EXPANDED COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course involves formal lectures. Students will have an opportunity to participate in small group discussions to increase their understanding of how life experiences, values, and biases influence gender-role stereotypes, socialization practices, male-female differences, and the family. Given the likelihood that personal information will be disclosed in class, students are required to adhere strictly to rules of confidentiality. At all times, the interpretation offered is made with reference to the broader social context. The lectures may be supplemented by films and videos and invited guest/s.

Course Learning Objectives

1) Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the factors associated with the psychology of women. The course content is focused on how life experiences, values, and biases influence gender-role stereotypes, socialization practices, male-female differences, and the family.

2) Specific Learning Objectives

- To develop an understanding of issues relevant to the psychology of women.
- To understand how gender inequalities develop.
- To critically examine perceptions and attitudes toward women and men.
- To reflect on your role in facilitating change for women

GRADING, ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION, LATENESS PENALTIES AND MISSED TESTS

Grading: The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g. A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear a number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.).

(For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2010-2011/academic/index.htm> )

Missed Tests: Students with a documented reason for missing a test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (e.g., doctor's letter) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Accommodations may be permission to write a make-up test, or reweighting of course evaluations. Further extensions or accommodations will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty. Students who miss a test must notify the course instructor prior to the test and will only be able to write a make-up test if they have valid documentation to support their absence. Serious illnesses and family tragedies are the only acceptable justifications for missing a test. Please note that there is no guarantee that the make-up test will follow the same format as the original and the date of the make-up test will be assigned by the course Instructor.
