can drop courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (drop deadline).

You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as 'W'. The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.

Academic Integrity for Students

In this course, we strive to maintain academic integrity to the highest extent possible. Please familiarize yourself with the meaning of academic integrity by completing SPARK's Academic Integrity module at the beginning of the course. Breaches of academic integrity range from cheating (i.e., the improper crediting of another's work, the representation of another's ideas as your own, etc.) to aiding and abetting (helping someone else to cheat). All breaches in this course will be reported to the appropriate university authorities, and can be punishable

York University takes academic integrity very seriously; please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity by completing the Academic Integrity Tutorial and Academic Honesty Quiz

Information on Plagiarism Detection (Turnitin)

Plagiarism is a serious matter and will be of concern when it comes to the take home open book assignments in the course. Please be aware that your assignments will need to be submitted by you to a portal on eClass which will involve a program called Turnitin.

Should you be assigned written work, you will be required to submit your written work to Turnitin (via the course eClass). Turnitin reviews textual similarity and helps in the detection of possible plagiarism (see below). By using this software, you are allowing your submitted material to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used only for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. Terms applying to the University's use of the Turnitin service are described on Turnitin.com. Violations of academic honesty revealed by Turnitin will be subject to investigation and potential penalties levied by the Department of Psychology at York University.

Electronic Device Policy

This course will be delivered in an online format and therefore electronic devices (e.g., tablets, laptops) are permitted during class time for course-related purposes. It is expected that you would complete tests/exams in a manner that does not require consulting an unauthorized source during an examination unless the tests/exams are open book.

Test Banks

The offering for sale of, buying of, and attempting to sell or buy test banks (banks of test questions and/or answers), or any course specific test questions/answers is not permitted in the Faculty of Health. Any student found to be doing this may be considered to have breached the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. In particular, buying and attempting to sell banks of test questions and/or answers may be considered as "Cheating in an attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation" (article 2.1.1 from the Senate Policy) and/or "encouraging, enabling or causing others" (article 2.1.10 from the Senate Policy) to cheat.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The university encourages students with disabilities to register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to discuss their accommodation needs as early as possible in the term to establish the recommended academic accommodations that will be communicated to Course Directors as necessary. Please let me know as early as possible in the term if you anticipate requiring academic accommodation so that we can discuss how to consider your accommodation needs within the context of this course.

<https://accessibility.students.yorku.ca/>

Excerpt from Senate Policy on Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

1. Pursuant to its commitment to sustaining an inclusive, equitable community in which all members are treated with respect and dignity, and consistent with applicable accessibility legislation, York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs. This policy aims to eliminate systemic barriers to participation in academic activities by students with disabilities.

All students are expected to satisfy the essential learning outcomes of courses. Accommodations shall be consistent with, support and preserve the academic integrity of the curriculum and the academic standards of courses and programs. For further information please refer to: York University Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities Policy.

Religious Observance Accommodation:

If any test dates pose a problem for you with regard to your Religious Observance please inform Dr. Goldberg at least three weeks before the test. Alternative tests dates will be arranged. You should complete a Religious Accommodation Form available at: <https://secure.students.yorku.ca/pdf/religious-accommodation-agreement-final-examinations.pdf>

Calumet and Stong Colleges' Student Success Programming

Calumet and Stong Colleges aim to support the success of Faculty of Health students through a variety of free programs throughout their university career:

- Orientation helps new students transition into university, discover campus resources, and establish social and academic networks.
- Peer Mentoring connects well-trained upper-year students with first year and transfer students to help them transition into university.
- Course Representative Program aims to build the leadership skills of its course reps while contributing to the academic success and resourcefulness of students in core program classes.
- Peer Assisted Study Sessions \(P.A.S.S.\) involve upper-level academically successful and well-trained students who facilitate study sessions in courses that are known to be historically challenging.
- Peer Tutoring offers one-on-one academic support by trained peer tutors.
- Calumet and Stong Colleges also support students' Health & Wellness, leadership and professional skills development, student/community engagement and wellbeing, career exploration, Indigenous Circle, awards and recognition, and provide opportunities to students to work or volunteer.
- Please connect with your Course Director about any specific academic resources for this class.
- For additional resources/information about our student success programs, please consult our website, email scchelp@yorku.ca, and/or follow us on Instagram and Facebook.

<https://lthelp.yorku.ca/getting-started-with-eClass/recommended-browser-settings>

There will be a practice quiz so that you may test your technology and get used to taking the online tests.

Best practices for students taking an online quiz

Extra considerations you may need to take into account when taking an online quiz.

Internet connection is your lifeline to the course, the quiz and your success. If you're on wireless and you have the ability to physically connect to your internet connection: Do this first.

We recommend that you use a wired connection over a wireless (WiFi) at all times. If your internet is unstable, that's one thing. If the WiFi is unstable, it could be something as simple as you being in an area where there are multiple WiFi hotspots that are using the same channels. This will cause issues. It is better to be wired into the router and away from the invisible war for channel supremacy between yours and your neighbours routers.

Is your browser up to date? Check that you are using the most up to date version of your Browser. See our recommended browser setting article for more information.

Pay attention to your every move. When you're clicking around in the quiz, make sure that you see the effect that your click has. If you click too close to a previous answer, you may inadvertently change it. Be careful and review your answers before you move on.

Ultimately it is you who is responsible for the change that happens. Make sure you double-check your answers before you continue.

Time is a funny thing... Don't leave it to the last few seconds (or even minutes) to submit your quiz. If you are taking a timed quiz you will see a timer so you can keep track of how much time you have left, but make sure you allow yourself time to submit.

Have the power... so to speak. Make sure that your computer is plugged in to a constant power supply. Obviously for those of you who are at a desktop computer, you're already doing this.

For those of you on a laptop computer, make sure your power supply is plugged in to the wall and connected to your laptop. There is no guarantee that your battery is going to last you to the end of the quiz.

However unlikely, mid-quiz is not the time you want to find out that the battery on your laptop can no longer keep a charge, even though it said it still had 50% left. Even if your quiz had an automatic save, or if you just clicked the save button, the next few minutes you're going to spend trying to get back into your course may be what you needed to finish on time.

One last thing. All of this is really important, so make sure that you can do your best to guarantee that your technical capability to get in, execute, and submit the quiz is as good as you can make it.

Don't forget to take a deep breath. You've got this.

Email Etiquette

1. Emails sent to the professor or teaching assistant MUST indicate the course number and section in the subject line of the email. Our course and section are PSYC1010, SEC N.
2. Include your full name and student number in the body of the email. If your preferred name differs from the name on the course roster, please let your professor and TA know that early in the term.
3. Before sending an email, make sure you've done a thorough job of trying to find the answer to your question in the materials posted on the course outline or eClass. Emails asking questions that are clearly addressed in the posted course materials will not receive responses.
4. A proper email to your course director or TA begins by addressing them by their name and/or title. Your email message should be proofread for spelling, grammatical, and punctuation errors, and should be written in a polite tone.
5. Send your emails well in advance of when a response is required. You should expect to receive a response within 3 days of sending an email. If you have not received a response within that time period, you can follow-up politely.
